Canada's balance of international payments, first quarter 2008 2
The current account surplus with the rest of the world (in seasonally adjusted basis) increased sharply to $5.3 billion in the first quarter of 2008, led by higher prices for several important commodities combined with a lower trade deficit. In the financial account, foreign direct investment flows into Canada gained significantly from the acquisition of new jobs of the previous quarter, while Canadian direct investment abroad continued to strengthen.
