INTRODUCTION

This finding aid is classified as a numerical list because it describes the files in the fonds. Descriptive notes have been prepared for the overall presentation of the fonds as well as for each series. The various levels of description thus enable researchers to find the information they seek by proceeding from the general to the particular.

The descriptive note for each file includes a file code, the title, the inclusive dates, the type of record (textual records, audio discs, photographs, etc.), the number or linear quantity of textual records, the number of iconographic or audio records, a description of the file's contents when it contains different types of records, and a section reserved for notes, containing information about restrictions to file access and about the nature of the records (original or copies); in the case of sound recordings, the reference number is shown. In addition to these elements, the introductions to both the fonds and the various series include a biographical sketch (fonds only), as well as comments about the scope of the records and about the classification peculiarities of some of the series.

The present finding aid does not contain any file marked "undated". Whenever undated records were encountered, a date was attributed, using one of the following forms: [1959?]: probable date; [ca. 1950]: approximate date; [197-]: decade known; [197-?]: decade unknown.

File numbers, which enable a quick and accurate search of the files, are structured as follows:

MUS 95/D7/1,22

MUS: Repository (Music Division)
95: Fonds (Robert Fleming Fonds)
D: Series (Musical Works)
7: Sub-series (Solo Instrument)
1: Sub-sub-series (Piano)
22: File (Humoresque)

The numerical list is complemented by an index of proper names and titles, and an index of files. The references in this index are to file numbers, not page numbers. In the index, the first two elements of the file number have been omitted for simplicity (for example, MUS 95/D7/1,22 becomes D7/1,22). The index of files matches file codes with box numbers.

The design of this finding aid is based on standards prescribed in Rules for Archival Description, prepared by the Bureau of Canadian Archivists.

Biographical Notes

Born in Prince Albert, Saskatchewan in 1921, Robert Fleming began his musical studies with his mother before continuing his training in Saskatoon with various teachers. At age 10, he joined the St. John's Cathedral Choir under the direction of W. Seemer Betts. He also competed in music festivals as a pianist, solo singer, choir member and accompanist. From 1937 to 1939, the young artist attended the Royal College of Music in England, where he studied piano with Arthur Benjamin and composition with Herbert Howells. On his return to Canada, he taught piano and in 1940 embarked on a recital tour in Saskatchewan, which included an appearance at Dark Hall in Regina. Under the direction of Dean Arthur Collingwood, Fleming worked as a regular pianist with the Saskatoon Symphony Orchestra during the 1941-1942 season while pursuing his piano studies with Lyell Gustin. In 1941 and 1945, he obtained CAPAC scholarships and enrolled at the Toronto Conservatory of Music, where he received instruction from Healey Willan (composition), Norman Wilks (piano), Ettore Mazzoleni (conducting) and Frederick Silvester (organ), among others.

In 1946, after teaching piano at Upper Canada College, he went to work for the National Film Board of Canada as a composer (1946-1958), first in Ottawa and then in Montreal, where he served as Music Director (1958-1970). In 1970, he returned to Ottawa as a professor and course instructor at Carleton University. A prolific composer, Fleming composed over 500 works, including 250 for ballet and film (Air Ambulance, Camp for Kids, Canada at War, Canada - USA, Jacky Visits the Zoo, Red Runs the Fraser, Rural Music Festival, Tuktu Series, etc.). A number of Fleming's works were commissions, including Ballet Introduction (Les Grands ballets canadiens), Three Contrasts (Canadian Music Centre), Our Mind Was the Singer (National Arts Centre Corporation) and Of a Timeless Land (Ottawa Civic Orchestra). During his career, he was also active as an organist and music director in cities throughout Saskatchewan, Quebec and Ontario. After his death in November 1976, the Robert Fleming Award, administered by the Canadian Music Council and then by the Canada Council, was created as well as a second Robert Fleming Award, established by the Ottawa Music Festival Association.

Scope and Content

The records contained in the fonds illustrate Robert Fleming's career as a composer and his activities at the National Film Board. In addition, the fonds contains records pertaining to other activities in which Fleming was involved such as teaching and music direction.

The fonds contains, among other items, biographical records, lists of works, correspondence, contracts, minutes of meetings, musical works, shot lists, transcripts, course notes, exercises, certificates, examination questions, texts of public addresses, concert programs, financial documents, scrapbooks, press clippings, photographs mainly of Robert Fleming, drawings and sound recordings of works by Fleming and other composers.

The fonds comprises the following series: MUS 95/A Correspondence; MUS 95/B Studies; MUS 95/C Teaching and Public Speaking; MUS 95/D Musical Works; MUS 95/E Concert Programs; MUS 95/F Oklahoma! - Music Direction; MUS 95/G Scrapbooks; MUS 95/H Press Clippings; MUS 95/I Photographs; MUS 95/J Drawings; MUS 95/K Sound Recordings; and MUS 95/L Miscellaneous.

Notes

The fonds was acquired by donation from Margaret Fleming, Robert Fleming's widow, in several installments between 1978 and 1986.

The Music Division does not hold the copyright to the records in its custody. Researchers must therefore comply with the Copyright Act (R.S.C, C-30).

MUS 95/D MUSICAL WORKS. – [ca. 1900]-1976. – 4.13 m of textual records.

The records in the series illustrate Robert Fleming's composing and the diversity of his production. Drafts and manuscripts of film music and shot lists reveal the methods used by the composer in the creative process. Numerous liturgical pieces for choir or voice also show the importance of religion in Fleming's thought. His works include The Confession Stone, Chapter 13, Shadow on the Prairie, Around the House Suite, Kaleidoscope, Seaboard Sketches and Prairie Sailor.

This series contains sketches, drafts, notes, shot lists and manuscripts of musical works by Robert Fleming. It also includes a few works by other composers, including Arthur E. Fleming, Robert Fleming's grandfather.

The series encompasses the following sub-series: MUS 95/D1 Film; MUS 95/D2 Theatre; MUS 95/D3 Orchestra; MUS 95/D4 Choir or Voice and Orchestra; MUS 95/D5 Band; MUS 95/D6 Chamber Music; MUS 95/D7 Solo Instrument; MUS 95/D8 Choir or Voice; MUS 95/D9 Arrangements; and MUS 95/D10 Miscellaneous.

In standardizing the description of a work's instrumentation, we have opted for a generally accepted musical codification system. For example, the figures "3. 2. 2. 2 - 4. 3. 3. 1" denote the following instrumentation: 3 flutes, 2 oboes, 2 clarinets, 2 bassoons, 4 French horns, 3 trumpets, 3 trombones and 1 tuba. Blocks of figures separated by a dash correspond to the woodwind and brass sections, and follow the traditional order in which the various instruments appear on a score. If an instrumentalist plays a second instrument, this is indicated by placing the abbreviation for the auxiliary instrument in parentheses (e.g. 3(picc) = 3 flutes plus 1 piccolo played by one of the three flautists). And if the work requires the presence of an additional musician for an auxiliary instrument, we so indicate using the "+" symbol (e.g. 2+cbn = 2 bassoons plus a third musician for the contrabassoon). Catalogues of musical works do not always name auxiliary instruments but merely indicate their presence by an asterisk (*3) or underlining (4). For the description of archival records, we prefer to ascribe some significance to auxiliary instruments, since they enrich the orchestra with particular sound qualities.
