ESTIMATES OF EMPLOYEES

Historical Series

Introduction

The publication "Estimates of Employees by Province and Industry", (Cat. No. 72-008), was initiated to provide a measure of aggregate employment by industry and province not available from the Labour Force Survey.(1) The series are derived by combining results from a monthly survey of employment in larger firms (usually employing 20 or more employees) and a monthly sample survey of smaller firms supplemented by data from other sources.(2)

The estimates of employees series were suspended following the publication of February 1971 data due to certain conceptual, methodological and operational problems.

The present publication contains monthly data for 1961 to 1972 inclusive at the major industry level. It includes revised data for January 1961 to February 1971 inclusive and new data for subsequent months. Work is continuing on the production of monthly data for 1973 and it is hoped that publication will resume in 1974.

The revisions, covering the period January 1961 to February 1971, are the result of a number of corrections made to the estimates of employees in smaller firms.

Smaller firm data were revised upward for the whole period January 1961 to February 1971 to include working owners of incorporated companies which had been incorrectly excluded previously. Data for the period May 1968 to December 1970 were also subject to revision due to the discovery of errors associated with sampling, estimating procedures and response bias. They in turn were compounded by problems associated with changing from the Unemployment Insurance Commission to the Department of National Revenue as a source of information on the dimension of the survey universe.

It has not been possible to quantify or correct for each individual problem affecting the series since late 1970. The data for January 1971 to December 1972 have therefore been constructed by using projections derived from the changes in reported employment of responding firms in any two consecutive months. The results obtained by this methodology were in general, satisfactory. In instances where the derived changes appeared to be exaggerated, adjustments were made based on historical patterns and movements exhibited by the survey of larger firms. Only in the case of forestry and construction were the adjustments such that they were considered to be unreliable at the provincial level. For these industries the Canada level only is published. Most of the revisions described could be carried out only at the industry division level due to the lack of sufficient detail on which to base corrections and projections for individual industries.

ESTIMATIONS DU NOMBRE D'EMPLOYES

Séries chronologiques

Introduction

Le bulletin intitulé "Estimations du nombre d'employés par province et par industrie" (Nº de catalogue 72-008) avait pour but de fournir une mesure de l'emploi agrégatif par industrie et par province, mesure qui n'était pas comprise dans l'enquête sur la population active(1). Les séries sont obtenues en combinant les résultats d'une enquête mensuelle effectuée auprès des grands établissements (20 salariés ou plus) avec les données d'un sondage mensuel sur les petits établissements que viennent compléter des chiffres provenant d'autres sources(2).

Les séries sur les estimations du nombre d'employés ont été interrompues après la parution des données de février 1971 à la suite de certains problèmes d'ordre conceptuel, méthodologique et opérationnel.

Ce bulletin renferme des données mensuelles pour les années 1961 à 1971 inclusivement au niveau des grandes activités économiques. Il présente des données révisées de janvier 1961 à février 1971 inclusivement et de nouvelles données pour les mois suivants. On poursuit actuellement la production de données mensuelles pour 1973 et on espère que la publication de ce bulletin reprendra en 1974.

Les révisions portent sur la période de janvier 1961 à février 1971 et sont le résultat d'un certain nombre de corrections apportées aux estimations des effectifs dans des petits établissements.

Les données concernant les petits établissements ont fait l'objet d'une révision vers le haut pour toute la période de janvier 1961 à février 1971 afin de prendre en compte les propriétaires actifs des sociétés constituées en corporation qu'on avait exclus à tort auparavant. Les données pour la période de mai 1968 à décembre 1970 ont également fait l'objet d'une révision à la suite des erreurs dans l'échantillonnage, dans les procédures d'estimation et à cause du biais des réponses. Ces erreurs se sont aggravées lorsqu'on a choisi le ministère du Revenu national au lieu de la Commission d'assurance-chômage comme source d'information pour établir la taille de l'univers de l'enquête.

Il nous a été impossible de quantifier ou de corriger chaque problème particulier touchant les séries depuis 1970. Les données de janvier 1971 à décembre 1972 ont donc été établies à l'aide des projections tirées des changements observés pendant toute période de deux mois consécutifs dans les emplois des entreprises déclarantes. Les résultats obtenus au moyen de cette méthode se sont révélés généralement satisfaisants. Lorsque les changements ainsi établis semblaient exagérés, on a procédé à des ajustements en se fondant sur le comportement et les mouvements chronologiques révélés par l'enquête sur les grands établissements. Ce n'est que dans le cas des forêts et de la construction qu'on a jugé les ajustements apportés peu sûrs au niveau provincial. En ce qui concerne ces industries, les chiffres ne sont publiés qu'au niveau national. La plupart des révisions décrites ci-dessus n'ont pu être exécutées qu'au niveau de l'industrie à la suite d'une insuffisance de détails sur lesquels on puisse établir les projections et les corrections concernant des industries particulières.
