Bilingual services offered by the Canada Border Services Agency

The Canada Border Services Agency (CBSA) reminds you that bilingual officers are available to serve you in your official language of choice at CBSA offices that are designated bilingual.[1].

Visit the Web site www.burolis.gc.ca to find out which CBSA offices are designated bilingual for the purpose of providing service to the public. Also, look for this symbol at CBSA locations to know if service is available in both official languages.

Visit the CBSA's Web site at www.cbsa.gc.ca for more information about our programs and services.

Notes

1. The Official Languages Act sets out criteria to identify Government of Canada offices or facilities that must offer services in both official languages. These include offices or facilities where there is significant demand for services in both official languages, and where the nature of the office or facility makes it reasonable to provide services in both languages.
