INTRODUCTION

The Access to Information Act (ATIA) was proclaimed into force on July 1, 1983.

The ATIA gives Canadian citizens, permanent residents, and any person and corporation present in Canada a right of access to information contained within government records, subject to specific and limited exceptions. The ATIA complements but does not replace existing procedures for obtaining government information. It is not intended to limit in any way the access to government information that is normally available to the public upon request.

Section 72 of the ATIA requires that the head of every government institution prepare for submission to Parliament an annual report on the administration of the ATIA within the institution during each financial year.

This thirty-third Annual Report on the Administration of the ATIA is prepared in accordance with section 72 of the Act. It is intended to describe how the Department of Justice administered its responsibilities during fiscal year 2015-2016.

DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE

To better understand the context within which the ATIA is administered, this section provides background information about the Department of Justice.

The Department of Justice has a dual mandate. This mandate stems from the dual role of the Minister of Justice, who is also the Attorney General of Canada.

In support of the Minister of Justice, the Department is responsible for providing policy and program advice and direction through the development of the legal content of bills, regulations, and guidelines. In support to the Attorney General of Canada, the Department is responsible for litigating civil cases by or on behalf of the Federal Crown and for providing legal advice to federal law enforcement agencies and other government departments.

ACCESS TO INFORMATION ACTIVITIES

The Access to Information and Privacy (ATIP) Coordinator is accountable for the development, coordination, and implementation of effective policies, guidelines, systems, and procedures in order to enable efficient processing of requests under the ATIA. The Coordinator is also responsible for related policies, systems, and procedures stemming from the ATIA.

Activities of the ATIP Office include:

- Processing requests under the ATIA;
- Acting as spokesperson for the Department of Justice in dealing with the Treasury Board Secretariat, the Information Commissioner, and other government departments and agencies regarding the application of the ATIA;
- Responding to consultation requests submitted by other federal institutions on Department of Justice documents located in their files, and on records that may be subject to solicitor-client privilege;

- Coordinating, reviewing, approving, and publishing new entries and modifications to Info Source, an annual Government of Canada resource that describes its organization and information holdings;
- Preparing the Annual Report to Parliament and other statutory reports, as well as other materials that may be required by central agencies;
- Developing policies, procedures, and guidelines for the orderly implementation of the ATIA by the Department;
- Providing advice regarding the ATIA, as well as promoting awareness, to ensure departmental respect of the obligations imposed on the government; and
- Monitoring departmental compliance with the ATIA, its regulations and relevant procedures and policies.

ORGANIZATION FOR THE IMPLEMENTATION OF ACCESS TO INFORMATION ACTIVITIES

The ATIP Coordinator, who is also referred to as the ATIP Director, has full authority delegated by the Minister for the administration of the Act. For the purpose of increased executive oversight, full authority is also conferred to the Assistant Deputy Minister and Chief Financial Officer, Management Sector and the Chief Information Officer. The Delegation Order can be found at Appendix A of this report.

Within the ATIP Office, 17 employees were dedicated on a full-time basis to the administration of the ATIA and related functions. The organizational chart of the ATIP Office is as follows:

Officials of the Department were directly involved in the application of the ATIA by making recommendations concerning the disclosure of records and by ensuring compliance with the provisions of the Act.

The stages for processing requests are as follows:

The reading rooms at the Department of Justice headquarters and those located in the regional offices across Canada make available to the public the most recent published version of Info Source, as well as departmental publications and manuals. Many of these publications can be found on the Department of Justice and the Treasury Board Secretariat's websites.

Salary and Administrative Expenditures

A total of 17 person-years were utilized on a full-time basis in the administration of the ATIA. The salary expenditures amounted to $1,291,079.00.

The administrative expenditures amounted to $1,500,234.00, which included professional services contracts.

These costs do not include resources expended by the Department's other sectors to meet the requirements under the ATIA.

