Introduction

The Privacy Act (the Act), promulgated on July 1, 1983, aims to extend the present laws of Canada that protect the privacy of individuals with respect to personal information about themselves held by a government institution.

The purpose of the Act is to protect personal information by allowing individuals to consult information about themselves. It also imposes strict controls on how such information is gathered, used and shared.

Under section 72 of the Act, The head of every government institution shall prepare an annual report for submission to Parliament. This document therefore reports on the operations of the Economic Development Agency of Canada for the Regions of Quebec in 2012-2013, as required by the Act.

The Privacy Act gives individuals general access to personal information about themselves held by federal institutions, subject to certain specific and limited exceptions.

Mandate of the Economic Development Agency of Canada for the Regions of Quebec

Under its incorporating act, which came into effect on October 5, 2005, the mission of the Agency is to promote the long-term economic development of the regions of Quebec, giving special attention to those where slow economic growth is prevalent or opportunities for productive employment are inadequate. As part of its mission, the Agency is committed to promoting cooperation and a complementary relationship with Quebec and its communities

Through its economic role, the Agency is central to government priorities with respect to the economy and employment. It is present in all Quebec regions, and works in conjunction with local organizations. The Agency supports communities and small and medium-sized enterprises (SMEs) so they can take part in the economy of tomorrow and achieve their full potential by building on their strengths, in particular by supporting the improvement of SMEs' performance, productivity and innovation capability.

Furthermore, the Agency provides support for regions facing major crises by helping them diversify their economic base so as to enhance their long-term development. Through its business offices, the Agency's presence is well-rooted in all Quebec regions. It acts in relation to enterprises—predominantly SMEs—and non-profit organizations (NPOs). The Agency supports SMEs and NPOs in their development primarily by providing financial assistance for project implementation.

The Agency's approach is inspired by the best practices identified with respect to regional economic development. It is:

- Consistent with government priorities and national strategies related to its mission and anticipated results;
- Geared to the economic issues and challenges of enterprises and the different regions of Quebec, building on their assets and potential; and
- Collaborative with economic agents, such as local partners, other federal departments and agencies and the Quebec government.

Since April 1, 2012, the Agency has had one regular G&C program, the Quebec Economic Development Program. In addition to this program, the Agency contributed to the design and implementation of Canada-wide programs and targeted ad-hoc initiatives such as the Community Infrastructure Improvement Fund (CIIF) that ended in March 2014. This initiative aimed to support the rehabilitation and improvement of existing community infrastructure.

Agency's Grants and Contributions Programs and Initiatives, as stated in the 2013-2014 Report on Plans and Priorities:

Regular Program:

Quebec Economic Development Program (QEDP)

Canada-wide Program Implemented in Quebec by the Agency:

Community Futures Program (CFP)

Infrastructure Canada's delivery partner for the administration in Quebec:

Building Canada Fund–Quebec

Municipal Rural Infrastructure Fund

Canada Strategic Infrastructure Fund

Ad-hoc initiative:

Community Infrastructure Improvement Fund

Access to Information and Privacy Office

The Access to Information and Privacy Office (AIPO) is a division of the Agency's Corporate Secretariat, reporting directly to the Deputy Minister/President's Chief of Staff.

AIPO has a manager from the Corporate Secretariat, an access to information and privacy coordinator and an access to information officer. The coordinator, with the help of the officer, oversees compliance with legislation, regulations, procedures and broad government trends. Half of the officer's workload is devoted to processing requests for access to personal information.

Through its delegated authority, AIPO represents the Agency on matters relating to the Act in dealings with the public, Treasury Board Secretariat, the Commissioners of Information and Privacy and other federal departments and institutions.

AIPO's chief duties are:

- Processing requests for access to personal information and coordinating all attendant administrative and legal operations.
- Assisting applicants.
- Developing opinions, general guidelines and procedures relating to application of the Act.
- Reporting on the Agency's application of the Act.
- Meeting the training needs of Agency employees.

Delegation of authority

The Agency's enabling legislation identifies its head as being the Deputy Minister/President. In addition to managing the institution and overseeing management of Agency personnel, the Deputy Minister/President is responsible for application of the Privacy Act.

To this end, the authority for application of the Act was delegated to the manager position in the Corporate Secretariat, while most administrative authority was delegated to the position of access to information and privacy coordinator.

This delegation emerged from the 2011-2012 comprehensive access to information plan. This plan continues to reflect government trends and adheres to the overall principles of access to information. The section on "Administrative Policies and Practices" in this report provides more detail.

Interpreting the statistical report on access to personal information

The Agency received no requests for access to personal information in the fiscal year in question. Owing to its economic development activities, the Agency holds numerous documents containing information on third parties, but very little in the way of personal information. This is why records of requests for access to personal information are so rare.

