Travel between Canada and other countries

May 2009

Overseas travel both to and from Canada decreased in May compared with April.

Travel from overseas countries declined 7.8% from April as 342,000 trips were taken to Canada. In May, 11 of the top 12 overseas markets recorded decreases, with Japan (-34.6%) recording the largest decline.

Canadians made 633,000 trips to overseas countries in May, down 9.8% from April. This was the largest monthly percentage decline since April 2003, when concerns regarding Severe Acute Respiratory Syndrome (SARS) began.

Travel from the United States to Canada decreased 1.1% in May compared with April to about 1.9 million trips. American residents took just over 1.0 million overnight trips to Canada in May, down 2.0%. Overnight travel by plane (-5.2%) registered the largest decline.

Same-day car travel from the United States decreased 1.3% from April to 746,000 trips in May, a continuation of a downward trend that started in July 2001.

In the opposite direction, Canadian residents took nearly 3.3 million trips to the United States in May, up 1.2% from April.

Same-day car travel to the United States rose 2.6% to over 1.7 million trips in May. At the same time, overnight travel to the United States was down 0.4% from April to 1.5 million trips.

The number of overnight car trips by Canadian residents to the United States in May was up 0.6% compared with April while overnight plane travel was down 3.7%.

^r revised

1. Percentage change is based on unrounded data.

2. Totals exceed the sum of "same-day car trips" and "total trips, one or more nights" because they include all of the same-day trips.

3. Estimates for the United States include counts of cars and buses, and estimated numbers for planes, trains, boats and other methods.

4. Figures for other countries exclude same-day entries by land only, via the United States.

5. Includes same-day and overnight trips.

Construction Union Wage Rate Index

June 2009

The Construction Union Wage Rate Index (including supplements) for Canada was unchanged in June compared with the May level of 107.1 (2007=100). The composite index increased 2.4% compared with June 2008.

Note: Union wage rates are published for 16 trades in 22 metropolitan areas for both the basic rates and rates including selected supplementary payments.

Indexes on a 2007=100 time base are calculated for the same metropolitan areas and are published for those where a majority of trades are covered by current collective agreements.

Available on CANSIM: tables 327-0003 and 327-0045.

Definitions, data sources and methods: survey number 2307.

The first quarter 2009 issue of Capital Expenditure Price Statistics (62-007-X, free) will be available soon.
