

ALASKA-CANADA

AGRICULTURAL TRADE = $7 MILLION IN 2014

Let's keep a good thing growing!

Alaska exported $646 thousand to Canada, including:

- $268K in fur skins
- $245K in dried mushrooms and truffles
- $78K in rice
- $18K in dog and cat food
- $18K in live horses

Alaska imported $6 million from Canada, including:

- $3M in animal feed
- $986K in malt
- $921K in live plants
- $334K in food preparations* (including $112K in sauces and condiments)
- $198K in live hogs

Trade and investment with Canada
= 21,300 jobs in Alaska

A Strong Partnership in Trade:

- Since 2005, agriculture and agri-food trade between the U.S. and Canada has more than quadrupled, leading to significant changes in trade patterns and resulting in a more integrated North American marketplace.
- The U.S. has benefited from this strong relationship - with Canada purchasing over $26B in agriculture and agri-food products from the U.S. in 2014, of which $646K came from Alaska.
- Supply chains that cross our shared border are cost-effective and efficient because of the proximity to each other's agricultural inputs and products. For example, Canada is a major supplier of energy and fertilizers, while the U.S. equips Canada with farm machinery and crop protection technologies.
- Access to Canadian cattle, hogs, and oilseeds allows American feedlots, finishers, and crushing plants to run at capacity, supporting U.S. jobs.
