FOREWORD

This training guide is to be used to train census representatives for canvasser Indian reserves and canvasser Indian settlements.

The training guide consists of a training text, a self-study exercise and four role-play exercises.

The training text takes the Census Commissioner and Census Representative through the procedures in the Aboriginal Peoples Procedures Manual for Canvasser Reserve Areas and Indian Settlements, Form 42A. Each page lists references to the Form 42A.

The self-study exercise familiarizes the Census Representative with the content and explanations in the Form 42A, Chapter VIII, Additional Questionnaire Content Explanations.

The role-play exercises familiarize the Census Representative with several interview situations. Role-play No. 1 presents a simple occupied private dwelling situation. Role-play No. 2 practices the occupied private dwelling procedures and introduces a temporary resident. Role-play No. 3 covers the enumeration of the temporary resident and Role-Play No. 4 sets forth an unoccupied private dwelling situation.

IN SASKATCHEWAN ONLY

On specified reserves and settlements in Saskatchewan, the Housing Needs Assessment Survey will be conducted for the Federation of Saskatchewan Indian Nations (FSIN). Census Representatives will complete the FSIN Housing Needs Assessment Questionnaire by interview at each household immediately after the interview for the census questionnaire.

If your trainees are involved in the FSIN Housing Needs Assessment Survey:

- (i) Ensure that you have a copy of the FSIN Housing Needs Assessment Survey Training Guide. You will begin the training for the FSIN Housing Needs Assessment Survey immediately following the Indian Reserve Census Representative training session.
- (ii) Please see the FSIN Housing Needs Assessment Survey Training Guide for the materials required.

The text of this training guide consists of instructions to the trainer and portions of text to be read verbatim to the trainees.

The text that you are to read aloud is printed in bold letters.

Instructions to the trainer are printed in light (ordinary) letters. Text printed this way is for the trainer only and should not be read to the trainees.

Text printed in CAPITAL LETTERS gives you precise instructions on actions you must take.

The word "show" appears in brackets (SHOW) when you should hold up a copy of a form for the class to see.

Three stars (* * *) indicate that you should pause briefly.

Six stars (* * * * *) indicate that you are to allow time for the trainees to find a particular passage or page in their manuals.

Question marks (? ? ?) indicate that you should ask if there are any questions.

The training guide frequently directs you to have the trainee(s) read passages from the manual aloud. You may, at your discretion, read these passages yourself.

Many of the census terms and definitions may not be easily understood by the Census Representative. If this occurs, try to explain using terminology that the Census Representative can understand and try to give examples that are pertinent to the reserve/settlement.

Make a note of the time at the start and finish of each session. At the end of the training, you will be required to tell the trainees how many hours may be claimed for training.

Training is scheduled to last approximately 10.5 hours. If the classroom sessions take slightly longer or shorter than this estimate, you may make minor changes to the hours.

Breaks are at the trainer's discretion since there are no formal periods of training. A 10 minute break is recommended for each 45 minutes of training.

IMPORTANT: Five copies of attachments 1, 2 and 3 are provided at the back of this training guide for distribution to the trainees. Ensure that you have enough copies for your class.

COMPLETE THE CENSUS REPRESENTATIVE TRAINING REPORT IN YOUR CC MIS SUPPLEMENT, FORM 29I.

Introductions

Good morning. I would like to welcome each of you to the census organization of Statistics Canada. As we will be working and studying together for a period of time, we will begin by introducing ourselves.

My name is _____

Have each trainee state his/her name to the class.

*** * ***

Today we will study some of the general concepts relating to the census and we will practise the procedures that you must follow for the census of population.

Basic Documents

There are three documents that you will use constantly as you work. These are: the procedures manual, Form 42A (SHOW), the Visitation Record, Form 1 (SHOW), and the questionnaire, Form 2D (SHOW). We will be looking at all of these in detail today.

VR

This is the Visitation Record, or "VR" (SHOW). Its purpose is to keep a record of the enumeration of your area. In it, you will list every dwelling that you visit. Inside are Sections for occupied private dwellings (SHOW SECTION I) and unoccupied private dwellings (SHOW SECTION II). It also has a page for the report you will make to me on the progress of your enumeration and, on the back cover, it has a description of dwelling type codes. (SHOW BACK COVER)

*** * ***

Think of this book as a diary of your work. If you complete it well, you will always know what you did. If you complete it poorly, you will forget what happened at each house and you will have to return to get the missing information. Completing it well will make your work much easier.

Questionnaire 2D

Now let's look at the questionnaire.

*** * ***

Questionnaire 2D
(Cont'd)

ALLOW SEVERAL MINUTES FOR THE TRAINEES TO LOOK THROUGH THE QUESTIONNAIRE.

Now let's take a closer look at the different parts of the questionnaire and their purpose. Please turn to the cover page of the questionnaire.

