Wage Adjustments Covering 500 or More Employees

November 2010

Major collective bargaining settlements in November 2010 provided base-rate wage adjustments averaging 1.8% annually over the contract term. The results are based on a review of 17 settlements and cover 38,240 employees.

When the parties to these settlements previously negotiated, the resulting wage adjustments averaged 2.9%, higher than in their current settlements. Contract duration in November 2010 averaged 32.9 months, compared to 40.3 months in the previous round of settlements.

Wage adjustments averaged 1.8% in both the public and the private sectors. The public sector result was based on 11 agreements covering 31,980 employees and the private sector results were based on 6 agreements covering 6,260 employees.

The November data were largely influenced by one health-sector agreement between the Ontario Hospital Association and 15,860 non-medical employees for wage adjustments averaging 2.1%. The Regional Health Authority of Manitoba also settled with 5,500 home-care employees for a wage adjustment of 1.5%.

On an jurisdiction basis, the highest average in wage adjustments was in the federal jurisdiction (based on two Canadian National Railway Company (CN) agreements averaging 2.7% and covering 2,450 employees) and the lowest was in Quebec at 1.2% (based on a single Gouvernement du Québec agreement covering 2,000 day-care workers).

On an industry basis, the highest average in wage adjustments was in the transportation sector (based on the two CN agreements) and the lowest was in the manufacturing sector at 0.0% (a single agreement, Integram Windsor Seating, a division of Magna International Inc., covering 800 employees subject to a wage freeze).

Over 53% of employees covered in November settlements received adjustments in the 2.0 to 2.9% range; an additional 38.5% of employees received wage adjustments in the 1.0 to 1.9% range. Only 2.1% of employees were subject to a wage freeze.

Wage adjustments in base rates for the first 11 months of 2010 (January to November) averaged 1.8%; wage adjustments in the public sector for the same period averaged 1.6% and in the private sector, 2.1%.
