ROYAL COMMISSION ON CANADA'S ECONOMIC PROSPECTS

W. L. GORDON, Pres.

PRELIMINARY REPORT, DECEMBER, 1956

By popular demand, the Royal Commission on Canada's Economic Prospects has just issued a preliminary report on its findings. Here is a book that forecasts the shape of Canada's future over the next twenty-five years, and places considerable emphasis on the many foreseen problems, actual and potential, arising from the continued economic development of our country. This report was compiled from information obtained from Canadians in almost every walk of life and represents the considered opinions of many people engaged in widely different activities. To provide a setting for the various policy suggestions put forward, a selection of statistical forecasts have been included in this report.
