2015-16 Report on Plans and Priorities

Chair's Message

I am pleased to present the 2015-16 Report on Plans and Priorities for the Veterans Review and Appeal Board.

The Board's mission is to provide timely, respectful hearings and fair, plain-language decisions to Veterans, Canadian Armed Forces (CAF) and Royal Canadian Mounted Police (RCMP) members, and their families who turn to the Board for redress of their disability benefits decisions. This mission statement is important to us: it is at the heart of everything we do.

In my six years as Chairman, I am proud to have overseen a number of positive initiatives that will continue to benefit applicants far into the future. In particular, the Board has:

- enhanced its systems for tracking applications and refined its scheduling practices to hear Veterans' cases at the earliest opportunity;
- implemented decision writing improvements for decisions that more clearly convey the reasons for the ruling;
- integrated business process redesign practices into our day-to-day operations to "work smarter" and reduce red tape; and
- increased engagement with stakeholders and applicants to guide program improvements.

Thanks to these and other accomplishments, the Board is in an excellent position to achieve its priorities in 2015-16. To better serve applicants, we will:

- continue to provide opportunities for timely hearings and decisions;
- further streamline and enhance our operations;
- improve the reach and impact of our communications; and
- strengthen our management practices.

It has been a true honour and a privilege to serve Veterans, CAF and RCMP members, and their families in my capacity as Chair of the Board. I have no doubt that they will continue to be well-served in 2015-16 and beyond through the dedication of Board staff and members.

- Royal Canadian Mounted Police Superannuation Act^{viii}.

The Board also adjudicates applications for compassionate awards made under section 34 of the Veterans Review and Appeal Board Act.

Organizational Context

Raison d'être

The Veterans Review and Appeal Board (the Board) is an independent, administrative tribunal created in 1995. The Board provides an appeal program for service-related disability decisions made by Veterans Affairs Canada. This program gives applicants two levels of redress for disability pension and disability award decisions and the final level of appeal for War Veterans Allowance claims.

The Board's objective is to ensure that Canada's traditional Veterans, Canadian Armed Forces members and Veterans, Royal Canadian Mounted Police applicants, qualified civilians and their families receive the disability pensions, disability awards and other benefits to which they are entitled under the law.

The responsible Minister for the Board is the Minister of Veterans Affairs.

Responsibilities

What does the Board do for ill and injured Veterans?

The Board offers two levels of redress for those who are dissatisfied with disability benefits decisions made by Veterans Affairs Canada (VAC, the Department). It operates at arm's-length from VAC to provide an independent appeal process. Learn more about the Board^{ix}.

Hearings

Hearings are conducted by Board Members, who are independent, impartial adjudicators. Their role is to decide whether the evidence meets the requirements of the legislation to award new or increased levels of disability benefits. They are not bound by previous decisions and will change them to benefit Veterans if there is relevant credible evidence to support the change. Learn more about Board Members^x.

Review hearings are conducted by panels of two Board Members. Veterans have the opportunity to give oral testimony and bring new evidence and witnesses in support of their case. Appeal hearings are conducted by panels of three Board Members who did not hear the case at review. The appeal hearing provides a further opportunity for applicants, through their representative, to submit new information and make arguments. All hearings are non-adversarial, which means no one argues against the Veteran. Learn more about the Board's hearings^{xi}.

What kind of cases does the Board hear?

Decisions appealed to the Board are frequently complex and challenging. Many applicants are satisfied with their departmental decisions and only about 10% come to the Board for an independent review. The top six medical conditions in applications are:

- back conditions
- knee conditions
- tinnitus
- neck conditions
- hearing loss
- post-traumatic stress disorder

Workload and Outcomes

The Board issues approximately 4,000 decisions annually, of which two-thirds are reviews and one-third are appeals. In 2013-14, the Board ruled favourably in approximately half of reviews and appeals awarding almost 2,100 applicants new or increased disability benefits. These favourability rates are due, in part, to the Board's ability to give applications a fresh review, receive new evidence and hear testimony from the Veteran and witnesses. Operating Environment

The Board's operating environment is influenced by the unpredictability of the nature and volume of applications it receives. The Board will focus on adding flexibility to the hearing calendar as it responds to continuing pressures to shorten the appeal process and provide plain language decisions to Veterans. The main factors affecting the Board's capacity to conduct hearings are the complexity of cases and the unpredictability of the time required by applicants and representatives to prepare their cases for hearings.

Program Delivery

The Board's priorities are to schedule timely hearings for applicants and to work with the representatives to expand hearing opportunities. The ongoing feedback from review hearing applicants will continue to guide improvements. The Board will continue to focus on issuing timely decisions that are fair and writing plain language decisions to help Veterans understand how their decisions were made.

Communication

The Board continues to focus on providing applicants with helpful information about the hearing process and on disseminating accurate information to stakeholders and Canadians about its work. The Board developed two important products in 2014-15 to achieve this priority: a video presentation for releasing CAF members; and an inaugural Annual Report^{xiii}. In the coming year, the Board will build on these accomplishments through proactive communications and outreach with the CAF, RCMP and Veterans' organizations.

Accountable Management

The Board is strengthening its information management through compliance with the Government of Canada Directive on Recordkeeping. It will implement processes to more efficiently manage information and will participate in audits and a program evaluation. As experienced staff become eligible to retire, the Board will review its Integrated Business and Human Resources Plan to ensure it has optimal resources to carry out its work. The Board will continue to integrate risk management into all areas of its work to ensure potential issues and strategies are identified to reduce possible impacts.

Internal Services

Description

Internal Services are groups of related activities and resources that are administered to support the needs of programs and other corporate obligations of an organization. Internal services include only those activities and resources that apply across an organization, and not those provided to a specific program. The groups of activities are Management and Oversight Services; Communications Services; Legal Services; Human Resources Management Services; Financial Management Services; Information Management Services; Information Technology Services; Real Property Services; Materiel Services; and Acquisition Services.

VAC provides some of these internal services to the Board under a Memorandum of Understanding (MOU). This service relationship has been in place since the Board was created in 1995 and continues to capitalize on the efficiencies presented by the Portfolio Department providing internal services to a small Portfolio member. The MOU is under review to ensure clarity in roles and responsibilities and to preserve the Board's independence.

Section III: Supplementary Information

Future-Oriented Statement of Operations

The future-oriented condensed statement of operations provides a general overview of the Veterans Review and Appeal Board's operations. The forecast of financial information on expenses and revenues is prepared on an accrual accounting basis to strengthen accountability and to improve transparency and financial management.

Because the future-oriented condensed statement of operations is prepared on an accrual accounting basis, and the forecast and planned spending amounts presented in other sections of the Report on Plans and Priorities are prepared on an expenditure basis, amounts differ.

A more detailed future-oriented statement of operations and associated notes, including a reconciliation of the net cost of operations to the requested authorities, can be found on the Veterans Review and Appeal Board's website^{xvi}.

Future-Oriented Condensed Statement of Operations For the Year Ended March 31, 2015 (dollars)

Financial Information	2014–15 Estimated Results	2015–16 Planned Results	Difference

Net cost of operations	12,342,581	12,298,563	(44,018)

The planned spending for Veterans Review and Appeal Board as reported on a modified-cash basis for 2015-16 is $10,896,563. This amount has been adjusted by estimated amounts for services provided without charge (i.e. accommodations, government payments to employee insurance plans, etc.), adjustment to severance pay liability and amortization of capital assets, to arrive at a future-oriented total expense of $12,298,563 for 2015-16.