*** * ***

At the top of the front cover, there is an identification Section (SHOW) that you must fill out for every questionnaire that you use.
This is done to show that the questionnaire corresponds to a particular dwelling and to make sure that every dwelling you find is counted once and only once.

Remember that the census doesn't just count people: it is a count of Canada's housing and agriculture as well. Agriculture is enumerated on a separate questionnaire. For the count of housing, these boxes are important. (SHOW the TD, M, UD and DC boxes.)

When you mark the TD box (SHOW), it will indicate the type of dwelling and show that this dwelling should be counted as part of Canada's housing stock. When you mark the M, UD or DC box (SHOW) it will indicate that the dwelling should not be considered part of Canada's housing stock and the reason why. We will discuss this in more detail later today.

The entire questionnaire is divided into a series of steps. Step 1, lower down on the front cover, has spaces for the complete address and telephone number of the dwelling.

Steps 2 to 5 are on page 2.

*** * ***

Step 5 is where you list the names of everyone in the household.
You will then continue with the Steps on page 3.

Step 9 tells you to turn the page and copy the names across the top of the page, in the same order as you listed them in Step 5. (TURN PAGE AND SHOW.) There is room for six people on each questionnaire, so whenever there are seven or more people in one dwelling, you will use two or more questionnaires.

Questionnaire 2D

From here on throughout the questionnaire, the questions are all on the left-hand side and the answers for each person are recorded on the right, in the Column under the person's name.

In the questions, for example in Question 3, the words printed in black are the the words that you should read aloud. The words printed in red are instructions for you, the Interviewer, and are not read aloud.

In the answer Columns, the answers are recorded in several ways. Where circles are provided, as in Question 4, mark the answer with an "X". Where boxes are provided, as in Question 8, print the answer clearly.

Please turn to Question 13.

Notice that in the answer Columns, some words are in bold print. These words tell you where to go next. As you progress through the interview, you will find that you don't ask all the questions for all the people. This is referred to as a "skip pattern". A good example is the question on education: if the person never went to school, the instruction will tell you to skip the rest of the questions on education.

Please turn to Question 19 on page 10 of the questionnaire.

All the questions up to Question 19 are part of Step 9. Notice that Step 10 says "Answer Questions 20 to 45 for each person aged 15 and over". Questions 20 to 45 are all part of Step 10, and these questions only apply to persons who are 15 years old or older. In other words, if a person is younger than 15, you stop here for that person.

You will ask each question that applies for each person in the household, one person at a time.

Now please turn to Step 11 on page 26 of the questionnaire.

Questionnaire 2D
(Concluded)

In Step 11, Questions H1 to H8 are about the dwelling, and you will ask them only once.

On the last page is the "Comments" Section. (SHOW) You can use this space whenever:

- you need to explain an answer, or
- there wasn't enough room for the answer in the questionnaire, or
- the respondent wants to make a comment, or
- you need space to record any additional information.

Also, if a person can't or won't answer a question, this is where you should record which question it was and why it wasn't answered.

Are there any questions about the questionnaire?

Introduction to Form 42A

Please take out your procedures manual, Form 42A. (SHOW)

*** * ***

Your manual has all the information and instructions you need to do the work of enumerating your area. It contains the procedures to follow, definitions of census terms and explanations of the questions.

Please turn to the table of contents.

*** * * * ***

Your responsibilities have been organized in the manual in this in this way:

- Chapter I is the basic introduction;
- Chapter II gives the definitions of census terms and describes the forms you will use.

The census duties and procedures are described in Chapters III to V.

- Chapter III is a summary of your duties;

Introduction to
Form 42A
(Cont'd)

- Chapter IV describes your general duties; and
- Chapter V describes the enumeration procedures for private dwellings in detail;

* * *

- Chapter VI gives you information about how to claim your payment;
- Chapter VII describes how to finish your work and get it ready to return to me; and
- Chapter VIII contains extra explanations for some of the questions. This chapter will be useful whenever you or the respondent need help answering a question.
- Chapter IX does not apply to you;
- Appendices A to D contain information you may need in special circumstances.

Now please turn to page 1.

* * * * *

Please read Section A, (NAME TRAINEE).

* * *

Please read Section B, (NAME TRAINEE).

Thank you.

Give an example of:

- a private dwelling;

and, if there are agricultural holdings and/or collective dwellings in the EA, give an example for:

- an agricultural operator;
- a collective dwelling.

Introduction to
Form 42A
(Concluded)

As we study today's material, you will become more familiar with these and other census terms.

Read Section C, paragraph 2 aloud.

*** * ***

Review of CR's
Responsibilities

Very briefly, this is what you will be expected to do during the census.

