PART IV

(Operating and Traffic Statistics)

Passenger and Freight Traffic

The number of passengers carried by common carrier railways operating in Canada during 1961 dropped 3.7 per cent to 18.8 million from 19.5 million the previous year, continuing the unbroken downward trend begun in 1945. Revenue passenger miles declined to 2.0 billion from 2.3 billion and the average passenger journey dropped to 104 miles from 116.

Revenue ton-miles, which measure freight traffic in terms of tonnage and distance, showed a slight increase to 65.8 billion in 1961 from 65.4 billion a year earlier. The volume of freight carried, on the other hand, including tonnages handled by more than one road, fell 2.3 per cent to 174.6 million tons from 178.8 million. The resulting average length of haul was 372 miles, up 6 from the previous year. Gross ton-miles performed by freight train cars aggregated 145.4 billion, down from 146.1 billion, and train hours run in freight service numbered 2.9 million in contrast to 3.2 million in 1960.

Passenger and Freight Car Mileage

Passenger car miles travelled in revenue service numbered 311.9 million in the year under review, down 9.6 per cent from 345.0 million in 1960. Of the 1961 total 285.7 million car miles (317.3 million a year earlier) were run in passenger trains and 26.2 million (27.7 million) in freight trains. Freight train car miles at 3,234.6 million in 1961 showed a decline from 3,249.8 million the previous year. In 1961, loaded freight cars accounted for 1,996.8 million miles (versus 2,028.8 million in 1960); empty cars ran 1,176.0 million miles (1,156.6 million); and cabooses travelled 61.7 million (64.4 million). Freight car miles in passenger trains rose during the year to 6.4 million from 5.9 million in 1960.

Train and Locomotive Miles

Railway operations in 1961 produced 91.7 million train miles in contrast to 98.4 million a year earlier. The 1961 total comprised 60.6 million freight train miles and 31.1 million passenger train miles, comparing with 63.9 million and 34.5 million, respectively, in 1960. Of the 86.8 million locomotive-miles run in 1961 (exclusive of switching) only 31,980 were performed by steam-powered motive equipment. This compared with nearly 1.0 million steam locomotive-miles in 1960. Diesel units accounted for 86.5 million or 99.6 per cent of the total (as against 92.3 million or 98.7 per cent in the earlier year), while electric units provided the remaining 291,511 locomotive-miles (263,448). Locomotive miles run in train and yard switching operations totalled 28.7 million as against 31.7 in 1960.
