SUMMARY OF CANAL TRAFFIC

NOVEMBER, 1937

Sault Ste. Marie Canals - Canadian and United States Locks: Due to a large decrease in the iron ore traffic from 4,266,271 tons in 1936 to 1,583,752 tons, total traffic through the locks decreased from 7,093,825 tons in November last year to 3,938,979 tons. Wheat shipments were only slightly below last year's and other grains increased from 9,638,102 bushels to 12,420,832 bushels.

Welland Ship Canal: With large decreases in wheat, corn, flour, iron and steel, and iron ore, the total traffic using the canal during November declined from 1,309,168 tons last year to 1,229,350 tons. Total traffic, however, from the opening of navigation to the end of November amounted to 11,688,825 tons. This is 11.5 per cent more traffic than for the complete season last year which was the previous high record.

St. Lawrence Canals: Total traffic using the canals amounted to 989,456 tons as against 999,184 tons in November, 1936. Wheat shipments were lighter by 63,202 tons, corn by 59,663 tons, and flour by 8,752 tons, but barley increased by 59,015 tons, other grains (beans) by 30,899 tons, gasoline by 15,748 tons, petroleum and other oils by 20,753 tons, pulpwood by 18,546 tons, soft coal by 15,224 tons, and iron ore by 25,247 tons. Total freight to the end of November, amounting to 9,070,342, is also a new high record for these canals.

CANAL STATISTICS

ERRATA

Because of an error in the October, 1937, statement for the St. Lawrence Canal, please substitute the following. This error affected also the total for all canals for October, raising it to 3,412,938 tons of freight, and for the season of navigation, raising the total tons of freight to 23,351,429 tons, or 1,882,613 tons over the 1936 total.