Using a map that shows the area you must enumerate, you will find every dwelling and agricultural holding in your enumeration area, list them in the Visitation Record, (SHOW) and conduct an interview at each dwelling to complete a Population Questionnaire, Form 2D. After conducting the interview, you will check the completed questionnaire to ensure that all questions requiring an answer have been answered.

Have the trainee(s) read Sections D to F aloud.

*** * ***

Please read Section G, (NAME TRAINEE).

*** * ***

Thank you.

Statistics Act

Every person who provides personal information to Statistics Canada has a right to privacy. They expect that their personal information will be kept strictly confidential. This makes your job that much more important.

*** * ***

Statistics Act
(Concluded)

How do you maintain the respondent's trust, and ensure the confidentiality of information when collecting information?

Please refer to the back cover of your manual. (SHOW)

* * * * *

These are the precautions you must take to ensure that information is kept confidential.

* * *

Please read the list of things you should do, (NAME TRAINEE).

* * *

Please read the list of things you should NOT do, (NAME TRAINEE).

By law, Statistics Canada cannot reveal any information about an individual to any person, business or other government department. As an employee of Statistics Canada, THIS ALSO APPLIES DIRECTLY TO YOU.

Statistics Canada uses the answers on census questionnaires ONLY for statistical purposes. The statistics are published only after the information has been grouped with similar information obtained from other respondents.

Other agencies, for example, Indian and Northern Affairs Canada, Revenue Canada - Taxation or the RCMP CANNOT obtain or be supplied with any personal information from the census.

Are there any questions about confidentiality?

CHAPTER II

A. Basic Procedural Definitions (pages 7 to 10)

Please turn to Chapter II on page 7 of your manual.

* * * * *

Chapter II of the Form 42A contains the definitions of census terms. We will discuss the most important ones now. While we do, you may wish to make extra notes in the manual about anything you want to remember.

* * * * *

Have the Census Representative read the definitions of the following terms:

- A.1, Absent Household;
- A.2, Absent Individual.

Give examples.

Have the Census Representative read the definitions of:

- A.3, Agricultural Holding;
- A.4, Agricultural Products;

Point out whether there were any holdings on the reserve/settlement during the last census (1986).

IF THE CR IS NOT RESPONSIBLE FOR THE ENUMERATION OF AGRICULTURE, EXPLAIN THAT:

- the CR is not responsible for enumerating agricultural holdings, however,
- the CR must report to you (the CC) any agricultural holdings or persons who operate holdings that he/she discovers in the EA during enumeration.

CONTINUE HERE FOR ALL TRAINEES:

CHAPTER II

A. Basic Procedural Definitions (pages 7 to 10) (Cont'd)

Read or have the Census Representative read the definition of:

- Census Day, A.8;
- Dwelling, A.9 and Private Dwelling, A.9(a).

All dwellings on the reserve (settlement) that have people living in them are to be considered as private dwellings except for collective dwellings. Please read the definition of a collective dwelling on page 8, (NAME TRAINEE).

* * * * *

Give examples of collective dwellings pertinent to the reserve/settlement.

Inform the Census Representative if there were any collective dwellings on the reserve/settlement during the last census.

IF THE CR IS NOT RESPONSIBLE FOR THE ENUMERATION OF COLLECTIVE DWELLINGS, EXPLAIN THAT:

- the CR is not responsible for enumerating collective dwellings, however,
- the CR must report to you (the CC) any collective dwellings that he/she discovers in the EA during enumeration. Show the CR what he/she must enter on the Form 7A, List of Collective Dwellings in EA.

CONTINUE HERE FOR ALL TRAINEES.

Please read point A.10, the definition of an Enumeration Area, (NAME TRAINEE).

Using each census representative's EA map, review the boundaries of the area that the CR will be responsible for. Ensure that each CR has a clear understanding of the area to be covered. Make a note of any boundaries that the CR finds unclear and be sure to resolve boundary questions before you leave.

Read or have the Census Representative read the following definitions. Give examples.

CHAPTER II

A. Basic
Procedural
Definitions
(pages 7 to
10) (Cont'd)

- A.12, Foreign Resident;
- A.13, Household;
- A.14, Household Number.

Show the trainees where the household number is found (Column 2 of the Visitation Record) and where it must be entered on the questionnaire.

Please read point A.20, the definition of Person 1, (NAME TRAINEE).

* * * * *

Show the trainees how Person 1 is to be entered in Column 4 of Section I of the Visitation Record and on the Population Questionnaire, Form 2D.

Please read point A.21, the definition of a Refusal, (NAME TRAINEE).

* * * * *

Let's be sure of what a refusal is. A refusal is when a person clearly tells you that he or she will not give you the information to complete a questionnaire. The person may refuse to give you any information at all beyond Question 1, or the person may refuse to answer just a few of the questions.

