For each calendar month in which he has earned at least ten (10) days' pay, an employee shall earn vacation leave at the following rate:

- (a) nine decimal three seven five (9.375) hours, if he has completed less than eight (8) years of continuous employment;

9.02 When an employee completes the years of continuous employment set forth above, he or she shall earn vacation leave at the applicable rate from the first (1st) day of the month in which he completes such years of continuous employment. However, an employee who has completed the continuous employment requirements on or before November 1, 1984, shall earn vacation leave at the appropriate rate as provided in 9.01 effective on the date of signing of this collective agreement.

9.03 Scheduling of Vacation Leave

An employee earns but is not entitled to receive vacation leave with pay during his or her first six (6) months of continuous employment.

9.04 Vacations, as far as possible, will be scheduled at times most desirable to the employee. However, vacation periods shall be designated by the Employer according to work requirements as determined by the Employer.

9.05 The Employer shall make every effort not to have to recall an employee to duty after he or she has proceeded on vacation leave.

9.06 At least two (2) weeks' vacation shall be taken in consecutive weeks unless otherwise mutually agreed.

Permission may be granted to an employee to take the remainder of his vacation leave in periods of less than one (1) week, subject to the operational requirements of the service as determined by the Employer.

Providing the employee has been authorized to begin vacation leave for the period concerned, pay in advance of going on vacation shall be made before departure. Any overpayments in respect of such pay advances shall be an immediate first charge against any subsequent pay entitlements and shall be recovered in full before any further payment of salary.

9.10 Where an employee dies or otherwise terminates his or her employment after a period of continuous employment of not less than thirty (30) days but not more than six (6) months, the employee or employee's estate shall, in lieu of earned vacation leave, be paid an amount equal to four per cent (4%) of the total of the pay and compensation for overtime received by him or her during their period of employment.

9.11 When the employment of an employee who has completed more than six (6) months of continuous employment is terminated for any reason, the employee or his or her estate shall, in lieu of earned but unused vacation or furlough leave, be paid an amount equal to the product obtained by multiplying the number of days of earned but unused vacation leave and/or furlough leave, by the daily pay rate as calculated from the classification prescribed in his or her certificate of appointment on the termination date of his or her employment.

9.12 Notwithstanding clause 9.11, an employee whose employment is terminated by reason of a declaration that he or she abandoned his position is entitled to receive the payment referred to in clause 9.11 if he requests it within six (6) months following the date upon which his employment is terminated.

9.13 When the employment of an employee who has been granted more vacation leave with pay than he has earned is terminated by death, the employee is considered to have earned the amount of leave with pay granted to him.

9.14 If a holiday as specified in clause 10.01 falls within an employee's vacation period, that day shall not be charged against his or her earned vacation leave.

9.15 For this Article the fiscal year begins on April 1 and ends March 31 of the following year.

9.16 Cancellation of Vacation Leave with Pay

When the Employer cancels or alters a period of vacation leave with pay that it has previously approved in writing, the Employer shall reimburse the employee for the non-returnable portion of vacation contracts and reservations made by the employee relating to that period, subject to the presentation of such documentation as the Employer may require. The employee will make every reasonable attempt to mitigate any losses incurred and will provide proof of such action to the Employer.

9.17 Where relating to any period of vacation leave with pay, an employee is granted:

- (a) bereavement leave;
- (b) leave with pay because of illness in the immediate family on production of a medical certificate;
- or
- (c) sick leave on production of a medical certificate;

the period of vacation leave with pay so displaced shall be added to the vacation period if requested by the employee and approved by the Employer or reinstated for use at a later date.

9.18 During any vacation year, upon application by the employee and at the discretion of the Employer, earned but unused vacation leave credits in excess of one hundred twelve decimal five (112.5) hours may be paid in cash at the employee's daily pay rate as calculated from the classification prescribed in the employee's certificate of appointment of the employee's substantive position on March 31 of the previous vacation year.