Accomplishments

The Department of Justice continues to strive to provide leadership and improve its performance in order to maintain the highest standards of service. For fiscal year 2015-2016, the ATIP Office has accomplished the following:

- To reduce internal processing timelines and paper consumption, when appropriate, the ATIP Office used SharePoint, a Web application platform, for the transfer of information with the Offices of Primary Interest;
- To better serve Canadians, the Department of Justice continued to be part of the Access to Information and Privacy Online Request Pilot Project. Canadians can continue to submit requests under the ATIA through an online channel. This channel also incorporates the Receiver General Buy Button service, enabling requesters to pay the requisite $5.00 application fee for access to information requests, which avoids the need to mail in a personal cheque with their request. The button also allows for substantial economy on the administrative processing of a physical cheque;
- To ensure that the consultation process remains as efficient as possible, the Department developed guidelines for the ATIP community that clarify the ATIP Office's role in requests that have been received by other federal government institutions pursuant to the ATIA. Additionally, the Office has updated and communicated its service standards to assist the community in estimating the turnaround time for consultations with the Department. The timeframes continue to be reviewed periodically to ensure that they remain current;

- Since the majority of consultations with the ATIP Office involves the application of solicitor-client privilege, the Office has continued to provide training to the ATIP community that focuses on the application of solicitor-client privilege;
- The Department of Justice continues to post its annual reports to Parliament to the Department's website as well as the summaries of the completed requests on the Open Government Portal, thereby improving communications with requesters and promoting transparency. This practice is in accordance with the Treasury Board Secretariat's directives and policies and with the 10 principles of practice outlined on the ATIP Office's website for the public;
- Continued to develop internal guidance documents and tools to ensure consistency, and to document best practices and lessons learned. These guidance documents are routinely discussed at regular staff meetings and updated as required;
- Continued to update its internal procedures in order to process ATIA requests more efficiently and to share its best practices with other government institutions; and
- Continued to reduce paper consumption by printing double-sided, as well as providing release packages electronically to requesters when appropriate.

Education and Training

ATIP officers regularly provide advice and informal training on the application of ATIP legislation to departmental employees who must review relevant records requested under the ATIA.

Formal awareness information sessions are also offered to other sectors within the Department. Particular emphasis is placed on those aspects of the Act that are directly related to the employees' areas of responsibility. No sessions were provided this fiscal year.

The Centre for Information and Privacy Law (CIPL) also offered training to 315 departmental employees:

- Cabinet Confidences Training (3 sessions for a total of 71 participants – CIPL Counsel and ATIP Designated Counsels and paralegals)
- Cabinet Confidentiality in Canada (30 participants – Department of Justice Advisory Counsel and others)
- The Access to Information Act and the Legislative Services Branch: Process, Solicitor-Client Privilege and Cabinet Confidences (60 participants – Legislative Services Branch)
- Overview of the Access to Information Act and the Privacy Act (3 sessions for a total of 96 participants)
- Brown Bag Lunch – Cabinet Confidences (35 participants – Public Law Sector)
- Web X SharePoint (4 sessions for a total of 23 participants – ATIP Designated Counsel)

In addition, formal training was offered through the Department of Justice's Learning Program, to an additional 82 employees:

- ATIP Fundamentals – 2015 (2 sessions for a total of 37 participants)
- Fundamentals of Solicitor-Client Privilege in the Government Context (2 sessions for a total of 45 participants)

ATIP training is part of the recommended courses under the values and ethics component of the Department's Roadmap for new Managers. An e-orientation deck is posted on the Department's Intranet site for employee consultation.

The CIPL also provided information sessions outside the Department of Justice, to other government institutions (total of approximately 320 participants):

- 2 Sessions with the Treasury Board Secretariat and the Privy Council Office to the ATIP Community on the Review of the Cabinet Confidences Process (for a total of approximately 250 participants)
- The Application of the Access to Information Act to the External Panel on Options for a Legislative Response to Carter v. Ontario (3 participants – Panel Members)
- To the Public Service Commission (40 participants)
- Solicitor-Client Privilege (20 participants – Transport Canada ATIP Office)
- Access to Information Act (7 participants – Consular Services, Global Affairs Canada Legal Counsel)

ATIP employees regularly participate in collective awareness sessions with ATIP Counsel to review recent jurisprudence and case law related to the ATIA. The ATIP Counsel participates in monthly ATIP Practice Group meetings during which information is exchanged and viable solutions are proposed. The Practice Group is open to all departmental counsel, including those from Legal Services Units, and its mandate is to discuss questions such as the right of access to information or privacy issues.

In addition to mentorship and partnership relationships, workshops and presentations are also regularly provided within the ATIP Office on various topics concerning the application of the ATIA and related policy and procedures. This allows ATIP employees to benefit from each other's respective levels of experience and knowledge.