Be careful not to confuse "refusal" with a case where the person can't do the interview at the time when you call, or a person who can't answer the questions because he or she doesn't know the answers or doesn't understand English or French.

For example, imagine these situations:

CHAPTER II

A. Basic Procedural Definitions (pages 7 to 10) (Cont'd)

A respondent is answering most of the questions. She will answer everything except Questions 15 and 16.

What type of refusal is this?

Answer: partial refusal.

The respondent is leaving in a few minutes. He will be away for most of the day. He is willing to do the interview, but he must leave right away.

Is this a refusal?

Answer: not a refusal. The interview will be done at another time.

A respondent is answering most of the questions. She will answer the income questions for herself, but she tells you she will not give these answers for her husband.

Is this a refusal?

Answer: not a refusal. The husband might be willing to answer for himself.

The respondent isn't at all interested in doing the interview. He firmly refuses to give you any information whatsoever.

What type of refusal is this?

Answer: total refusal.

Two people who live in the house are answering the questions. They can't give you the answers to some of the questions because they don't know the answers.

Is this a refusal?

Answer: not a refusal.

CHAPTER II

A. Basic
Procedural
Definitions
(pages 7 to
10) (Concluded)

Now, to continue with the census definitions, please read point A.22, the definition of a Respondent, (NAME TRAINEE).

* * * * *

The term "Respondent" refers to any and all people who answer questions to complete a census questionnaire.

Please read point A.23, the definition of a Temporary Resident, (NAME TRAINEE).

* * * * *

Give examples of possible temporary residents on the reserve/settlement, e.g., visiting relatives.

Please read point A.25, the definition of a Usual Resident, (NAME TRAINEE).

All residents of a reserve (settlement) should be considered usual residents unless it is determined that they are temporary or foreign residents.

B. Enumeration
Forms and
Their Purpose
(page 11)

Read the descriptions of each form and show a sample of the form while you are doing so.

DO NOT MENTION THE FORM 6 IF THERE ARE NO AGRICULTURAL HOLDINGS.

CHAPTER IV

Duties at Home (page 13)

Read and explain the duties to be performed at home.

Show the Census Representative the forms that are to be included in the carrying case.

Stamp a few Forms 2D and Forms 3 with a PROV FED EA VN stamp to show how the questionnaires must be prepared. Stress the importance of including these numbers on each questionnaire.

CHAPTER IV

How to Read the EA Map (page 16)

Using the Census Representative's EA map, show him/her how to read the map. Explain if necessary:

- the direction north;
- the landscape symbols;
- the map legend;
- how to measure distances;
- the type of map (i.e. urban or rural)

How to Correct and Make Map Entries (page 19)

You may need to make some corrections to your map. Please turn to page 19 in your manual and read part B.3, (NAME TRAINEE).

* * * * *

Ensure that the trainee understands the entries that he/she should make. Emphasize entering in the household number from the VR on the map next to the location of each dwelling.

FOR INDIAN SETTLEMENTS THAT ARE IDENTIFIED AS UNINCORPORATED PLACES:

Instruct the Census Representative to follow any instructions for these places given on his/her EA map and on the inside front cover of the Visitation Record. Show him/her where these instructions are found.

CHAPTER IV

CONTINUE HERE FOR ALL TRAINEES:

Planning Your Enumeration
Route
(page 17)

Using the Census Representative's EA map and any information you learned from the band council, plan, with the Census Representative, an enumeration route he/she is to follow that will ensure the complete coverage of all dwellings within his/her enumeration area(s).

CHAPTER IV

Sections C to F (pages 22
and 23)

Please turn to page 22 and read point C.1, (NAME TRAINEE).

*** * * * ***

The census definition of a dwelling is "a separate set of living quarters in which a person could reside". Private dwellings are separate living quarters that have a private entrance from the outside or from a common hallway or stairway inside the building.

Since it is possible that more than one set of living quarters can be found inside one building, it is important that you do what is outlined in the next points. Please continue reading part C.2, 3 and 4, (NAME TRAINEE).

Give examples.

G. Visitation
Record,
Form 1

DISTRIBUTE A VR, FORM 1. (IF A CENSUS REPRESENTATIVE HAS MORE THAN ONE EA, DISTRIBUTE A VR FOR EACH EA.)

Have the Census Representative complete the identification entries on the front cover of the VR. Use the EA stamp for the PROV, FED, EA and VN numbers. Ensure that each CR clearly prints the name of the reserve/settlement in the space marked "Municipality".

Read Section G. Have the Census Representative refer to a VR as you do so.

In Section I of the VR, have the trainees cross out "2A" and "2B" in Columns 15, 16, 18 and 19 and enter "2D" instead.