- (a) Employees shall be credited a one-time entitlement of thirty-seven decimal five (37.5) hours of vacation leave with pay on the first (1st) day of the month following the employee's second (2nd) anniversary of service, as defined in clause 9.02.
- (b) The vacation leave credits provided in clause 9.19(a) above shall be excluded from the application of paragraph 9.18 dealing with the carry-over or liquidation of vacation leave.

- (b) Good Friday;
- (c) Easter Monday;
- (d) the day fixed by proclamation of the Governor in Council for celebration of the Sovereign's birthday;
- (e) Canada Day;
- (f) one additional day in each year that, in the opinion of the Employer, is recognized to be a provincial or civic holiday in the area in which the employee is employed, or in any area where, in the opinion of the Employer, no such day is recognized as a provincial or civic holiday, the first (1st) Monday in August;
- (g) Labour Day;
- (h) the day fixed by proclamation of the Governor in Council as a general day of Thanksgiving;
- (i) Remembrance Day;
- (j) Christmas Day;

10.02 The Employer may substitute for the designated holiday specified in clause 10.01(f), or for Easter Monday, any other holiday generally observed in any area of employment, except in the National Capital Region area.

10.03 Subject to clause 10.04, when a designated holiday falls on a weekend recess, it shall be moved to the regular working day next following the designated holiday.

10.04

- (a) Subject to paragraph (b), an employee that does not work on a designated holiday shall be paid for that day the amount he would have been paid for a regular working day.
- (b) An employee shall not be paid for a designated holiday as provided in paragraph (a) if:
  - (i) he is not entitled to pay for at least ten (10) of the thirty (30) calendar days immediately preceding the designated holiday;

ARTICLE 11
EDUCATION LEAVE WITHOUT PAY,
CAREER DEVELOPMENT LEAVE WITH PAY AND
EXAMINATION LEAVE WITH PAY

Education Leave Without Pay

11.01 The Employer recognizes the usefulness of education leave. Upon written application by the employee and with the Employer approval, an employee may be granted education leave without pay for varying periods of up to one (1) year, which can be renewed by mutual agreement, to attend a recognized institution for studies in some field of education in which preparation is needed to fill the employee's present role more adequately or to undertake studies in some field to provide a service that the Employer requires or is planning to provide.

11.02 At the Employer's discretion, an employee on education leave without pay under this article may receive an allowance in lieu of salary of up to one hundred per cent (100%) of the employee's annual pay rate, depending on the degree to which the education leave is deemed, by the Employer, to be relevant to organizational requirements. Where the employee receives a grant, bursary or scholarship, the education leave allowance may be reduced. In such cases, the amount of the reduction shall not exceed the amount of the grant, bursary or scholarship.

11.03 Allowances already being received by the employee may at the discretion of the Employer be continued during the period of the education leave. The employee shall be notified when the leave is approved whether such allowances are to be continued in whole or in part.

11.04 As a condition of being granted education leave without pay, an employee shall, if required, give a written promise before leave starts to return to the Employer's service for a period of not less than the period of the leave granted.

If the employee:

- (a) fails to complete the course;
- (b) does not resume employment with the Employer on completion of the course;
- or
- (c) ceases to be employed, except by reason of death or lay-off, before termination of the period he or she has undertaken to serve after completion of the course;

the employee shall repay the Employer all allowances paid to him or her under this article during the education leave or such lesser sum as shall be determined by the Employer.

Career Development Leave With Pay

11.05

- (a) Career development refers to an activity that in the opinion of the Employer will likely help the employee further his or her career development and the organization to achieve its goals. The following activities shall be deemed part of career development:
  - (i) a course given by the Employer;
  - (ii) a course offered by a recognized academic institution;
  - or
  - (iii) a seminar, convention or study session in a specialized field directly related to the employee's work.
- (b) Upon the employee's written application, and with the Employer's approval, career development leave with pay may be given for any one of the activities described in sub-clause 11.05(a) above. The employee shall receive no overtime compensation under Article 16, or for travelling under Article 17, of this collective agreement during time spent on career development leave provided for in this clause.
- (c) Employees on career development leave shall be reimbursed for all reasonable travel and other expenses incurred by them that the Employer may deem appropriate.

