REVENUE CAR LOADINGS
FOR
WEEK ENDING JANUARY 15th, 1927

Car loadings during the week ended January 15 showed a seasonal increase over the previous week's loadings of 1,656 cars. Grain loading fell off, especially in the western division, but lumber, pulpwood, pulp and paper and other forest products all showed heavier loading. Merchandise was slightly lighter, but miscellaneous freight increased by 859 cars.

Compared with the second week in 1926, the increase was 2,399 cars, merchandise accounting for 564 cars of the increase and grain 1,537 cars. The cumulative totals are for two full weeks in 1927 and two full weeks and an estimate of one fifth of the week ended January 2 in 1926. The effect of the extra day's loadings in 1926 totals will diminish as the totals increase.
