

Business and Regional Growth

Laval–Laurentides–Lanaudière

The Business and Regional Growth program strengthens the conditions conducive to the sustainable growth of Quebec's regions and small- and medium-sized enterprises (SMEs). Administered by the Economic Development Agency of Canada for the Regions of Quebec, this program, in effect from April 1, 2007 to March 31, 2012, centres on two main components: SME Competitiveness and Sectoral and Regional Growth.

The Agency's priority for Laval–Laurentides–Lanaudière is to support projects that promote the development of the following sectors:

- aerospace
- new materials
- new information technologies
- metal products
- life sciences
- environmental technologies
- tourism
- food processing.

Preference is given to the following types of intervention:

- productivity support
- innovation support
- export support.