Examination Leave With Pay

11.06 At the Employer's discretion, examination leave with pay may be granted to an employee for writing an examination that takes place during the employee's scheduled hours of work.

ARTICLE 12
SICK LEAVE WITH PAY

12.01 Credits

- (a) An employee shall earn sick leave credits at the rate of nine decimal three seven five (9.375) hours for each calendar month for which he or she receives pay for ten (10) days or more.
- (b) A shift worker shall earn additional sick leave credits at the rate of one decimal two five (1.25) hours for each calendar month during which he or she works shifts and he or she receives pay for at least seventy-five (75) hours. Such credits shall not be carried over in the next fiscal year and are available only if the employee has already used one hundred and twelve decimal five (112.5) hours sick leave credits during the current fiscal year.

12.02 Granting of Sick Leave

An employee shall be eligible for sick leave with pay when he is unable to perform his or her duties because of illness or injury under the following conditions:

- (a) that he or she satisfies the Employer of his condition in such manner and at such time as may be determined by the Employer;
- and
- (b) that he or she has the necessary sick leave credits.

12.03 Unless otherwise indicated by the Employer, a statement signed by the employee describing the nature of his or her illness or injury and stating that due to this illness or injury he or she was unable to perform his duties shall, when delivered to the Employer, be considered as meeting the requirements of clause 12.02(a).

12.04 When an employee has insufficient or no credits to cover the granting of sick leave with pay under the provisions of clause 12.02, sick leave with pay may, at the discretion of the Employer, be granted to an employee for a period of up to twenty-five (25) days, subject to the deduction of such advanced leave from any sick leave credits subsequently earned.

12.05 When an employee is granted sick leave with pay and injury-on-duty leave is subsequently approved for the same period, it shall be considered, for the purpose of the record of sick leave credits, that he or she was not granted sick leave with pay.

ARTICLE 13

OTHER TYPES OF LEAVE

For any requests for leave under this Article, the Employer may request, and when so requested an employee must provide, satisfactory validation of the circumstances necessitating such request, in such manner and at such time as may be determined by the Employer.

13.01 Bereavement Leave

- (a) When a member of the employee's family dies, an employee shall be entitled to a bereavement period of five (5) consecutive calendar days. Such bereavement period, as determined by the employee, must include the day of the memorial commemorating the deceased, or must begin within two (2) days following the death. During such period, the employee shall be paid for those days which are not regularly scheduled days of rest for the employee. In addition, the employee may be granted up to three (3) days' leave with pay for the purpose of travel related to the death.
- (b) An employee is entitled to special leave with pay, up to a maximum of one (1) day, in the event of the death of the employee's son-in-law, daughter-in-law, brother-in-law, sister-in-law or grandchild.
- (c) If, during a period of compensatory leave, and/or a period of vacation leave with pay an employee is bereaved in circumstances under which he or her would have been eligible for bereavement leave with pay under paragraph (a) and (b) of this clause, the employee shall be granted bereavement leave with pay and his or her compensatory leave credits and/or vacation leave credits shall be restored to the extent of any concurrent bereavement leave with pay granted.
- (d) It is recognized by the Parties that the circumstances which call for leave in respect of bereavement are based on individual circumstances. On request, the deputy head of a department may, after considering the particular circumstances involved, grant leave with pay for a period greater than and/or in a different manner than that provided for in paragraphs (a) and (b).

