

Population Projections, IMMIGRATION and DIVERSITY, Canada and regions – 2011 to 2036

- ¹ The variability in 2036 is explained by the range of outcomes from the different projection scenarios developed.
- ² Children of immigrants correspond to the non-immigrant population with at least one parent born abroad.

Together, IMMIGRANTS and their CANADIAN-BORN CHILDREN² could represent

This proportion was 38% in 2011.

In 2036

CANADA

ETHNOCULTURAL composition of the population in 2036

Montréal

50% to 56%

of the population would be immigrants or the children of immigrants in 2036.

28% to 34%

of the population would have a mother tongue other than English or French in 2036.

15% to 19%

of the population would have a non-Christian religion in 2036.

38% to 42%

of the population aged 15 to 64 would belong to a visible minority group in 2036.

Toronto

77% to 81%

of the population would be immigrants or the children of immigrants in 2036.

48% to 53%

of the population would have a mother tongue other than English or French in 2036.

28% to 32%

of the population would have a non-Christian religion in 2036.

66% to 70%

of the population aged 15 to 64 would belong to a visible minority group in 2036.

Vancouver

69% to 74%

of the population would be immigrants or the children of immigrants in 2036.

48% to 53%

of the population would have a mother tongue other than English or French in 2036.

20% to 24%

of the population would have a non-Christian religion in 2036.

62% to 66%

of the population aged 15 to 64 would belong to a visible minority group in 2036.

Source: Statistics Canada, 2017, Immigration and Diversity: Population Projections for Canada and its Regions, 2011 to 2036, Statistics Canada Catalogue no. 91-551.

Statistics
Canada Statistique
Canada

www.statcan.gc.ca

Canada