In Section II of the VR, have the trainees do the following:

- delete Column 4 by drawing a vertical line through the Column;
- above Columns 5 and 6, change the word "Follow-up" to "Enumeration";

CHAPTER IV

- G. Visitation Record, Form 1 (page 23) (Concluded)
- in Column 5, change "2" to "2D".
 - delete Column 6 by drawing a vertical line through the Column.
- Verify that the trainees have made these changes correctly.
- H. Completion Status Reports (page 24)
- Read Section H aloud. Have the trainees refer to the report on pages 48 and 49 of the VR.
- On page 48, have the trainees cross out "2A" and "2B" and enter "2D":
- in the instructions for Column 1 and Column 3; and
 - in Columns 1 and 3 below the dates June 10, 17, 24 and 27, and July 1 and 4.
- On page 49, for Section II, have the trainees change "2" to "2D" below the dates June 10, 17, 24 and 27, and July 1 and 4. Have them cross out the Columns for 2/4B.
- Explain how to complete the report.
- Ask a trainee to which line would he/she transfer the totals from page 5 of the VR. (Answer: line 5.)

CHAPTER V

- A. Occupied Private Dwelling Procedures (pages 27 to 29)
- Read Sections A.1, A.2, and A.3.
- Show the trainee what entries are to be completed in Section I of the VR for each occupied dwelling.
- Have one trainee refer to a VR and tell you how to complete Columns 1 to 10 for his/her own dwelling.
- Read Section A.4. Show the trainees what identification entries must be made on the front of the Form 2D questionnaire.
- USE A VR AND A BLANK QUESTIONNAIRE TO DEMONSTRATE THE FOLLOWING:
- Show where the household number is found in Column 2 of Section I of the VR.

CHAPTER V

A. Occupied Private Dwelling Procedures (pages 27 to 29) (Cont'd)

- Explain that a different household number is assigned to each dwelling so that it is clear which questionnaire belongs to each dwelling and which line in the VR corresponds to the dwelling.
- Explain the dwelling type codes to be entered in the "TD" (type of dwelling) box. Refer to the back cover of the VR (SHOW) to explain the codes. Also inform the Census Representative of the dwelling type codes that are to be used for his/her EA. Identify them on the VR for him/her.

The questionnaire has room for information for up to six people. In some cases, you will find that there are more than six people in the household and you will have to use more than one questionnaire to record the information for all of them. When this happens, there are some changes you have to make to the extra questionnaires for that household.

Appendix D shows you how to make the changes on the extra questionnaires. Please turn to Appendix D on page 77 of your manual.

Demonstrate the steps in Appendix D using a blank questionnaire. Read or have a trainee read the steps as you demonstrate.

* * * * *

When you have finished, have a trainee tell you what he/she would do for a household with 7 persons.

Please turn to page 29.

Read Sections A.5 and A.6.

SHOW the inside back cover of the manual.

CHAPTER V

A. Occupied
Private
Dwelling
Procedures
(pages 27
to 29)
(Cont'd)

Please turn to the inside back cover of the manual and read the "Guidelines for Interviewing", (NAME TRAINEE).

* * * * *

It is important that you record the answers that the respondent gives, even if you think it isn't the right answer. If you think that it is simply a case of the person not understanding the question, you may repeat the question.

Please read the "Points to Remember" (NAME TRAINEE).

The 1991 Census Guide, 9B (SHOW) and Chapter VIII of the manual give extra explanations for many of the questions. If you need help or the respondent needs help understanding the question, look in Chapter VIII and the guide to see if there is any more information that will help you.

Because the census guide was not designed for the 2D questionnaire, you may notice a few differences in the wording of questions. The information in it will still be useful to you.

Chapter VIII was written specifically for the 2D questionnaire and it contains additional information that is not found in the guide. We will cover the points in Chapter VIII in a self-study exercise later.

Please return to page 29.

* * * * *

Please read Section A.7, (NAME TRAINEE).

* * *

Be sure to take a few minutes to check the questionnaire before you leave the dwelling. This will save you and the respondent the trouble of a return visit to obtain any missing information.

CHAPTER V

A. Occupied Private Dwelling Procedures (pages 27 to 29) (Cont'd)

If, as you do these checks, you discover that an answer is missing, try to obtain the information before you leave.

Look through the questionnaire page by page to make sure that you have asked every applicable question.

Look at the answer to Step 7. If there were any temporary residents (that is, persons who have a usual place of residence elsewhere in Canada) in the dwelling on Census Day, make sure that you complete a Form 3 (SHOW) for each temporary resident. These forms are needed to check that these people were enumerated at their usual residences and were not missed by the census.

Wherever it was impossible to obtain an answer, be sure that you have made a note of the person number, the question number and the reason why a question was not answered in the "COMMENTS" Section of the questionnaire. (SHOW)

This is important because, if information is missing, you will have to decide whether or not it is a case of partial refusal. You will need to be able to tell the difference between a case where the respondent didn't know the answer and a case where the respondent refused to answer. We will cover this in more detail later on.

