INTRODUCTION

The Access to Information Act (AIA) (Revised Statutes of Canada 1985, Chapter A-1) was proclaimed on July 1, 1983. The AIA gives Canadian citizens and permanent residents a broad right of access to information contained in government records, subject to certain specific and limited exceptions.

Section 72 of the AIA stipulates that the head of every government institution shall prepare and submit to parliament an annual report on the administration of the AIA for each fiscal year.

Consequently, this annual report is submitted by the Office of the Commissioner of Lobbying (OCL) in accordance with the AIA. It describes how the OCL fulfilled its access to information responsibilities during the fiscal year 2015-16.

The Office of the Commissioner of Lobbying

The Commissioner of Lobbying is responsible for the administration of the Lobbying Act (the Act) and the Lobbyists' Code of Conduct (the Code). The Office of the Commissioner of Lobbying (OCL) supports the Commissioner in her mandate. The authority of the Commissioner is derived from the Act. The legislation seeks to improve transparency and accountability regarding communications between lobbyists and federal public office holders and increase the confidence of Canadians in the integrity of government decision-making.

The mandate of the Commissioner is threefold:

- Establish and maintain the Registry of Lobbyists, which contains and makes public the registration information disclosed by lobbyists;
- Develop and implement educational programs to foster public awareness of the requirements of the Act; and
- Undertake administrative reviews and investigations to ensure compliance with the Act and the Code.

Under the Act, the Commissioner of Lobbying also has the authority to grant exemptions to former designated public office holders who are subject to a five-year prohibition on lobbying activities.

The Commissioner reports annually to Parliament on the administration of the Act and the Code. The Commissioner is also required to table to Parliament reports on investigations, which include her findings, conclusions and the reasons for her conclusions.

Responsibility for Information Rights / Delegation of Authority

The AIA provides the authority to exercise full powers to the Commissioner of Lobbying. The OCL's Access to Information and Privacy (ATIP) Coordinator has delegated this authority via a Delegation Order, of which a copy is attached in Annex A. The OCL has two employees responsible for the administration of the AIA, an ATIP Coordinator and an ATIP Advisor.

The Deputy Commissioner and Chief Financial Officer, as the ATIP Coordinator, is responsible for the development, coordination and implementation of effective policies, guidelines and procedures to ensure the OCL's compliance with the AIA. The Coordinator makes decisions on the disposition of requests under the AIA, promotes awareness of the legislation to ensure organizational responsiveness to its obligations, as well as monitors and advises on compliance with the AIA, regulations, procedures and policies. Further, the Coordinator acts as spokesperson for the OCL in dealings with the Treasury Board Secretariat, the Information Commissioner, and other government departments and agencies. The Coordinator is also responsible for conducting consultations with other federal organizations and other governments within Canada as required.

The ATIP Advisor is responsible for processing the requests received under the AIA and making recommendations to the ATIP Coordinator on the disposition of any requests received.

Under the Act, the OCL collects information from registrants and lobbyists and the disclosures filed by registrants are accessible on the OCL's website at the following address: <https://lobbycanada.gc.ca>.

The Act prescribes that investigations be conducted in private. In the event of requests for information related to possible administrative reviews and investigations conducted under the Act and the Code, the OCL will not confirm or deny that a review or an investigation is taking place. The only exception is when the information has been confirmed at a Parliamentary Committee and is therefore in the public domain.

Reports on Investigations under the Code that are completed must be tabled in both Houses of Parliament. They are also posted on the OCL's website.

ADMINISTRATION OF THE ACCESS TO INFORMATION ACT

Statistical Report

Annex B provides a statistical summary of requests under the Access to Information Act (AIA) received during fiscal year 2015-16.

In 2015-16, the OCL received eight requests under the AIA: five were treated formally and three informally. All eight requests were closed during this period. Four requests were received from the public and pertained to lobbying activities. One request was received by the media and related to travel and hospitality expenses. Three informal requests were received from the Media; two pertained to lobbying activities and one to travel and hospitality expenses.

The OCL completed these requests as follow:

- Existing records were disclosed for four requests except for publicly available material (para. 68 (a) of the (AIA) and pages containing personal information (subsection 19(1)). The OCL processed 2001 pages and hard copies were provided to requesters.
- Information did not exist for one request, and no fees were charged.
- All three informal requests were for a copy of records provided in previous requests. No fees were charged.

Exemptions

- Subsection 19(1) refers to material containing personal information.

Exemptions

- Paragraph 68 (a) refers to material publicly available in the Registry of Lobbyists.

With respect to the time to complete each of the five formal requests, one request was completed in 1 to 15 days or less, and 4 in 16 to 30 days. Informal requests were completed in 1 to 15 days.

Since fiscal year 2012-13, the volume of formal requests received and completed by the OCL has decreased by 50%. Over that period, 22 requests were from the public, two from the media and one from a business (private sector). During the same period, consultation from other federal institutions has increased from two requests in fiscal year 2012-13 to nine in 2015-16.

Fiscal Year	Formal Requests Received	Formal Requests Completed	Consultation Completed for Other Institutions
2015-16	5	5	9
2014-15	4	5	9
2013-14	6	6	5
2012-13	10	9	2

The OCL incurred total expenditure of $ 6,425.00 for the application of the AIA in 2015-16.

Fees

The fees collected for the processing of requests under the AIA during the reporting period totalled $20.00. The current fee structure is specified in the Access to Information Regulations. No fees are imposed for reviewing records, overhead or shipping costs. In accordance with section 11 of the AIA no additional fees are charged for the first five hours required to search for a record or to prepare any part of it for disclosure.

Information Holdings

In accordance with the Access to Information Act, the information gathered by the OCL is used only for the purposes for which it was obtained.

The OCL is responsible for providing a full accounting of information holdings to the Treasury Board Secretariat and ensuring that updates are provided for inclusion in the Info Source publication. This publication contains a description of the classes of institutional records held by the OCL.

Info Source can be obtained through public or academic libraries or it may be viewed online on the Treasury Board Secretariat's website at <http://www.infosource.gc.ca>.

New/Revised Policies, Guidelines and Procedures Implemented

During the reporting period, the OCL has started uploading summaries of completed requests on Canada's Open Data Portal.

OCL Website

The OCL's website at <https://lobbycanada.gc.ca> allows members of the public to access and search the Registry of Lobbyists, as well as obtaining copies of reports such as the OCL's annual reports on Access to Information and Privacy. Summaries of completed requests are available on the OCL website and on Canada's Open Data Portal.

Reading Room

A reading room is available at the OCL's office, situated on the 10th Floor at 255 Albert Street, Ottawa, Ontario, Canada K1A 0H2.

Education and Training Activities

No training was provided at the OCL during the reporting period.

Complaints and Appeals

No complaints or appeals were received by the OCL from the Office of the Information Commissioner during 2015-16.

Appeals to the Federal Court

There were no appeals filed during 2015-16.

Consultations from Other Institutions

In total, nine consultation requests were received from other federal institutions during the reporting period. Eight were closed with one request being carried forward to the 2016-17 fiscal year. All eight completed requests were handled within 15 days. A total of 52 pages were reviewed. Records were disclosed in their entirety.

Time to Process Access to Information Request Monitoring

Given the small number of requests received and processed by the OCL, no formal monitoring system was required during the reporting period.