13.02 Maternity-Related Reassignment or Leave

- (a) An employee who is pregnant or nursing may, during the period from the beginning of pregnancy to the end of the twenty-fourth (24th) week following the birth, request the Employer to modify her job functions or reassign her to another job if, by reason of the pregnancy or nursing, continuing any of her current functions may pose a risk to her health or that of the foetus or child. On being informed of the cessation, the Employer, with the written consent of the employee, shall notify the appropriate work place committee or the health and safety representative.
- (b) An employee's request under clause 13.02(a) must be accompanied or followed as soon as possible by a medical certificate indicating the expected duration of the potential risk and activities or conditions to avoid so to eliminate the risk. Depending upon the particular circumstances of the request, the Employer may obtain an independent medical opinion.
- (c) An employee that has made a request under clause 13.02(a) is entitled to continue in her current job while the Employer examines her request, but, if the risk posed by continuing any of her job functions so requires, she is entitled to be immediately assigned alternative duties until such time as the Employer:
  - (i) modifies her job functions or reassigns her,
  - or
  - (ii) informs her in writing that it is not reasonably possible to modify her job functions or reassign her.
- (d) Where reasonably possible, the Employer shall modify the employee's job functions or reassign her.
- (e) Where the Employer concludes that a modification of job functions or a reassignment that would avoid the activities or conditions indicated in the medical certificate is not reasonably possible, the Employer shall so inform the employee in writing and shall grant leave of absence without pay to the employee for the duration of the risk as indicated in the medical certificate. However, such leave shall end no later than twenty-four (24) weeks after the birth.

- (f) An employee whose job functions have been modified, who has been reassigned or who is on leave of absence shall give at least two (2) weeks notice in writing to the Employer of any change in duration of the risk or the inability as indicated in the medical certificate, unless there is a valid reason why that notice cannot be given. Such notice must be accompanied by a new medical certificate.
- (g) Notwithstanding 13.02(e), for an employee working in an institution where she is in direct and regular contact with offenders, if the Employer concludes that a job function modification or reassignment that would avoid the activities or conditions indicated in the medical certificate is not reasonably possible, the Employer shall so inform the employee in writing and shall grant leave of absence with pay to the employee for the duration of the risk as indicated in the medical certificate. However, such leave shall end no later than at the time the employee proceeds on maternity leave without pay or the termination date, whichever comes first.

13.03 Maternity Leave Without Pay

- (a) An employee who becomes pregnant shall, upon request, be granted maternity leave without pay for a period beginning before, on or after the termination date of pregnancy and ending not later than eighteen (18) weeks after the termination date of pregnancy.
- (b) Notwithstanding paragraph (a):

25.16 A grievor may present a grievance at each succeeding level in the grievance procedure beyond the first level either:

- (a) where the decision or settlement is not satisfactory to the grievor, within ten (10) days after that decision or settlement has been conveyed in writing to the grievor by the Employer,

or

- (b) where the Employer has not conveyed a decision to the grievor within the time prescribed in clause 25.17, within fifteen (15) days after presentation by the grievor of the grievance at the previous level.

25.17 The Employer shall normally reply to a grievance at any level of the grievance procedure, except the final level, within ten (10) days after the grievance is presented, and within twenty (20) days where the grievance is presented at the final level except in the case of a policy grievance, to which the Employer shall normally respond within thirty (30) days. Similarly, the Employer shall be deemed to have delivered a reply at any level on the date on which the letter containing the reply is postmarked, but the time limit within which the grievor may present the grievance at the next higher level shall be calculated from the date on which the Employer's reply was delivered to the address shown on the grievance form.

25.22 The time limits stipulated in this procedure may be extended by mutual agreement between the Employer and the grievor and, where appropriate the Union representative.

25.23 Where it appears that the nature of the grievance is such that a decision cannot be given below a particular level of authority, any or all the levels except the final level may be eliminated by agreement of the Employer and the grievor, and, where applicable, the Union.

25.28 Where a grievance that may be presented by an employee to adjudication is a grievance relating to the interpretation or application for the employee of a provision of this Agreement or an Arbitral Award, the employee is not entitled to refer the grievance to adjudication unless the Union signifies:

This will be confirmed in a written determination to be issued by the Adjudicator within five (5) days of the hearing. The Parties may, at the request of the Adjudicator, vary the above conditions in a particular case.