Please read Section A.8, (NAME TRAINEE).

DEMONSTRATE IN A VR AS YOU READ:

If there were any temporary residents in the dwelling on Census Day, enter the number of temporary residents in Column 14.

When you have completed the questionnaires, mark an "X" in Column 15 or 16.

If you encounter a total refusal, you will make an "X" in Column 17. If it is a case of partial refusal, you will mark Column 18 or 19. We will discuss this again later.

Please read Sections A.9 and A.10, (NAME TRAINEE).

* * *

CHAPTER V

A. Occupied Private Dwelling Procedures (pages 27 to 29) (Concluded)

These are the procedures you will follow when you make contact with the respondent. However, sometimes you will find that there's no one at home. Points A.11 and A.12 tell you what to do when you do not make contact. Please read points A.11 and A.12, (NAME TRAINEE).

Give an example of an absent household. Show the trainees where to make the entries in the VR.

For an absent household, this is what you do:

- try to find out from neighbours when the people who live there are expected to return and make a note of this in Column 20 of Section I of the VR; (SHOW COLUMN 20)
- leave a Form 1B (Notice of Census Representative's Call) (SHOW) indicating the time you will return. If the respondent contacts you as a result, arrange a convenient time to do the interview;
- make up to three visits during the enumeration period, at different times on different days. Make a note of the times you called in Column 20, Section I of the VR;
- if you determine that the household will not return before you have completed enumeration of the EA, or if you have made three visits without making contact, you will follow procedures for a missing questionnaire. We will look at these procedures in a few minutes.

B. Unoccupied Private Dwelling Procedures (page 30)

Up to now, we have been talking about procedures for occupied private dwellings, that is, dwellings that have people living in them on Census Day, June 4. All dwellings with people living in them on Census Day are listed in Section I of the VR.

From time to time, you may encounter an unoccupied private dwelling.

Procedures for unoccupied private dwellings are found in Section B on page 30.

* * * * *

B. Unoccupied Private Dwelling Procedures (page 30) (Cont'd)

Read Section B up to and including Section B.1.

Section II of the VR is where you list unoccupied private dwellings.
(SHOW)

A dwelling must meet three conditions before you consider it suitable for year-round occupancy. It must:

- have a source of heat or power;
- have year-round access to drinking water;
and
- it must provide shelter from the elements, for example, it must be enclosed on all sides, with its walls, doors, windows and roof in place.

Dwellings that aren't occupied because they are marginal, that is, they were never built, maintained or converted for year-round occupancy should not be entered in Section II.

Dwellings that aren't occupied because they are under construction or because they are undergoing renovation or conversion should not be entered in Section II.

Dwellings where the residents were away temporarily should not be entered in Section II.

To be listed in Section II, a dwelling must:

- be suitable for year-round occupancy; and
- have no one living in it on Census Day, June 4.

Give examples.

Read Section B.2. Show the trainees what entries must be made for an unoccupied private dwelling on the Form 2D questionnaire and in Section II of the Visitation Record.

CHAPTER V

B. Unoccupied Private Dwelling Procedures (page 30) (Concluded)

It is possible that you could find a dwelling that is unoccupied when you call but in which someone was living on Census Day. Remember that your enumeration must show the dwellings as they were on Census Day. If there was someone living there on Census Day, the dwelling belongs in Section I of the VR.

Read Section B.3.

Show the trainees what entries must be made in the VR.

Missing Question- naires

We have mentioned a "missing questionnaire" several times today.

The main purpose of your enumeration is:

- to obtain a completed questionnaire for every private dwelling that was occupied on Census Day; and
- to represent every unoccupied private dwelling.

Already we have mentioned some instances where this will not be possible, for example:

- a case of total refusal,
- a household that is absent for the entire enumeration period, or
- a dwelling that was occupied on Census Day but is unoccupied when you call.

In each case, when you finish your assignment, there won't be a completed questionnaire for these households. When you pack your EA box and when you complete your VR, you must be able to show why there is no completed questionnaire.

To do this, you will complete a special form and make certain entries in the VR. The form will be placed in the EA box where the questionnaire should be.

The form that goes in your EA box instead of the missing questionnaire is a Form 4A. (SHOW)

Procedures for completing a Form 4A are found in Appendix B on page 73 of your manual. Please turn to page 73 now.

Missing
Questionnaires
(Concluded)

Appendix B has directions for what to do in cases of missing or incomplete questionnaires. Please read the directions for missing questionnaires on the left side of Appendix B, (NAME TRAINEE).