Finally, ATIP employees participate in training sessions, conferences and seminars organized by the Treasury Board Secretariat or by various associations on matters relating to both access and privacy. These exchanges provide updates for employees in the development of ATIP and upcoming trends in this area.

PART II – REPORT ON THE ACCESS TO INFORMATION ACT

REQUESTS UNDER THE ACCESS TO INFORMATION ACT

Statistical Report

The Annual Statistical Report for Fiscal Year 2015-2016 is included at Part III of this report.

Interpretation of the Statistical Report

Overview of Requests Pursuant to the Access to Information Act

Fiscal Year	# of Requests Received	# of Requests Completed	# of Pages Processed	# of Pages Released
2015-2016	574	550	162,221	78,472
2014-2015	520	551	156,091	60,011
2013-2014	548	528	189,383	46,737

Request Received Pursuant to the Access to Information Act

574 requests were received during the period under review. In addition, 82 requests were carried forward from previous years, for a total of 656 requests. The number of requests received represents an increase of 54 requests from last year's total of 520 requests.

The public was the largest group of requesters. Of 574 requests received during this reporting period, 187 (33%) requests came from the public, followed by 132 (23%) from the media, and 115 (20%) requesters declined to identify the source.

Requests Completed Pursuant to the Access to Information Act

550 requests were completed during the period under review. 106 requests were carried forward to be completed in fiscal year 2016-2017.

Of 550 requests, 95% were completed within the allowable time limits.

There was an increase in the number of pages released from those of the previous year (23%). Responding to formal access to information requests involved the review of 162,221 pages, of which 78,472 pages were partially or entirely disclosed.

Disposition of Completed Requests

Of the 550 requests completed in fiscal year 2015-2016:

- 64 were transferred to other federal institutions that possessed a greater interest in the subject of the request;
- No relevant records existed under the control of the Department of Justice for 143 requests; and
- 51 requests were abandoned by the applicant. In the majority of cases the applicant did not pursue the requests, either by withdrawing them or by not providing the clarification that was requested by the ATIP Office.

The remaining 292 requests were released in the following manner:

- 1 the Department could neither confirm nor deny the existence of information (0%)
- 53 were fully disclosed (18%);
- 213 were partially disclosed (73%);
- 19 were exempted in their entirety (7%); and
- 6 were excluded in their entirety (2%).

Completion Time and Extensions

Out of 550 requests completed in 2015-2016, 412 (75%) were processed within 30 days or less.

The ATIP Office routinely monitors the processing time for access to information requests. This routine monitoring is done through various statistical reports (weekly, monthly, quarterly and yearly) and meetings with ATIP staff to ensure that requests are being processed in a timely manner. All ATIP staff, portfolio contacts, and senior management are made aware of the performance metrics. In some instances, the Department found it necessary to seek extensions to the prescribed time limits due to the large number of records (81 times) and/or to consult with other government institutions (91 times) or third parties (1 time).

Exemptions Invoked

The Department invoked exemptions under the ATIA for 232 requests. Section 21, which exempts information relating to the internal decision-making processes of government was invoked most often (242 times). This is followed by section 23 (143 times), which exempts information relating to solicitor-client privilege and, section 19 (138 times), which exempts personal information. For further details regarding all the exemptions invoked, please refer to the Statistical Report at Part III of this report.

Exclusions Cited

Exclusions were invoked a total of 10 times pursuant to section 68 (published material or material available for purchase by the public) and 79 times pursuant to section 69 (confidences of the Queen's Privy Council for Canada) of the ATIA.

Method of Access

A total of 125 requesters wanted paper copies and 141 requesters chose to receive information on CD-ROM at no extra charge, thereby eliminating the costs for photocopies as well as reducing the ATIP Office's paper footprint.

Fees and Fee Waivers

During the reporting period $2,565.00 was collected in application fees, and fees were waived in 37 instances ($185.00). Search fees were collected in the amount of $1,535.00 and were waived in two instances ($470.00) and an additional $1,533.00 was waived in reproduction fees (66 instances).

The policy of the Department of Justice is to waive the reproduction fees under 200 sheets (double-sided = 400 actual pages in total). However, when more than 200 sheets are released, fees are calculated for the total number of sheets. The Department offers the requesters the possibility of receiving the release package on CD-ROM at no charge, an option which tends to be more widely accepted. During the reporting period, the Department of Justice waived all reproduction fees.

