Perspectives on Labour and Income

January 2012 online edition

The January 2012 online edition of Perspectives on Labour and Income, released today, features one article.

"Seniors returning to Canada" uses census data to address several questions related to Canadian residents who previously emigrated to other countries: Do seniors account for a large proportion of returned emigrants? From where do older emigrants return? Do the characteristics of older returned emigrants differ from those of older Canadians who did not live abroad? Do the amounts and sources of income received in old age differ between these groups? How do all these results differ for Canadian-born versus immigrant returnees?

The January 2012 online edition of Perspectives on Labour and Income, Vol. 24, no. 1 (75-001-X, free), is now available from the Key resource module of our website under Publications.

For more information, contact Ted Wannell (613-951-3546; ted.wannell@statcan.gc.ca), Labour Statistics Division.
