Wage Settlements Covering 500 or More Employees

October 2009

Major collective bargaining settlements in October 2009 provided base-rate wage adjustments averaging 2.2% annually over the contract term. The results are based on a review of 23 settlements and cover 56,720 employees.

When the parties to these settlements previously negotiated, contract duration averaged 42 months and the resulting wage adjustments averaged 2.8%, compared to the 2.2% in their current round of settlements and average contract duration of 47 months.

In October 2009, wage increases were larger in the public sector than in the private sector. Wage adjustments in the public sector averaged 2.2% (17 agreements covering 51,290 employees) and in the private sector, 1.8% (6 agreements covering 5,430 employees). The majority of agreements (73.9%) and employees (90.4%) were in the public sector.

Wage adjustments in the public sector averaged from 1.3% (1,650 reporters at CBC) to a high of 5.2% (1,770 police officers with the City of Calgary). In the private sector, the lowest adjustment was recorded at Labatt Breweries in Quebec, where 500 employees received a wage increase averaging 0.7% (a wage freeze in the first year). The largest adjustment was with the Association patronale des concessionnaires automobiles in Quebec, at 2.5% (850 retail service employees).

On a jurisdictional basis, the highest average wage adjustment was in Alberta (4.7%). The lowest adjustment was in the federal jurisdiction (1.8%). The largest concentration of employees (42.3%) was also in the federal jurisdiction (due largely to the Canada Customs and Revenue Agency settlement with 11,000 employees in the auditing group). In Ontario, (with the second largest employee coverage), wage adjustments averaged 2.0%.

On an industry basis, wage adjustments were lowest in the manufacturing sector (1.1%) and highest in the trade sector (2.5%). The largest concentration of employees (45.5% of employees) was in education, health and social services where wage adjustments averaged 2.3%.

This year to date (January to October 2009) wage adjustments averaged 2.4%. The results are based on 273 agreements covering 719,470 employees. Wage adjustments are averaging 2.5% in the public sector and 1.9% in the private sector.

In the following tables, COLA is the abbreviation for Cost-of-Living Allowance.
