MANUFACTURING INDUSTRIES OF THE PROVINCE OF BRITISH COLUMBIA, 1940.

Manufacturing production in British Columbia was greatly accelerated in 1940 by the demands created by the present war. Compared with the previous year there were increases of 17 per cent in the number of persons employed, 23.8 per cent in the salaries and wages paid, and 25.4 per cent in the gross value of production. Of the increase in the gross value of production amounting to $63,097,878, 47 per cent was contributed by the wood and paper products group, 19 per cent by the iron and its products group, 10 per cent by animal products, 8 per cent by non-ferrous metal products and the balance by the other groups, in the order named: vegetable products, non-metallic mineral products, chemicals, textiles and miscellaneous industries.

In 1940 reports were received from 1,879 establishments operating in British Columbia. The combined output of these establishments was valued at $311,046,478. Employment was furnished to 49,768 persons who were paid $66,727,184 in salaries and wages. The cost of materials used was $170,357,991, while the value added by manufacture amounted to $130,206,263.

Table 4 compares the principal statistics of the industrial groups for the years 1939 and 1940. From the standpoint of value of production, the wood and paper products group, with an output valued at $125,811,885 led all others by a wide margin in both years. The animal products group ranked second with a value of production of $45,179,484, being followed by vegetable products with $41,455,736, non-ferrous metal products $32,217,400, iron and its products $29,554,837, non-metallic mineral products $16,683,065, etc.

British Columbia was in 1940 again the third most important manufacturing province in the Dominion with a gross value of production of $311,046,478. About 22 per cent of this production, viz., $69,639,670, was contributed by the sawmilling industry. The predominance of forest products industries in the industrial life of the Province is still further emphasized if to this figure be added $24,987,516, the value of production of the pulp and paper industry which ranks second. Third in importance among the industries of the Province is that of fish curing and packing, with a gross value of production of $21,863,422. This was followed by slaughtering and meat packing with $12,979,725, petroleum products $11,627,173, shipbuilding and repairs $9,943,941, etc. Statistics of the leading industries are given in Table 5, while the statistics of the individual industries are given in Table 6.

The principal statistics of all cities, towns and villages with three or more establishments are given in Table 7. The City of Vancouver with a production of $120,981,388 leads by a very wide margin, accounting for 39 per cent of the total for the Province. Other principal cities, with the value of production, are: New Westminster with $18,879,050, Victoria $11,840,030, North Vancouver $8,981,283, Port Alberni $5,219,905, and Prince Rupert $4,488,605. Trail is also an important manufacturing centre, statistics, however, cannot be published.

Principal Statistics of the industries located in Vancouver are given in Table 8, while statistics of capital invested, power equipment and fuel consumption are given in Tables 9 to 11.

- (1) The large decrease in number of employees since 1931 is not entirely due to the decline in manufacturing production. The decrease is in part due to the change in method of computing the average annual employment of wage-earners.
- (2) In 1935 a change was made in the method of calculating the "net value of production" in the non-ferrous metal smelting and refining industry, therefore the figures for this item, in that and following years, are less than they would have been by the old method.
- (3) Gross value of production less cost of materials, fuel and electricity.
