SUMMARY OF CANAL STATISTICS

DECEMBER, 1961

Navigation on the Sault Ste. Marie Canal was officially closed on December 12, on the Welland Canal, December 15, and on the St. Lawrence Canals, November 30. However, the last vessel upbound on the St. Lawrence passed through on December 5 while the Sault Ste. Marie Canal remained open until December 19. Freight transported through all Canadian canals during the month was up nearly 70 per cent, to 831,362 tons from 489,489 in December, 1960. By the close of navigation, a total of 23.7 million tons had been transported through the St. Lawrence canals, compared with 20.8 million in 1960. Traffic through the Welland Canal increased to 31.4 million tons from 29.3. These are preliminary figures subject to revision in the annual Canal Report for 1961.

Sault Ste. Marie Canals - Canadian and United States Locks: With wheat shipments up to 1,011,760 tons from 608,294, total freight cleared through the combined system rose 72.7 per cent to 1,486,314 tons from 860,679 in December, 1960. Iron ore traffic amounted to 201,686 tons whereas in the previous December no ore moved through the canal. Freight through the Canadian lock declined to 21,372 tons from 21,523. Eastbound traffic through both canals rose to 1,425,949 tons from 820,890 with westbound freight up to 60,365 tons from 39,289. Vessel passages during the month totalled 495 as against 497 in December, 1960.

Welland Ship Canal: Total freight carried through the Welland Canal increased 78.9 per cent to 730,163 tons from 408,154 in December 1960. Wheat shipments were up to 316,166 tons from 99,358 and coal to 81,039 tons from 14,150. Total eastbound freight increased 84.6 per cent to 622,350 tons from 337,167 while westbound freight rose 51.9 per cent to 107,813 tons from 70,987. Vessel passages during the month increased to 238 from 175 with registered net tonnage up to 746,117 tons from 342,195.

St. Lawrence Canals: The early closing of navigation on the St. Lawrence Canals reduced freight clearances for December to 16,257 tons as against 22,033 in December, 1960. During the month 120 vessels of 114,888 registered net tons passed through the canals, compared with 74 vessels of 61,921 net tons in the same month last year.
