Privacy Act

ANNUAL REPORT

(April 1, 2013 to March 31, 2014)

1.0 Introduction

Canadian Heritage is pleased to present to Parliament its annual report on the administration of the Privacy Act for fiscal year April 1, 2013 to March 31, 2014. Section 72 of the Act requires that the head of every federal government institution submit an annual report to Parliament on the administration of the Act during the fiscal year.

The purpose of the Privacy Act is to protect the privacy of individuals with respect to personal information about themselves held by a government institution and to provide individuals with a right of access to their information. It also protects the privacy of individuals by exercising strict control over the collection, disclosure and use of such information.

Canadian Heritage is fully committed to both the spirit and the intent of the Privacy Act, which are based on the principles of open government and the assurance of privacy of individuals with respect to their personal information held by the Department.

2.0 Mandate of Canadian Heritage

The Department of Canadian Heritage and Canada's major national cultural institutions play a vital role in the cultural, civic and economic life of Canadians. We work together to support culture, the arts, heritage, official languages, citizenship and participation, in addition to Aboriginal, youth, and sport initiatives.

The Department of Canadian Heritage is responsible for programs and policies that help all Canadians participate in their shared cultural and civic life. The Department's legislative mandate is set out in the Department of Canadian Heritage Act and other statutes for which the Minister of Canadian Heritage and Official Languages is responsible and presents a wide-ranging list of responsibilities for the Minister under the heading of "Canadian identity and values, cultural development, and heritage."

The Department oversees numerous statutes, namely the Broadcasting Act, the Copyright Act and the Investment Canada Act (the latter two acts shared with Industry Canada), the Official Languages Act (Part VII), the Museums Act, the Cultural Property Export and Import Act, the Status of the Artist Act, and the Physical Activity and Sport Act (shared with Health Canada).

The Department of Canadian Heritage is specifically responsible for formulating and implementing cultural policies related to copyright, foreign investment and broadcasting, as well as policies related to arts, culture, heritage, official languages, sport, state ceremonial and protocol, and Canadian symbols. The Department's programs, delivered through Headquarters, and multiple points of service including five regional offices across the country, fund community and third-party organizations to promote the benefits of culture, identity, and sport for Canadians.

The Minister of Canadian Heritage and Official Languages, assisted by the Minister of State for Sport, is accountable to Parliament for the Department and the nineteen organizations that make up the Canadian Heritage Portfolio.

3.0 The Access to Information and Privacy Secretariat

The Access to Information and Privacy (ATIP) Secretariat is responsible for administering the Privacy Act within Canadian Heritage. Its mandate is to act on behalf of the Minister of Canadian Heritage in ensuring compliance with legislation, regulations and government policy and to create departmental directives, including standards, in all matters relating to the Act. The powers, duties and functions of the administration of the Privacy Act have been fully delegated by the Minister to the Director of the ATIP Secretariat.

During the reporting period, the Secretariat consisted of the following positions: Director, Deputy Director, six analysts, one project manager and two administrative support staff. In the departmental organizational structure, the ATIP Secretariat reports to the Corporate Secretariat for Canadian Heritage.

The activities of the ATIP Secretariat include:

- receiving and processing requests in accordance with the Act;
- promoting awareness of the Act within the Department;
- preparing the annual report to Parliament and the annual statistical report and maintaining the Department's Info Source chapter;
- monitoring departmental compliance with the Act; and
- providing professional advice and guidance to senior management and all departmental staff on the Act.
- assisting in the privacy impact assessment process and in creating or modifying personal information banks.

The ATIP Secretariat is continuously looking for new ways to incorporate Privacy to the appropriate departmental processes. During this reporting period, our partners in the Security office have included the notification of the ATIP Secretariat to their security incident investigations when personal information is involved.

4.0 Administration of Requests under the Privacy Act

4.1 Privacy Requests

Between April 1, 2013 and March 31, 2014, twelve formal requests for information were received under the Privacy Act. No requests for correction were received this fiscal year. See Appendix B for the Statistical Report on the Privacy Act.

4.2 Disposition of Completed Requests

Of the twelve requests completed during the reporting period, one resulted in full disclosure of information and six requests resulted in the partial disclosure of information. It was not possible to process three of the requests received as no records existed. Two requests were abandoned by the applicants.

