INTRODUCTION

This publication presents information with respect to employment in and payrolls of the federal government and federal government enterprises. It provides information for the quarter ending June 30, 1971 and also for each of the months included therein.

Statistics Canada being precluded from publishing data which might permit identification of individuals, it has been necessary to combine data in respect of the executive category with those in respect of the scientific and professional category.

Employment in the federal government, including enterprises but excluding members of the Canadian Forces, was 401.5 thousand as of June 30, 1971. This represented a net increase of 16.2 thousand over employment as of March 31, 1971. This increase was due mainly to the hiring of seasonal employees for work during the summer months.

Total payroll for the quarter, as reported in this publication, was $741.3 million and represented a net increase of $25.6 million over the total for the previous quarter. This total excludes, for departments and departmental corporations, overtime payments and retroactive salary payments for which analyses by occupational categories were not available.

Explanatory notes and a glossary of the principal terms used may be found on page 19.

  - (b) Quarterly reports from September 1967 to current report (excluding the period April 1, 1969 to June 30, 1970 for which data were not available).

Presentation

This report is composed of three parts. INTRODUCTION (Table 1) summarizes data on all persons employed by the Federal Government and its agencies. PART A (Table 2) presents employment data of agency and proprietary corporations and other agencies and corporations by province. A list of these appears on page 21. PART B consists of Tables 3 to 10 which present statistics relating to the departments and departmental corporations listed in the Financial Administration Act plus "Parliament", that is, employees of Senate, House of Commons and Library of Parliament.

Comparability with Former Survey

The statistical series produced on an annual basis for the years 1925 to 1952 was intended to include the number of permanent and temporary employees in the general government administrative services (this broadly speaking, included those coming under the Civil Service Act). In addition, the payrolls of certain classes of employees referred to as "non-enumerated" classes were shown in the publication. The survey did not include a count of these "non-enumerated" classes. Since there was a distinct variation in the interpretation by departments of what constituted these groups, there were substantial differences between departments in the types of employees and payrolls included in the annual series.

The series commencing in April 1952 included employees not formerly in the publications as well as a number of government services not previously included, and consequently the statistics could not be compared with the former annual series.

Extent of Coverage

Includes. - Departments (including deputy ministers and ministers' staffs) and departmental corporations, agency corporations, proprietary corporations and other agencies and corporations. Members of Boards, Commissions and other government organizations, who serve on a full time basis with salaries fixed accordingly. Royal Canadian Mounted Police (uniformed and civilian members).

Excluded from the Tables but "footnoted" are the

Governor General and Lieutenant-Governors,
Ministers of the Crown (including Parliamentary secretaries),
Speakers of the Senate and House of Commons,
Deputy Speaker of House of Commons,
Judges.

The report does not include

Members of Parliament and Senators,
National Defence: members of the Armed Forces,
International organizations, the expenses of which are shared by Canada,
Employees of firms under contract to the Government of Canada,
Officers of Boards, Commissions and other government organizations who are paid on a per diem basis or receive a nominal honorarium for their services,
Opposition leaders of the Senate and House of Commons.

Comparability between Numbers and Earnings

The user of these statistics is advised to avoid making direct comparisons between the numbers of employees reported and the payrolls reported, the reason for this being that numbers relate to the employees on strength on the last day of the month wherever possible and otherwise in the final pay period of the month. Since in certain categories, especially casual employment, considerable fluctuations, in numbers employed, occur during a month, it will be seen that a comparison between the payrolls during the month and the number on strength at the end of the month would, in many cases, not be valid.

Users of these Statistics

Users of the statistics fall into four main categories. These are:

1. Those who wish to use summary data and identify government as an employer. In this category are included those persons who wish to relate the significance of government as an employer to business in general.
2. Persons interested in an analysis of the administrative structure of the Federal Government. These, in the main, include government departments themselves. The analyses of data as presented in tables 8 and 9 of the publication permit a comparison between the number of staff employed as reported in the publication and the number of positions established for each department of the government as published in the annual Estimates of Canada. This is, of course, mainly an administrative use which is of value to the Treasury Board and to the Public Service Commission as well as the various government departments. A further administrative use of the data is to determine the significance of the labour input factor through an analysis of wage costs as a proportion of total expenditures by vote.
3. Persons wishing to make a comparison between employment in the Federal Government and employment in the other levels of government, or between the Federal Government current data and prior data.
4. The final group of users are those who are interested in government as an employer in each of the principal industries. For this purpose the data must be analysed on a Standard Industrial Classification basis. This analysis, to date, has not been undertaken. The application of this analysis to the Federal Government and subsequently to the provincial and local governments would permit the assessment of the degree to which governments and their corporations have become significant employers in each industry.

SECTION 1 - Introduction - Concluded

Besides federal government officers, users include persons and firms undertaking labour research on behalf of industry, provincial and local governments, university research officers and private citizens. In addition, a substantial number of enquiries originate in the House of Commons and the press.

A description of the sources of data and the means by which the information is submitted and prepared for use, is contained in the following outline.