Consultations by other Federal Institutions or Departments

Overview of Consultations Requests Received from Other Government Institutions and Organizations

Fiscal Year	# of Requests Received	# Pages Received	# of Requests Completed	# of Pages Reviewed
2015-2016	530	17,227	538	31,347
2014-2015	587	22,803	613	38,564
2013-2014	919	40,681	1,046	57,145

During the period under review, the Department received 530 requests from other government institutions and organizations requesting recommendations regarding records originating from, pertaining to, or of interest to the Department of Justice. In addition, 63 consultations outstanding from previous years were carried over, for a total of 593. In total the Department was asked to review 34,350 pages for these consultations.

Of the 593 consultations active throughout the reporting period, 538 were completed during the 2015-2016 fiscal year (31,347 pages) and the remaining amount, 55, was carried forward to be completed in fiscal year 2016-2017.

Other types of Requests

Informal Requests

The policy of the ATIP Office is to process requests on an informal basis when records have already been released in response to previous ATIA requests or where the Department has already informally released documents elsewhere. As a result of the online posting of summaries of completed ATIA requests, there was an increase of informal requests for previously released information.

The ATIP Office processed 205 informal requests. This number does not include the numerous emails or telephone calls from potential applicants who were responded to informally or were redirected to other institutions.

Advice

The ATIP Office also acted as a resource on several occasions for departmental officials, as well as those from other government institutions, offering advice and guidance on the provisions of the legislation and related policies. The Office was consulted on the disclosure and collection of information on a wide range of issues.

Complaints, Investigations and Federal Court Cases

Complaints Filed

42 complaints were filed with the Office of the Information Commissioner of Canada (OIC) during the reporting period. The reasons for the complaints were as follows:

- Five (5) related to the extension;
- One (1) related to fees;
- 28 concerned the exemption or exclusion of information; and
- Eight (8) concerned the handling of the request in general.

Completed Investigations

Complaint findings are defined as follows:

Well-founded, resolved: The institution took remedial action to the satisfaction of the OIC during the course of the investigation. The OIC did not need to provide a recommendation to the head of the institution.

Well-founded, resolved with recommendations: If the head of the institution accepted the OIC recommendations and remedial action was taken by the institution to the satisfaction of the OIC, the matter is considered resolved and no further action by the OIC is necessary;

Well founded, not resolved: If the head of the institution did not accept the recommendations of the OIC, or if the remedial action was not to the satisfaction of the OIC, the complainant will be informed that the matter is not resolved and the complainant, or the OIC with the complainant's consent, can pursue the matter in Court where the matter relates to the refusal.

Not well-founded: As a result of the investigation, the OIC found that the institution applied the ATIA correctly.

Settled by agreement of the parties: The complaint was settled to the satisfaction of all parties without the need for the OIC to make a finding.

Discontinued: The complaint was withdrawn or abandoned by the complainant before allegations were fully investigated. In some cases, the complainant did not respond to the OIC's request for representations within a reasonable time period, or cannot be located.

A total of 27 investigations were completed during the reporting period, some of which had been carried forward from previous years. Out of these 27, one (1) complaint was resolved to the satisfaction of the OIC, 16 were well founded, three (3) were not well-founded, and seven (7) were discontinued by the complainant. No key issues were raised as a result of these complaints.

Review by the Federal Court of Canada

One (1) application was filed before the Federal Court pursuant to section 41 of the ATIA during the reporting period.

ANNEX A – DELEGATION ORDER

Access to Information and Privacy Act Delegation Order

Arrêté sur la délégation en vertu de la Loi sur l'accès à l'information et la protection des renseignements personnels

The Minister of Justice of Canada, pursuant to section 73 of the Access to Information Act and the Privacy Act, hereby designates the persons holding the positions set out in the schedule hereto, or the persons occupying on an acting basis those positions, to exercise the powers and functions of the Minister as the head of a government institution, under the section of the Act set out in the schedule opposite each position. This designation replaces the attached designation.

En vertu de l'article 73 de la Loi sur l'accès à l'information et la Loi sur la protection des renseignements personnels, le ministre de la Justice du Canada délègue aux titulaires des postes mentionnés à l'annexe ci-après, ainsi qu'aux personnes occupant à titre intérimaire lesdits postes, les attributions dont il est, en qualité de responsable d'une institution fédérale, investi par les articles de la Loi mentionnés en regard de chaque poste. Le présent document remplace et annule le document ci-joint.
