2.0 Statistical highlights about the arts in Alberta<sup>4</sup>

- Two-thirds of Alberta's 11,700 artists reside in Calgary (4,575) or Edmonton (3,095).
- Artists represent 0.8% of the local labour force in Calgary and Edmonton, putting them third and fourth on the ranking of the ten large cities of the Prairie. At 0.6%, Medicine Hat, Lethbridge and Red Deer are sixth, seventh and eighth. St. Albert and Strathcona County are ninth and tenth with 0.5%.
- Among large Prairie cities, the percentage increase in the number of artists from 1991 to 2001 was highest in Calgary (46%), Medicine Hat (30%) and Edmonton (21%).
- Among large Prairie cities, it is in Calgary where artists have the highest average earnings. At only $21,500, however, artists' average earnings in Calgary are 42% lower than average earnings in the overall local labour force. Across Canada, artists' average earnings ($23,500) are 26% less than other workers.
- Albertans spent "$3.0 billion on cultural goods and services in 2005, or 3.3% of total consumer spending in the province. The $3.0 billion in consumer spending on culture is nearly six times larger than the $540 million spent on culture in Alberta by all levels of government in 2003/04. This is the highest consumer-to-government spending ratio of all the provinces. On a per capita basis, Albertans' cultural spending is the highest of all provinces at $971 per resident."<sup>5</sup>

Examples of Canada Council funding in Alberta<sup>6</sup>

The Canada Council supports the endeavours of professional artists and arts organizations through its programs. The following selection illustrates the scope of the activities supported by the Canada Council in Alberta.

In 2006-07 Linh Ly of Calgary received an Assistance to Visual Artists - Project grant of $12,000 to photograph the architectural forms of women's culture in Beijing, China. During her one-month visit Ly will explore her idea of 'architectures of women' - the places where mothers are restricted - such as industrial sights, workplaces and night clubs. Ly wrote: "Where do women in Beijing transform themselves from 'workers' to other roles? Is history interested in these details? What can a Canadian mother as artist say about one of the most dynamic social and economical changes in the world?" Using thousands of photographs as raw material Ly will create art objects resembling mural-sized tapestries.

Composer and performer Terri (Teresa) Hron of Edmonton received $1,000 from the Travel Grants to Professional Musicians program in 2006-07 to participate in a residency with William Duckworth at the Atlantic Center for the Arts in Florida from May 15 to June 4, 2006. Currently living in the Netherlands, Hron chose to attend this residency because of its relevance to her current project entitled Bird on a Wire: Exploring the Electrical Edge of the Recorder. During the residency Hron created a new work called A Little Bird Told Me, which she premiered at the closing performance and received virtual technology and animation assistance in building her personal website.

The Aboriginal Wing Magazine (TAW), located in Cochrane, received $20,000 from the Grants to Aboriginal Writers, Storytellers and Publishers program to publish its second issue in 2007. Available in English, French and German, TAW is dedicated to promoting "inter-cultural communication between Canadian First Nations people, Canadians and Europeans." The winter 2007 edition includes the feature article entitled Calls of the Wild, which highlights the importance of wolves while dispelling myths, an interview with Cree actress Stacey Da Silva and information about INDIANER & INUIT: The North American Native Film Festival 2007, which took place from March 21 to 25 in Germany.

First-time grant recipient Terrance Houle, an Aboriginal media artist from Calgary, received $1,000 from the Travel Grants to Media Artists program to attend two exhibitions featuring his work. Houle first traveled to Toronto for the opening of the multimedia exhibition Wagon Burner, This! Princess Moonrider, That! at A Space gallery on September 9, 2006. He then traveled to Ottawa for Carleton University Art Gallery's exhibition RED EYE which opened on September 11, 2006. Houle gave an artist talk/presentation at each location allowing him to showcase his work to artists, students and the general public in a professional manner relating to each exhibition.

Edmonton poet Catherine Owen received $15,000 from the Grants to Professional Writers - Creative Writing program in 2006-07 to work on a poetry collection celebrating two pioneer women photographers, entitled Seeing Lessons. The manuscript will be divided in two sections, The Light Gatherer and Agitate, both set in BC. The first section will be a narrative sequence in the form of journal entries, lyrics and letters starting in 1888 when "Mattie Gunterman, pioneer photographer, starts to learn the idiosyncratic rudiments of her trade…" The second, executed in long poem form, will take place 60 years later and trace the adventurous journey of a contemporary female photographer.

The Jean A. Chalmers Fund for the Crafts awarded $7,000 to Medicine Hat's Medalta International Artist in Residence Program (MIAIR) to create a ceramic exhibition and artist residency. The residency was facilitated by Anita Rocamora and Linda Sormin and occurred from May 29 to June 23, 2006. Each of the 13 participants gave a lecture and a demonstration of their techniques. The Canadian Contemporary Ceramics Exhibition took place at The Esplanade Art Gallery from May 13 to July 9, 2006. The exhibition included artwork by 27 ceramists from Rankin Inlet to BC. Les Manning, the artistic director of MIAIR wrote: "these events facilitated increased public awareness and understanding of ceramic art."