Imagine that you are enumerating on June 7, three days after Census Day. You come to a dwelling that is unoccupied. You find out from neighbours that the family was living there right up until yesterday, June 6, and now they have moved to another province. This means that the dwelling was occupied on Census Day, but it is impossible for you to obtain a completed questionnaire for the dwelling.

Show the trainees what entries are required for this case on a blank Form 4A.

Remember that you must complete a Form 4A for all "missing questionnaires", that is, for all situations where you have not been able to obtain any information from a respondent beyond Question 1 for a dwelling. These cases are:

- a case of total refusal,
- a household that is absent for the entire enumeration period, or
- a dwelling that was occupied on Census Day but is unoccupied when you call.

CHAPTER V

C. Special Cases (page 31)

Please return to page 31 in your manual.

* * * * *

Section C contains instructions for what to do in special cases. These are situations which don't happen very often. The manual covers all types of situations, but you may find only one or very few in your area. What is important is that you do two things:

- learn to recognize the special cases; and
- know where to find the instructions in your manual if the case arises in your area.

1. Absent Household (page 31)

Section C.1 gives the procedures to follow for an absent household. Please read Section C.1, (NAME TRAINEE).

* * *

Give an example of an absent household.

Show the trainees what entries must be made on the Form 4A and in the VR, Section I, Column 17.

2. Absent Individual (page 32)

Please read Section C.2, (NAME TRAINEE).

Show the trainees what entries need to be made on a Form 2D and in Section I of the VR.

Give examples.

3. Dwelling Under Construction (page 32)

Read Section C.3, paragraphs 1 and 2.

Mention the likelihood of this situation occurring on the reserve/settlement. If this situation is likely to occur only: show the trainees what entries must be made in the VR and on the questionnaire.

4. Dwelling Under Renovation or Conversion (page 33)

Read Section C.4, paragraphs 1 and 2.

Mention the likelihood of this situation occurring. If it is likely to occur only: show the trainees what entries must be made in the VR and on the questionnaire.

5. Dwelling Considered Marginal (page 34)

Read Section C.5.

Show the Census Representative what entries must be made in the VR and on the questionnaire for each situation given in the chart in Section C.5. Give examples of possible situations on the reserve/settlement.

5. Dwelling

(Concluded)

Emphasize that unoccupied marginal dwellings are not listed in Section II of the VR because they are not suitable for year-round occupancy.

Check to see that the trainees remember the three criteria for determining if a dwelling is suitable for year-round occupancy:

- a source of heat or power,
- year-round access to drinking water,
- shelter from the elements.

6. Foreign
Resident
(page 35)

Please turn to page 35, Section C.6.

* * * * *

Read Section C.6, paragraph 1 and note.

This means that any person (native or non-native) who has a usual place of residence outside Canada must be considered a foreign resident, with the following exceptions: persons who hold a student authorization, an employment authorization, or a minister's permit, or persons claiming refugee status.

If you discover a foreign resident, follow the procedures in this Section.

7. Language

(page 36)

Please read Section C.7, (NAME TRAINEE).

8. Missed
Dwelling
(page 37)

Explain that if a dwelling is missed:

- the Census Representative is to enumerate it;
- the Census Representative is to follow the procedures in this Section.

9. Refusal

and 38)

Please read the first three paragraphs of Section C.9, (NAME TRAINEE).

* * *

9. Refusal (pages 37
and 38)
(Concluded)

Review the difference between a total and partial refusal. Check that the trainees understand:

- it is considered a refusal only if the person clearly indicates to the CR (face-to-face) that he/she will not supply the information;
- it is a total refusal if the CR does not obtain any information beyond Question 1;
- it is a partial refusal if the CR obtains some but not all of the information beyond Question 1.

Have the trainees give examples.

Please continue reading, (NAME TRAINEE).

Using a Form 4A, show the trainees what information must be entered for a total refusal, and in the VR, Section 1, Column 17.

Using a Form 4B, show the trainees what information must be entered for a partial refusal and in the VR, Section 1, Column 18 or 19.

11. Temporary
Resident or Visitor
(pages 39
and 40)

Show the Census Representative what has to be done if a member of a household is a temporary resident or if all members of a household are temporary residents. Refer to Sections C.11(a) and C.11(b).

Give examples where the temporary resident(s) clearly have another usual residence in Canada.

If you encounter someone staying in the dwelling temporarily who isn't a foreign resident and doesn't have a usual residence elsewhere in Canada, consider him/her to be a usual resident.

- check the "Comments" Section to see if any questions were refused (none);
- check Step 7 for number of temporary residents (none);
- complete Columns 10 to 20 in Section I of the role-play VR;
- thank the respondent and read the statement in Step 12.
- ask about the next dwelling:
 - . is anyone likely to be home?
 - . if not, when?
 - . any dwellings nearby that are hard to locate or easy to miss?

Mary Duncan:

That's Ronald Williams' house. It's easy to find. I think Elizabeth's at home today.