4.3 Extensions

Requests can be extended beyond the 30-day statutory time frame in two circumstances. In three cases, the Department required a 30-day time extension to process a large amount of records.

4.4 Exemptions

The Privacy Act sets out specific exceptions to the right of access. These exceptions are known as exemptions. Each exemption is intended to protect information relating to a particular public or private interest and form the only basis for refusing access to personal information under the Privacy Act. In the processing of requests, one exemption to withhold information was invoked. Section 26 (personal information about another individual) was applied in six requests.

4.5 Complaints and Federal Court Cases

Two complaints regarding the processing of requests were filed with the Office of the Privacy Commissioner (OPC) against Canadian Heritage in the fiscal year. The reasons for the complaints were: use and disclosure (1) and access (1). The OPC completed their investigation into an access complaint on Canadian Heritage dating back to October 2011. Their finding concluded that the complaint was well founded and resolved. There were no Federal Court cases concerning the refusal of access.

4.6 Costs

The costs of $91,222, reported in the statistical report, include those incurred for the processing of requests, and for all other activities associated with the administration of the Act such as providing advice, and training and awareness.

5.0 Education and Training Activities

To increase the knowledge and understanding of the Privacy Act across the department, training and awareness sessions were delivered to departmental employees. These sessions provided basic information on the purpose and provisions of the Privacy Act, as well as the roles and responsibilities of departmental employees and the ATIP Secretariat.

The ATIP Secretariat has concentrated on marketing awareness services through existing departmental initiatives. Information sessions continued to be provided to new departmental staff and managers through the Canadian Heritage orientation program. This program provides an introduction to the key aspects of the Department including who and what we are and how we get things done. For sessions requested by branches, information was tailored to meet the specific needs of the branch concerned.

This reporting period, the ATIP Secretariat delivered 19 awareness sessions on the Privacy Act to departmental employees in the National Capital Region and regional offices. In total, 282 employees attended information sessions. Of particular note were sessions given to approximately 100 new employees as a result of the transfer of certain National Capital Commission programs to Canadian Heritage in October 2013.

The internal website for the ATIP Secretariat is a tool that is accessible to all departmental employees which describes the ATIP Secretariat's roles and responsibilities and provides information on the Privacy Act and related departmental policies and procedures.

6.0 Material Privacy Breaches

A Privacy Breach is deemed material if the breach involves sensitive personal information, could reasonably be expected to cause serious injury or harm to the individual, or involves a large number of affected individuals. This reporting period, the ATIP Secretariat was informed of two material privacy breaches. One was reported by way of a complaint with the Office of the Privacy Commissioner (OPC) further to an access request. It was determined that sensitive personal information regarding one individual had been sent to a departmental employee who was not authorized to receive it. The individual was notified of the complaint finding by the OPC. The second breach involved a third party program application that contained budget information, including estimated employee salaries for the proposed project. It was concluded that the information was destroyed and the individuals involved were not notified since notification would have required the collection of additional personal information.

7.0 Disclosure of Personal Information Pursuant to Paragraph 8(2)(m)

Subsection 8(2) of the Privacy Act stipulates under which circumstances personal information under the control of a government institution may be disclosed. Paragraph 8(2)(m) states that disclosure of personal information is permitted for any purpose where, in the opinion of the head of the institution, the public interest in disclosure clearly outweighs any invasion of privacy that could result from the disclosure, or the disclosure would clearly benefit the individual to whom the information relates. During the reporting period, no disclosures were made pursuant to paragraph 8(2)(m) of the Privacy Act.

8.0 Privacy Impact Assessments

Forty-nine Privacy Impact Assessment Checklists were evaluated for new or changed programs or systems, two of which resulted in the recommendation of a privacy impact assessment (PIA). Additionally, the ATIP Secretariat drafted nineteen Privacy notices further to the analysis of Privacy Impact Assessment Checklists. During the reporting period, no PIAs were completed.

9.0 Reporting

The ATIP Secretariat met its reporting obligations for the reporting period, by providing timely input to Info Source and the publication of annual reports. The statistical report on the Privacy Act was provided to the Treasury Board Secretariat. Additionally, the Department's annual reports on the administration of the Privacy Act have been made available on the Internet site. Internally, the ATIP Secretariat monitored the time to process requests on a daily basis with the ATIP case management system, as well as bi-weekly through meetings between ATIP officers and ATIP Secretariat management.
