Civilian Review and Complaints Commission for the RCMP

Access to Information Reporting for 2016–2017

1. INTRODUCTION

The purpose of the Access to Information Act (Act) is to provide Canadian citizens and residents with a right of access to information under the control of government institutions.

This Annual Report was prepared in accordance with section 72 of the Act, which stipulates that annual reports on access to information shall be tabled in Parliament.

2. ABOUT THE CIVILIAN REVIEW AND COMPLAINTS COMMISSION FOR THE ROYAL CANADIAN MOUNTED POLICE

The Civilian Review and Complaints Commission for the Royal Canadian Mounted Police (CRCC) operates pursuant to the Royal Canadian Mounted Police Act, R.S.C. 1985, c. R-10. The CRCC provides civilian review of RCMP members' conduct in performing their policing duties so as to hold the RCMP accountable to the public.

The CRCC's main role is to take public complaints about members of the RCMP. These complaints are then forwarded to the RCMP for initial investigation as mandated by the Royal Canadian Mounted Police Act; however, if the complainant is dissatisfied with the response that he or she receives from the RCMP, the CRCC will review the complaint with a view to determining the reasonableness of the RCMP's response. In appropriate cases, the CRCC will undertake its own investigation or hearing into a complaint. The Chairperson of the CRCC also has the power to file his or her own complaint if he or she feels that a matter is deserving of investigation.

Additionally, even in the absence of a public complaint, the CRCC is empowered to conduct a review of RCMP activities to evaluate compliance with legislation, regulations, ministerial directions, policy, procedures and/or guidelines.

3. ATIP RESPONSIBILITIES

At the CRCC, the Access to Information and Privacy (ATIP) Unit consists solely of the ATIP Coordinator. The ATIP Coordinator processes all requests from the public and consultations from other departments or agencies. The ATIP Coordinator also provides advice to CRCC employees and senior officials on ATIP-related matters, prepares annual statistical reports, ensures the ongoing accuracy of Info Source, prepares completed Access to Information summaries for proactive disclosure on the CRCC's website, participates in forums for the ATIP community and monitors changes in ATIP policy, guidelines and directives.

When processing requests and consultations under the Access to Information and Privacy Acts, the ATIP Coordinator also benefits from some administrative assistance from personnel in the Information Management Unit of the CRCC.

The Senior Director, Operations, under delegated authority from the Minister of Public Safety, provides the final approval for all responses on ATIP requests and consultations.

4. DELEGATION ORDER

The Minister of Public Safety has delegated full authority under the Act to the CRCC Chairperson and Senior Director, Operations. The Minister has also delegated administrative duties and functions to the CRCC ATIP Coordinator. The most recent delegation order was signed by the Minister of Public Safety on July 4, 2016 (see Annex A).

5. ACCESS TO INFORMATION REQUESTS RECEIVED

During the course of the reporting period (April 1, 2016 – March 31, 2017), the seven (7) Access to Information requests that had been carried forward from the previous year were completed. Eleven (11) new Access to Information requests were also received during the reporting period. Of these new requests, seven (7) were completed during the reporting period and four (4) were carried forward to the 2017-2018 reporting year. Therefore, the CRCC processed fourteen (14) Access to Information requests during the 2016-2017 year.

Of those fourteen (14) requests completed during the reporting period, seven (7) were from former complainants to the CRCC, one was from an RCMP member complained about, three (3) were from the media, one was from a special interest group and two (2) were from private sector businesses.

Nine (9) of those fourteen requests completed during the reporting period resulted in partial disclosures, three requests resulted in full disclosure and no records were found to exist for the other two requests.

6. STATISTICAL REPORT

Consistent with recent years, the CRCC processed a significant number of pages (9,962) in responding to Access to Information requests in the 2016-2017 reporting year.

As noted above, the number of Access to Information requests received in 2016-2017 was 11, which is comparable to the number it received the preceding year (12), but less than it received the year before that (16) and significantly less than it received in 2013-14 (23) and 2012-13 (26).

However, the number of pages processed has steadily risen over the last six (6) years:

2016-17	9,962
2015-16	7,570
2014-15	7,063
2013-14	2,972
2012-13	6,622
2011-12	2,552

The CRCC claimed exemptions under paragraph 13(1)(c) (Information obtained in confidence from a provincial government), 13(1)(d) (Information obtained in confidence from a municipal government), sub-paragraph 16(1)(a)(i) (Information obtained or prepared by an investigative body), sub-paragraph 16(1)(a)(ii) (Information obtained or prepared by an investigative body), paragraph 16(1)(c) (Information that could be injurious to the enforcement of any law of Canada or lawful investigations), subsection 16(2) (Information that could facilitate the commission of an offence), section 17 (Information that could threaten the safety of individuals), subsection 19(1) (Personal information), and paragraph 21(1)(a) (Advice or recommendations) of the Act. As the majority of the material requested originated with other departments and external consultation was required, extensions were taken in eleven (11) of the requests completed in the reporting period.

Five (5) requests were not completed within the statutory deadline. The principal reason was the need for external consultation in three (3) cases and CRCC workload in the other two (2).

Finally, in 2016-17, the CRCC received and processed twelve (12) consultations from other Government of Canada institutions. There were no consultations received from other organizations.

See Annex B for the Statistical Report.

7. TRAINING

During the reporting period, CRCC employees were involved in a number of training and educational opportunities relating to access to information and privacy.

One CRCC staff member earned a Certified Information Privacy Manager (CIPM) designation with the International Association of Privacy Professionals.

Two staff members each completed two courses towards the Information Access and Protection of Privacy Program at the University of Alberta.

One staff member attended the Canada Access & Privacy Association 2016 Conference. And another staff member attended a one-day Privacy Conference.

8. SIGNIFICANT CHANGES

The CRCC did not implement any new policies, guidelines or procedures related to Access to Information during the reporting period.

9. MONITORING OF TIMELINESS

The CRCC monitors the time to process Access to Information requests through its case management software. The ATIP Coordinator keeps track of upcoming deadlines for requests and consultations. Reminders of approaching deadlines are provided to senior management at least once a month. The ATIP Coordinator meets regularly with the Senior Director, Operations and Legal Counsel to discuss various issues pertaining to in-progress ATIP files.

10. COMPLAINTS

During the reporting period, there were two complaints filed against the CRCC.

The first complaint arose from an extension taken by the CRCC in order to consult with another government department. The requested records were released within the extended time period. The Office of the Information Commissioner considered the complaint resolved.

A second complaint involved a deemed refusal to disclose records. The request was for a CRCC interim investigative report. The CRCC consulted with the RCMP, from which much of the information in the report originated. The RCMP recommended that the CRCC withhold the report in its entirety. The CRCC disagreed with that recommendation. The CRCC intended to release the requested report to the requester but felt constrained by the investigative process mandated by the Royal Canadian Mounted Police Act (RCMP Act). The RCMP Act clearly sets out that an interim report is to be sent to the Minister of Public Safety and the Commissioner of the RCMP in advance of it being provided to the parties. The Commissioner is statutorily required to provide a Response to the CRCC. The RCMP Act then stipulates that the CRCC must prepare a final report in light of the Commissioner's Response, which is then shared with the parties. While awaiting the RCMP Commissioner's Response, the CRCC communicated with the requester to explain the delay and maintain transparency. Once the Commissioner's Response was received and the CRCC's final report was complete, the requested record was disclosed to the requester in its entirety. The Office of the Information Commissioner had not reported its findings by the end of the reporting period.

Finally, there were no audits or investigations (other than the two complaint investigations discussed above) conducted during the reporting period.
