OPERATING REVENUES, EXPENSES & STATISTICS

STEAM RAILWAYS OF CANADA

WITH ANNUAL OPERATING REVENUES OF $500,000

FOR THE MONTH OF JULY, 1929.

Canadian railways earned larger gross revenues in July 1929 than in any previous July, the total being $47,361,719 as against $45,413,644 for July 1928. Net operating revenues amounting to $7,828,995 also made a new record for July, exceeding last year's by $505,567.

Freight traffic was heavier than in 1928 by 7.6 per cent and passenger miles increased by 1.1 per cent although the number of passengers carried decreased by 2.7 per cent.

For January - July, gross revenues amounted to $304,127,906 as against $291,346,103 in 1928; the net revenue was $49,007,822 and the operating income was $41,224,251, as against $46,150,995 and $39,853,509, respectively, last year.

EASTERN LINES, CANADIAN NATIONAL RAILWAYS: Gross revenues amounted to $2,725,951 which was an increase of $508,175, or 22.9 per cent, over revenues for July 1928. Included in these revenues are credits on account of the Maritime Freight Rate Act of $207,566 for 1929 and $171,654 for 1928. Operating expenses were heavier than in 1928 by $444,785, or 15.4 per cent. The loss from operation was reduced from $664,094 in July 1928 to $600,704 and the operating income debit, amounting to $656,922, was less than in 1928 by $61,234.

Freight traffic was 8.6 per cent heavier than in 1928 and passenger miles increased by 27.9 per cent although the number of passengers carried was less by 17,457, or 5.1 per cent.

For the seven months January - July, gross revenues were larger than in 1928 by $1,667,150 and the operating income showed a debit of $3,097,834 as against $3,358,185 in 1928. These operating incomes include credits on account of the Maritime Freight Rates Act of $1,427,568 for 1929 and $1,147,635 for 1928.

CANADIAN NATIONAL RAILWAYS: There was very little difference in the operating results for July as compared with those for July 1928. Gross revenues showed a slight decrease of $18,732 and operating expenses were lighter by $35,901, thus increasing the net operating revenues by $17,169 and the operating income by $1,742.

Freight traffic was slightly lighter and passenger miles decreased by 4.3 per cent although the number of passengers carried decreased by 14.0 per cent. This was due to an increase in the average journey from 77.2 miles for July 1928 to 85.9 miles for July 1929. Freight train loading showed a reduction and the average earnings per train mile decreased by 10 cents.

The lines in the United States showed an increase in gross revenues of $90,333 and in net revenues of $19,365.

For January - July, the Canadian lines (exclusive of Eastern Lines) showed gross revenues of $124,169,362 as against $121,323,427 in 1928 and an operating income of $14,776,362 as against $15,372,305 in 1928. The Canadian and United States Lines showed a gross revenue of $150,508,617 compared with $146,505,331 in 1928 and an operating income of $18,747,866 compared with $18,566,859 in 1928.

CANADIAN PACIFIC RAILWAY: Gross revenues, amounting to $19,356,531, were larger than in July 1928 by $1,133,073, or 6.2 per cent, operating expenses also increased by $916,311 and the operating income was larger by $193,098, amounting to $3,892,657.

Freight traffic was larger by 14.8 per cent, but passenger traffic showed a small decrease. The total pay roll amounted to $9,591,804 which was an increase of $269,657, or 2.9 per cent for an increase in the number of employees of 117. Increased train loading of 61.8 revenue tons increased the average revenue per train mile by 42 cents despite a decrease in the average receipt per ton mile from 1.141 cents in July 1928 to 1.085 cents in July 1929.

For January - July, gross revenues amounted to $122,037,433 as against $116,479,862 in 1928 and the operating income amounted to $20,249,488 as against $20,151,296 in 1928.
