Wage Settlements

Wage Settlements Covering 500 or More Employees

August 2006

Major collective bargaining settlements reached in the month of August 2006 provided base-rate wage adjustments averaging 2.8% annually over the contract term, up from the 2.6% average recorded in the previous month. The results for August 2006 are based on a review of 16 major settlements reached and cover 52,980 employees.

When the parties to these settlements previously negotiated, contract duration averaged 35.7 months and the resulting wage adjustments averaged 1.2%, compared to the 2.8% in their current round of settlements and average contract duration of 50.3 months.

Wage adjustments in the August settlements ranged from a low of 1.7% for 13,040 Air Canada employees, up to a high of 4.0% for 500 bricklayers and 2,500 plumbers with the Construction Labour Association of British Columbia. A large concentration of agreements (9 from a total of 16) and employees (covering 37% of all employees in August's major agreements) settled in the British Columbia construction sector with wage adjustments from 3.0 to 4.0%.

Wage gains in August were the same in both the public and private sectors. Wage adjustments in the public sector averaged 2.8% for 18,980 employees in 4 agreements. Private-sector wage adjustments averaged 2.8% for 34,000 employees in 12 agreements.

On a jurisdictional basis, Alberta registered the largest average wage adjustment at 3.7% (a single agreement covering 1,400 employees). The smallest average wage adjustment was recorded in the Federal jurisdiction at 1.7% (2 agreements covering 13,790 employees). The largest concentration of agreements (62.5%) and employees (38.5%) was in British Columbia where wage adjustments averaged 3.4%.

On an industry basis, the largest average wage adjustment was in the construction sector at 3.5%. The lowest average adjustment was reported in the transportation sector at 1.7%. The largest concentration of agreements (56.3%) and employees (37%) was also in the construction sector, all from British Columbia.

For major settlements to date in 2006 (January to August), wage adjustments average 2.6%.
