- $68M in fresh/frozen meat (including $28M in pork)
- $62M in prepared fruits and nuts
- $27M in tobacco
- $25M in gelatin
- $24M in baked goods

North Carolina imported $248 million from Canada, including:

- $67M in tobacco
- $27M in vegetables (including $7M in peppers)
- $22M in baked goods
- $14M in processed potatoes (including fries and chips)
- $9M in canola meal

North Carolina's top agriculture and agri-food export markets:

A Strong Partnership in Trade:

- Since 2005, agriculture and agri-food trade between the U.S. and Canada has more than quadrupled, leading to significant changes in trade patterns and resulting in a more integrated North American marketplace.
- The U.S. and, in particular, North Carolina has benefited from this strong relationship - with Canada purchasing over $26B in agriculture and agri-food products from the U.S. in 2014, of which $308M came from North Carolina.
- Supply chains that cross our shared border are cost-effective and efficient because of the proximity to each other's agricultural inputs and products. For example, Canada is a major supplier of energy and fertilizers, while the U.S. equips Canada with farm machinery and crop protection technologies.
- Access to Canadian cattle, hogs, and oilseeds allows American feedlots, finishers, and crushing plants to run at capacity, supporting U.S. jobs.

Trade and investment with Canada = 247,500 jobs in North Carolina