SECTION 2 - Description of the Tables

Introduction - Total Federal Government Employment and Payrolls (Table 1)

Table 1 provides data with respect to employees, employed in the following types of organization:

- A. Agency corporations, proprietary corporations and other agencies and corporations:
  - (a) agency corporations,
  - (b) proprietary corporations,
  - (c) other agencies and corporations.
- B. Departments and departmental corporations:
  - (a) departments, branches and services,
  - (b) departmental corporations.

Organizations of the first three types report gross payrolls (all monies paid to the employees covered), while those in the latter two report over-time payments, retroactive payments and regular payrolls separately.

Part A - Agency Corporations, Proprietary Corporations and Other Agencies and Corporations (Table 2)

The agency corporations and proprietary Corporations are listed in the Financial Administration Act under Schedules C and D respectively. The Glossary on page 30 of this report provides definitions of these two types of corporation. The "Other Agencies and Corporations" though not listed in the Financial Administration Act are, nevertheless, organizations of the Crown.

Statistics for these organizations are collected in two ways: (1) directly from the corporation or agency; (2) through the Labour Division (Employment Section) of Statistics Canada. The statistics reported do not permit a presentation by occupational category therefore, composite data are published. In most cases, employees reported represent the staff strength during the final pay period of the month. Gross payrolls are reported and accordingly include overtime payments, retroactive salary payments and other types of special payments in addition to regular salaries and wages. Organizations included in Table 2 are listed by group as follows:

Agency Corporations

Atomic Energy of Canada Ltd.
Canadian Arsenals Ltd.

The basic data are recorded in two ways:

1. By employee: Individual position records are maintained for the majority of positions in the departments and departmental corporations of the Government of Canada. The position record cards contain data on the occupants of these positions. The records are amended monthly based on documents received authorizing changes concerning positions and/or their occupants, thus permitting a count of persons employed on the last day of the month. Because of the time lag in the routing of position and personnel changes through normal channels, it is not always possible to include all changes in the appropriate month. The number of employees for a given month, therefore, will not always represent the exact staff strength at the end of that month. Regular payrolls, being based on the annual salary rates of employees on strength at the month's end, will not necessarily equal the actual amounts paid in salaries during the month. As a result of the introduction, within the public service, of the bi-weekly pay as of April 1, 1969, three pays will be reported in the statistics for the month of January and July each year. These factors do not seriously effect the validity of the statistics.
2. By group of employees: Statistics with respect to employees occupying positions for which no individual records are maintained, are collected by means of reports providing: the staff strength at the end of the month, regular payrolls for the month (including amounts paid to those off-strength at the end of the month) retroactive salary payments and overtime payments. The following report in this manner:

Atomic Energy Control Board
National Defence (civilian employees)
Economic Council of Canada
National Film Board
National Research-Council
Post Office (part-time employees)
Royal Canadian Mounted Police (members of the force) Representation Commissioner, Office of the

"Locally-engaged" employees in foreign countries are reported by the employing department.

Classification by Function

The statistics of departments and departmental corporations are classified in Tables 5 and 6 by function. The classification by function portrays employment and payrolls as they relate to particular services provided by the federal government. It also provides the salary component of the cost of services provided by the federal government. Employment statistics presented on this basis have been classified in accordance with concepts evolved by the Government's Division of Statistics Canada for the presentation of financial statistics.

SECTION 2 - Description of the Tables - Continued

The classification by function provides a means of studying the operations of governments without the complications arising from differences in administrative establishments in each government and between governments. This analysis is useful in three ways. First it permits a detailed study of employment of the Government of Canada according to the main purposes or functions. Since these functions are not subject to the periodic changes which alter the administrative structure of the government, it is possible to develop a statistical series which, with minor exceptions, is consistent over an extended period of time. Second, since differences in administrative establishments are eliminated, it is possible to make meaningful comparison between federal government expenditures on employment and similar expenditures by other levels of government. Third, an analysis of the relationship between expenditures on employment and total expenditures can be made with regard to each function. (See Federal Government Finance, Cat. No. 68-211.)

HIRINGS AND SEPARATIONS

Data on hirings and separations were first published in the Federal Government Employment report for December 1959 and covered the quarter October 1 to December 31, 1959. This table records hiring and separation averages by department.

Each "department" is considered for purposes of turnover statistics as a separate employing agency. Consequently, movements of personnel between "departments" are treated in the same way as movements into and out of the government service. The aggregate hirings and separations are summed up in "Total - all departments". It should be noted, therefore, that hiring and separation data for the entire Government of Canada as an employer cannot be secured from this table.

It should also be noted that the totals shown in this table differ from hiring and separation data published by the Public Service Commission of Canada. The latter organization treats all staff employed under the authority of the Public Service Employment Act as a complete unit and consequently is concerned only with movements into and out of "Act" employment. The Commission therefore is not concerned with inter-departmental movements of employees, but, with movements of staff to and from "Act" employment even when such movements occur within a department.

The glossary of terms on page 30 should be referred to for definitions of certain terms used in the table on hirings and separations. These terms are:

1. Average employment (p. 31, item 21)
2. Monthly average (as pertains to hirings and separations) (p. 31, item 22)

Owing to the fact that relatively small changes in the staff of small departments can result in erratic fluctuations in the hiring and separation rates, such rates are not shown for "Departments" with less than 100 employees.