In September 2006 Calgary's Newzones Gallery of Contemporary Art will promote the work of Canadian visual artists at the ART212 Contemporary Art Fair in New York with the aid of a $5,000 grant awarded by the Audience and Market Development office. Newzones was the only gallery from Western Canada at ART212. This allowed them to make new international contacts, reconnect with former clients, and generate sales and exposure for the Gallery's artists. Artists represented by Newzones include Bradley Harms (Calgary), Cathy Daley (Toronto), Sophie Jodoin (Montreal) and Cybèle Young (Toronto).

The Theatre section awarded $13,176 to BASHd!, an independent theatre production company based in Edmonton, for the creation and development of a musical theatre/rap performance. BASHd! was written and produced by actors Chris Craddock and Nathan Cukow and performed at Roost Niteclub in Edmonton from September 28 to October 7, 2006. First-time grant applicant and recipient Chris Cukow wrote that through the use of rap songs and spoken word poetry BASHd! "explodes assumptions about distinct categories of race, gender and sexual orientation, while exploring the discrimination and oppression of both sides of the coin, as we all try to co-exist in a free and equal society."

The Assistance to Practitioners, Critics and Curators in Architecture program awarded Frederick Valentine with a $20,000 grant to organize a retrospective of his career in architecture with an accompanying catalogue. The exhibition entitled The Architecture of L. Frederick Valentine: Career Works 1963-2005 took place from September 7 to October 28, 2006 at the Triangle Gallery of Visual Arts, a non-profit organization in Calgary. Valentine wrote that the show was organized to tell the story of his life and career and show influences and cycles of direction through the display of his works including models, original drawings, photographs and associated ephemera (mock-ups, news articles, publications, etc.).

The band Polyjesters from Carstairs received $3,000 from the Music Touring Grants program to go on a tour of seven cities in the Maritime Provinces from September 28 to October 7, 2006. The members of Polyjesters include Jason Valleau on bass, Sheldon Valleau on baritone ukulele, Matthew Woodward on fiddle and Aaron Young on guitar. While on tour the Polyjesters performed original compositions, displayed ukulele and fiddle techniques and promoted their band in radio interviews. Of the experience one band member wrote, "The acceptance of our tunes by an entirely different region of Canada reinforced our plans to continue our song writing endeavours and plan for the development of another CD."

In 2006-07 The Banff Centre, Theatre Arts was awarded $1,625 by the Grants for the Translation of Canadian Theatre Works program for the translation of Pascal Chevarie's Mika, l'enfant pleureur (Mika, the Boy Who Couldn't Stop Crying) from French to English. Mika, a play intended for audiences aged seven to twelve, is about a sad boy who decides to put his grief to good use by finding a legendary volcano whose roaring fire can only be extinguished by tears. Throughout the journey Mika encounters friendship and uncertainty but never loses faith in his mission to extinguish the volcano. Governor General Literary Award winner and broadcaster, journalist, dramaturge and translator Linda Gaboriau translated the play.

Edmonton's Mile Zero Dance Society received $2600 from The Japan-Canada Fund and $400 from the Visiting Foreign Artists Pilot Program to bring Japanese dance artist Mari Osanai to Edmonton. Osanai conducted classes and workshops at the Open Studio, Showing and Artist's Talk and created a new work entitled In the Room, which she performed at The Landing Pad from October 17 to 30, 2006. Osanai's Noguchi Taiso style is a form of Japanese gymnastics developed after World War II by the late professor Noguchi Taiso "as his response to the aggression he saw in the world. The movements he developed consciously reflect forms and cycles of nature, and his lessons were not only physical but philosophical."

The Calgary Animated Objects Society presented programming at the International Festival of Animated Objects from January 19 to 28, 2007 in Calgary with the support of a $25,000 grant from the Multidisciplinary Festivals Project Grants program. Funds supported Our Traditions, a new programming initiative that introduced the work of 28 Aboriginal artists to new audiences via public performances, lectures and residences. Media Artist Archer Pechawis collaborated with actress Jerilynn Webster to create the performance Young Spirit Voices, in which young emerging Aboriginal and non-Aboriginal artists shared their stories onstage after weeks of intensive creation and training. The Visual Arts - Supplementary Operating Funds Initiative awarded a grant of $20,000 to Edmonton's Society of Northern Alberta Print Artists (SNAP) to present the 2008 Edmonton Print International (EPI). The EPI will be a multilayered event including an exhibition of the most innovative prints and print-based art being produced in the world, an artist symposium, public education programs and a print publication. The event will "contribute to the growing awareness of Canadian culture by showcasing a large number of Canadian print artists as well as bringing in the work of print artists from around the world."

With a $5,000 grant from the Spoken Word and Storytelling Program, the Alberta League Encouraging Storytelling (T.A.L.E.S), located in Spruce Grove, held its 18th annual Storytelling Festival at Fort Edmonton from September 3 to 4, 2006. The Shuffle is a choreography for the audience to be performed in the public spaces of the theatre, which "targets the social spaces such as the lobby and bar and aims to activate them with suspicion, intrigue, conspiracy and collision in order to manipulate the body into sensing shifts in consciousness." Participants were initiated into the performance by secretly accepting packages containing a score based on narratives chosen from classic thriller and espionage films.