The CR should:

REVIEW THE ROLE-PLAY:

- ASK A TRAINEE TO READ THE ENTRIES IN THE VR. (SEE PAGE 64 OF THIS TEXT.)
- ASK THE TRAINEES TO TAKE TURNS READING THE ENTRIES THEY MADE ON THE QUESTIONNAIRE. BEGIN WITH THE COVER PAGE. (SEE PAGE 31 OF THIS TEXT.)
- Point out that it is important that for every applicable question that was not answered, the person number, question number and reason (refused or doesn't know) must be entered in the comments Section. This is the easiest way to tell if a Form 4B for a partial refusal is required.
- ANSWER ANY QUESTIONS.

The CR should:

- complete Steps 1 to 9;

 - . the aunt is a usual resident,
 - . the cousin is a temporary resident.

Now that you have discovered that Marianne Raymond is a temporary resident, what questionnaire must you remember to complete for her?

If you think it will help you to remember, take out a Form 3 questionnaire and have it ready for when you have finished the 2D questionnaire. You can enter the person's name in question 1 on the front cover of the Form 3 if you wish.

If you are on an Indian reserve, go to Question 15.

12. Of what country is this person a citizen?

• Mark more than one circle, if applicable.

13. Is this person now, or has this person ever been, a landed immigrant?

14. In what year did this person first become a landed immigrant in Canada?

If exact year is not known, enter best estimate.

15. To which cultural group(s) did this person's ancestors belong, for example, North American Indian, Métis, Inuit, English, French?

More than one answer is acceptable.

Note:

While most people of Canada view themselves as Canadian, information about their ancestral origins has been collected since the 1901 Census to reflect the changing composition of the Canadian population and is needed to ensure that everyone, regardless of his/her ethnic or cultural background, has equal opportunity to share fully in the economic, social, cultural and political life of Canada. Therefore, this question refers to the origins of this person's ancestors.

B. Census
Representative
Claim Forms

You will have two types of claims: one claim for time spent in training and enumeration, and one claim for travel expenses.

1. Form 35
(pages 43
and 44)

First, let's look at the Form 35 (SHOW). This is the form you will use to claim expenses.

Distribute two Forms 35 to each trainee.

Read Section B.1 and have the trainee(s) complete one Form 35 for the period up to and including the end of training (even if no expenses have been incurred).

On the second Form 35, have the trainee(s) complete the identification entries for the Form 35 to be submitted at the end of enumeration.

Review the instructions with the trainee(s) and make sure they know how to complete the form.

CHAPTER VI

1. Form 35
(pages 43
and 44)
(concluded)

Today, I will take the Form 35 you filled out for expenses up to the end of training. You will submit the other Form 35 when you have finished enumeration.

Remember to make the entries on the Form 35 every day that you have expenses. This is important for two reasons: first, so that you don't forget any claims and second, because you must occasionally report your total kilometrage to me.

Always double check your entries to be sure they are right. Any errors that are on the form when you send it in will delay your payment.

Collect the completed Forms 35 for training expenses.

2. Form 34
(pages 45
and 46)

The other pay form is the Form 34. (SHOW) This is the form used for claiming your salary for the hours spent in training and enumeration.

Distribute a Form 34 to each trainee.

Read Section B.2 to the end of part (e) and have the trainee(s) complete the Form 34 to the end of Part 1. Verify that the following items are completed correctly and legibly:

- Item 1 - social insurance number;
- Items 2
to 5 - identification entries: telephone number, complete name and complete address;
- Item 6 - methodology of area: enter "X" in box 2, Canvasser;
- Item 7 - position of employee: for CRs, enter "X" in box D, for Co-ordinators, enter "X" in box N and print "INDIAN RESERVE COORDINATOR" in the space provided;
- Item 9 - enter $8.75 or $9.25 as applicable;
- Item 12 - enter the total number of hours spent in training;
 - enter the hourly rate;
 - enter the result on line 4;
- Item 13 - enter the amount claimed for training on line 5.

ASSIST THE TRAINEES AS NECESSARY.

CHAPTER VI

2. Form 34
(pages 45
and 46)
(concluded)

Read Section B.2, parts (f) to (k).

Show the Census Representative how hours are to be recorded in Part 2 for days worked during enumeration.

Explain how totals for expenses and kilometrage are to be transferred from the Form 35 and how the total or Gross Claim is to be calculated.

Be sure to record your hours every day, just as you did your kilometrage. This way, you can be sure to be paid for the exact hours that you worked and you will be able to report your hours to me.

Again, always double check your entries to be sure they are right because errors on the form will delay your payment.

When you have finished enumeration, sign and date your Form 35 for expenses and Form 34 for your hours.

Tell the trainee(s) how the account forms are to be returned to you.
