INTRODUCTION

In 1970, the first of what is now a continuing series of bibliographies on the lake trout was published as Technical Report No. 176. In 1978, the first supplement was published as Technical Report No. 799. In the past six years sufficient new references have been found to warrant the publication of a second supplement to the original bibliography.

We have listed a small number of references dated prior to 1977 which were missed in the earlier bibliographies.

The format of the present report is basically similar to the previous supplement. The bibliography proper is the Author Index which is followed by simple Subject Index.

Many of the references listed have been found in Biological Abstracts or Bioresearch Index. In 1980, the latter became Biological Abstracts/RRM. Aquatic Sciences and Fisheries Abstracts and the Zoological Record have also been searched. The abbreviations used for the journal titles in the Author Index follow Serial Sources for the BIOSIS Data Base Volume 1983.