Cost

Expenditures related to the administration of the Act totalled $55,928 in 2013-2014. That amount includes $48,524 in salaries for 0.80 FTEs. Even though the Agency hasn't processed any request and only received one complaint in the reporting period, it planned to complete a privacy impact assessment as stated in its 2012-2013 annual report. This initiative also generated other activities that aim at carrying out policies or procedures relevant to privacy.

Thus, a total of $6,750 was spent on professional services related to the completion of an assessment of the risks to privacy; and $654 was spent on travel costs, software leasing, supplies and translation services.

Training

In fiscal 2011-2012, we were able to develop and deliver a series of mandatory training sessions entitled Access to Information and Privacy Protection. This major initiative was conducted by the AIPO team and instructed 316 Agency employees on issues of access to information and protection of personal data.

In 2013-2014, AIPO continued with training, focusing on new Agency employees or those who did not have the opportunity to attend training in 2011-2012. To this end, seven training sessions were provided to a total of 43 employees.

In addition, two awareness sessions were provided to three employees in the Minister's office. Also, two Agency employees, whose duties call for a certain grasp of access to information matters, received a specific training.

Administrative policies and practices

Procedure

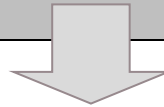

For the past four years, AIPO has had an Access to Information and Personal Information Procedure, submitted to and approved by the Agency's top management. No amendments were made in 2013-2014.

The procedure meets the demands of the Directive on the Administration of the Access to Information Act, as updated in January 2012. The purpose of this directive is to facilitate compliance with legislative and regulatory strictures, spell out the roles and responsibilities of all those involved in processing access requests and provide an efficient model of practices and processes for handling access requests.

In addition to presenting the roles and responsibilities of the various individuals involved, this procedure presents the process for handling requests, intended to illustrate the various processing and approval stages in effect at the Agency, based on the steps indicated in the following diagram.

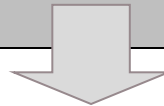

RECEIPT

As part of a well defined process, AIPO is responsible for receiving and processing requests submitted under the Act and provides leadership in this regard. AIPO then forwards the requests to the office of primary interest, which is then responsible for forwarding the requested documents and providing AIPO with expert advice.

PROCESSING

Once the document extraction process has been completed, AIPO analyses the documents on the basis of the Act, consults the office of primary interest, the departments concerned and third parties, if necessary. It then informs the branches and sectors concerned of the recommended dispositions, which are then submitted to the Manager, Corporate Secretariat, for approval.

COMMUNICATION

A 48-hour notice included in AIPO's decision is sent simultaneously to the managers involved. The documents are then prepared for reporting and sent to the applicants.

Information available on the Agency's Web site

<http://www.dec-ced.gc.ca/eng/access-information/index.html>

One section of the Agency's site has information about its role in applying the Act. There, one can find especially details of access requests processed by AIPO and for which records have been released. In accordance with the Directive on the Administration of the Access to Information Act, the Agency has been publishing a monthly summary of access to information requests processed since May 2011. Summaries contain the identification, abstract and disposition of requests, as well as the number of pages released.

These Web pages also contain practical supplementary information to help citizens who want to file an access request. This section is intended as a gateway to AIPO's services.

Complaints and investigations

During the reporting period, the Agency received one complaint about a request for access to personal information processed in 2012-2013. This complaint is still under discussion between the Agency and the Office of the Privacy Commissioner, in part to assess the application of section 25 (Safety of individuals).

Privacy Impact Assessment (PIA)

As planned in 2013-2014, the Agency made the necessary arrangements for a privacy impact assessment for the Quebec Economic Development Program. At the time of writing this report, the PIA had been completed and approved. In addition to being sent to the parties concerned, the PIA will be posted on the Agency's Web site.

Disclosure of personal information

In 2013-2014, no information was disclosed pursuant to subsection 8.(2)(m).

Actions planned for 2014-2015

The ATIPO will prioritize its initial mandate of responding to all requests for access to personal information in accordance with the spirit and letter of the Act.

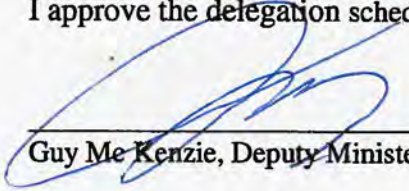

In addition, it will continue improving its business practices while complying with access to personal information-related directives, regulations and major trends. The improvement of its business practices in 2014-2015 will be achieved in part through the drawing up and implementation of a new Privacy Policy, as suggested in the privacy impact assessment.
