Registrations

Table 1 is a historical summary showing the increase in registrations since 1903. All motor vehicles which are licensed to operate on public highways and streets are included in Table 3 "Registrations of Motor Vehicles, Drivers, etc.". Motorcycles, including motor bicycles, are classified as motor vehicles. Trolley coaches are registered as motor vehicles in Nova Scotia, Quebec and Ontario, but for licensing purposes Quebec does not distinguish them from motor buses. In other provinces, trolley coaches do not require provincial motor vehicle licences.

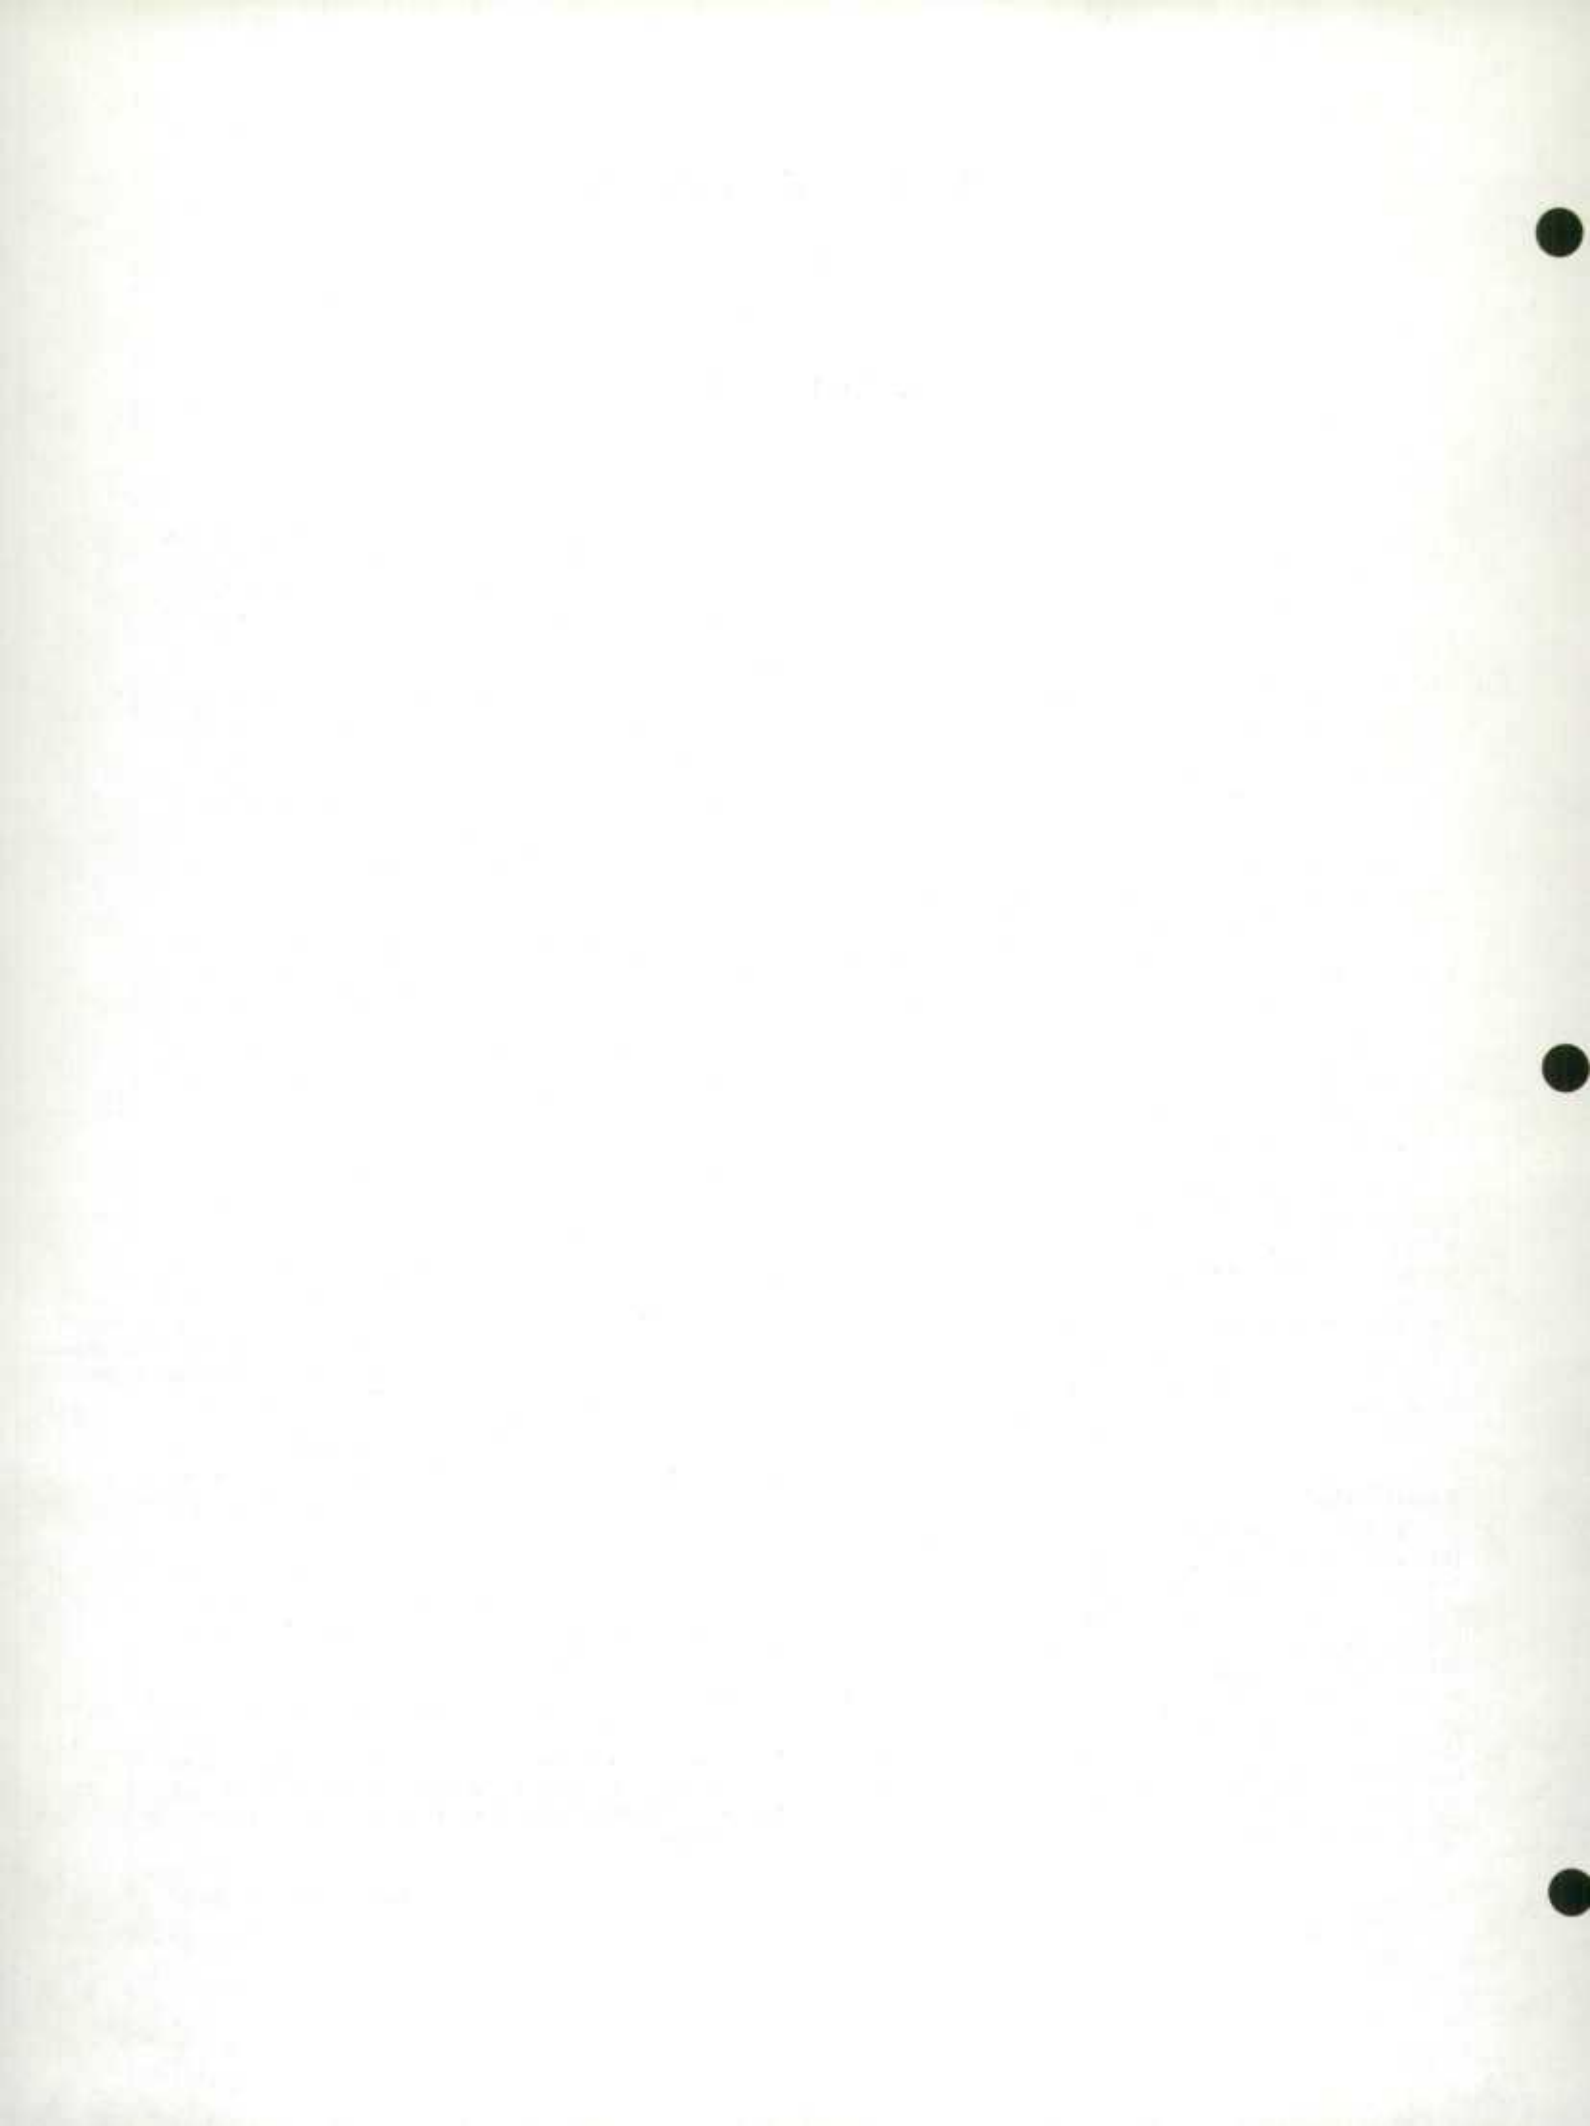

Provincial licensing laws vary considerably on the definition of gasoline stations and garages. These refer not only to service stations which sell gasoline and garages which engage in the task of repairing motor vehicles, but also to other outlets. For example, Ontario lists as a retail outlet any place having (a) a gasoline pump and (b) a licence to sell gasoline, while British Columbia includes new car dealers selling gasoline. In Ontario and British Columbia, the group "Garages" includes establishments which do not perform automotive repair work, such as used car lots, storage facilities for vehicles, parking lots, etc.

Motor vehicles licensed during the 1968 registration year increased 5.3 per cent to 7,877,547 from 7,481,960 in 1967. Passenger car registrations were 6,159,573, 5.0 per cent higher than the 5,865,738 licensed in the previous year, while vehicle registrations of commercial vehicles increased 5.8 per cent to 1,577,687 from 1,490,572. Motorcycles, including motor bicycles showed an increase to 140,287 from 125,650 reported in 1967.

At the end of the 1968 registration year, there were ten motor vehicles registered for every 26 Canadians. Saskatchewan and British Columbia have the largest number of motor vehicles in relation to population, with ten for every 21 persons. For passenger cars only, there were ten for every 34 Canadians. British Columbia and Ontario continued to have the largest number of passenger cars in relation to population at ten per 27 and 30 persons, respectively. All regions showed increases over the previous year in the number of vehicles per capita except Prince Edward Island, Manitoba, Saskatchewan and Alberta which remained unchanged from the 1967 registration year.

Gains in total registrations, which occurred in all provinces, ranged from 0.8 per cent in Prince Edward Island to 24.4 per cent in the Yukon and Northwest Territories.

In Table 4, motor vehicle registrations are shown by Census Division number for the first time; these are reported according to the home address of the owner, except for Quebec, Saskatchewan and British Columbia, which are by place of issuance of the licence.
