- $153M in roasted coffee
- $121M in vegetables and legumes (including $39M in potatoes)
- $47M in food preparations (including $9M in tea substitutes)
- $44M in non-alcoholic beverages

Washington imported $1.4 billion from Canada, including:

- $307M in live cattle
- $118M in wheat (including $68M in non-durum wheat)
- $102M in fruits and nuts (including $35M in cranberries)
- $97M in mink furs
- $93M in vegetables and legumes (including $27M in tomatoes)

Washington's top agriculture and agri-food export markets:

A Strong Partnership in Trade:

- Since the North American Free Trade Agreement (NAFTA) came into force, agriculture and agri-food trade has more than quadrupled, leading to significant changes in trade patterns and resulting in a more integrated North American marketplace.
- The U.S., and in particular Washington, has benefited from this strong relationship - with Canada purchasing over $21 billion in agriculture and agri-food products from the U.S. in 2013, of which $1.1 billion came from Washington.
- The work of the Regulatory Cooperation Council and Beyond the Border initiatives is significant to our continued growth in agriculture and agri-food trade and to strengthening our industry competitiveness. For more information: www.actionplan.gc.ca/rcc
- Increased regulatory cooperation will reduce regulatory differences and duplicative actions that can hinder cross-border trade while ensuring a greater variety of safe, high-quality food products for consumers.
