1. The first part of the document discusses the general principles of the project and the objectives to be achieved.

2. The second part of the document describes the methodology used in the study and the data collection procedures.

3. The third part of the document presents the results of the study and discusses the implications of the findings.

4. The fourth part of the document provides a conclusion and recommendations for further research and practice.

5. The fifth part of the document contains the references and the appendixes.

6. The sixth part of the document is a summary of the key points of the study.

7. The seventh part of the document is a list of the abbreviations used in the text.

8. The eighth part of the document is a list of the symbols used in the text.

9. The ninth part of the document is a list of the figures and tables included in the study.

10. The tenth part of the document is a list of the authors and their affiliations.

MOTOR TRANSPORT TRAFFIC - NATIONAL ESTIMATES

FIRST QUARTER, 1960

This quarterly publication has been designed to provide commodity detail which has become available from the sample surveys of commercial motor vehicles conducted in each of the ten provinces on a continuing quarterly basis. For a complete description of the design of the sample as well as the methods and procedures, reference should be made to the publication "Motor Transport Traffic - National Estimates, 1957," Catalogue No. 53-207.

The quarterly series covers the operation of intercity vehicles, both private and for hire, but it should be noted that urban services of these vehicles are necessarily included. The operations of vehicles classed as farm and urban are described in the annual Motor Transport Traffic reports but are excluded from this publication.

This report includes tables dealing with for hire vehicles and private intercity vehicles. For each class the data are broken down to show operations on trips up to and including 50 miles and on trips over 50 miles as well as total operations.

For purposes of comparison with other modes of transport, the Railway Freight Commodity Statistics Classification has been generally followed (see Appendix I). However, where sufficient descriptive detail was not reported for a particular item it was necessary to assign it to a N.O.S. (not otherwise specified) class. Also, mixed truckloads of goods which were within the same main commodity group, such as agricultural products, have been included with "other agricultural products". However, when the commodities reported for a mixed truckload belonged to more than one of the five main commodity groups, they have been assigned to the "N.O.S. general freight" group. Therefore the totals shown for individual commodities are understated in proportion to the amount of that commodity which, of necessity, was assigned to one of these general classes.

The results of the provincial sample surveys were expanded to represent the estimated truck population for the thirteen weeks of the quarter and combined for a Canada total. For purposes of comparison and continuity all commodities shown individually in the report for the fourth quarter of 1959 have been retained except those for which the number of trips recorded were very low. It should also be noted that the tonnage for some commodities shown has dropped below 100,000 tons which was the minimum requirement for the separate listing of a commodity in the 1959 reports.

Because of the method of selection, it has been possible to show more commodities individually for the for hire vehicles in tables 1 to 3 than for the private intercity trucks in tables 4 to 6. All other commodities not listed separately have been included in either the "other" figures of the five main commodity groups or in the N.O.S. general freight as previously explained.

Weight of goods carried, miles travelled with load, net ton miles and revenue have been rounded to thousands and average distance per ton has been rounded to tens. Averages were calculated before the figures were rounded. The data in this report are estimates subject to sampling error. As time has not permitted a study of the reliability of the detailed information, the data should be used with caution.

Glossary of Terms

Average distance per ton - average distance each ton was carried. Net ton miles divided by the total weight of goods carried.

Average weight carried per truck - total net ton miles performed divided by miles travelled with load.

For hire vehicles - those vehicles (common and contract) which were operated for compensation and, in most provinces, were identified by a distinct series of licence plate numbers, especially for public service vehicles.

Net ton miles - average weight of goods carried per trip multiplied by the number of loaded miles.

N.O.S. - not otherwise specified. (As a result of insufficient descriptive detail for some of the commodities recorded in the questionnaires, it has been necessary to assign these commodities to the N.O.S. classes rather than to a more specific class.)

Private intercity vehicles - privately owned trucks (both intercity and rural) which were operated beyond urban areas and were not used directly in connection with farm operations.

Weight of goods carried - total weight of goods loaded on the vehicles.

For Hire Trucks

In the first quarter of 1960, for hire trucks carried an estimated 25,465,000 tons of goods compared with 47,297,000 tons in the fourth quarter of 1959, a decrease of 46 per cent. However, the net ton miles declined only 1 per cent because the average distance per ton rose to 80 miles from 60, while the average weight carried per truck remained at 10 tons. The revenue received for the transportation of goods decreased 26 per cent to $134,570,000 from $181,454,000 and the revenue per ton mile declined to 6.3 cents from 7.0 cents.

For trips over 50 miles manufactures and miscellaneous products accounted for 56 per cent of the weight of goods carried, 49 per cent of the net ton miles performed and 55 per cent of the revenue for these for hire trucks.

Private Intercity Trucks

The private intercity vehicles, in the first quarter of 1960, carried an estimated 17,267,000 tons of goods compared with 39,493,000 in the fourth quarter of 1959, a decrease of 56 per cent. The average weight of goods carried per truck remained at 4 tons but the average distance per ton increased to approximately 40 miles from 30 miles in the previous quarter. The net ton miles for these vehicles declined 30 per cent to 692,713,000 from 983,215,000.

For trips over 50 miles, manufactures and miscellaneous products accounted for 61 per cent of the weight of goods carried and 60 per cent of the net ton miles performed by these private intercity trucks.
