Wage Settlements Covering 500 or More Employees

July 2008

Major collective bargaining settlements in July 2008 provided base-rate wage adjustments averaging 3.4% annually over the contract term, higher than the 3.0% figure in the previous month. The results for July are based on a review of 16 settlements and cover 44,150 employees.

When the parties to these settlements previously negotiated, contract duration averaged 43.4 months and the resulting wage adjustments averaged 2.3%, compared to the 3.4% in their current round of settlements and average contract duration of 51.7 months.

Wage gains in July were higher in the public sector than in the private sector. Wage adjustments in the public sector averaged 3.9% for 25,000 employees in 8 agreements; private-sector wage adjustments averaged 2.8% for 19,150 employees in 8 agreements. Upward pressure on the public-sector figure originated in large part from one nursing agreement, the Saskatchewan Association of Health Organizations with an average wage adjustment of 6.2%. Excluding the Saskatchewan Association of Health Organizations agreement, the 15 remaining major agreements in July averaged 2.7%, and the public-sector average dropped to 2.6%.

On a jurisdiction basis, wage adjustments in July ranged from a low of 2.5% in New Brunswick, to a high of 6.2% in Saskatchewan (based on the single Saskatchewan Association of Health Organizations settlement). The largest concentration of employees (25%) was in British Columbia where wage adjustments averaged 2.6%. Wage adjustments in Ontario averaged 2.7%, and in Quebec, 3.0%. There were no major settlements in the federal jurisdiction in July 2008.

On an industry basis, wage adjustments in July ranged from a low of 2.1% in the hospitality and entertainment sector to a high of 4.1% in the education, health, and social services sector. The second largest average adjustment was in the manufacturing sector, at 3.1%. The second smallest average adjustment was in the wholesale and retail trade sector, at 2.5%. The largest concentration of employees (46.5%) was in the education, health, and social services sector (due in large part to the Saskatchewan Association of Health Organizations agreement).

Approximately 1.6% of employees in July settlements received a wage adjustment less than 2.0%; the majority of employees (54.1%) received increases in the 2.0 to 2.9% range; 22.8% of employees received increases in the 3.0 to 3.9% range; 2.2% of employees in one private sector settlement received a wage increase of 4.2% (Boeing Canada Technology) and 19.4% of employees in one public-sector settlement (Saskatchewan Association of Health Organizations) received a wage increase of 6.2%.

Wage adjustments this year-to-date (January through July 2008) averaged 3.0%, resulting from 143 agreements covering 356,750 employees. Public-sector wage adjustments during this time period averaged 3.3% and private sector adjustments averaged 2.5%.
