FOREWORD

The statistics presented in this brochure of Canada's trade with British East, South and West Africa, as also the trade of the principal units of British East and West Africa, Rhodesia (North and South) and Union of South Africa, were compiled specially for the use of the Imperial Economic Conference, 1932. The brochure is divided into two parts: the first part presents the trade of Canada in rather complete detail with British East, South and West Africa, while the second part presents, also in rather complete detail, the trade of each principal unit of the British East and West African Colonies, Rhodesia (North and South) and the Union of South Africa with Empire and foreign countries as well as with the principal countries with which these various units of the Empire have exchange of commodities. The trade of these British countries has expanded so rapidly under normal conditions in the past few years, both in volume and in value, that they offer undoubted potentialities for trade expansion in the future, and necessarily merit careful consideration.

PART I.—TRADE OF CANADA WITH BRITISH EAST, SOUTH AND WEST AFRICA.

Table I presents the total trade of Canada, both import and export, with British East, South and West Africa, from 1912 to 1932, as also the total trade of the United States with these British countries, for the calendar years 1911 to 1931. The statistics in this table indicate that Canada's trade with these British African countries is small in comparison with that of the United States, Canada's keenest competitor in these markets, but when the trading possibilities of the two countries are contrasted it will be found that Canada has made as great, if not greater, proportionate progress than the United States in expanding her trade in these markets.

The total trade of Canada with British East, South and West Africa for the year ended March 31, 1932, amounted to $15,257,549 compared with a similar trade in 1921 of $15,823,196, while that of the United States for the corresponding periods was: calendar year 1931, $54,107,952, and 1920, $124,982,530. Canada's imports from these Empire countries in 1932 were valued at $6,083,185, compared with $262,782 in 1921; and exports to, in 1932 at $9,174,364, compared with $15,560,414 in 1921; whereas in the calendar year 1931 the United States imports from these British countries were valued at $18,290,301, compared with $44,143,235 in 1920, and exports to, in 1931 at $35,817,651, compared with $80,839,295 in 1920. From 1921 to 1932 Canada's total trade with British East, South and West Africa decreased $565,647, while that of the United States for the same period decreased $70,874,578. During this same interval Canada's imports from these British countries increased $5,820,403 (from British East Africa the increase was $1,425,073, British South Africa $4,176,371, and British West Africa $218,959); while the United States imports show a decrease of $25,852,934 (from British East Africa the decrease was $4,314,393, from British South Africa, $16,127,267, and British West Africa $4,411,274); whereas Canada's exports to these British countries from 1921 to 1932 show a decrease of $6,386,050 (to British East Africa the increase was $131,288, but to British South Africa the decrease was $6,250,732, and to British West Africa $266,606); while the United States exports to the same British countries during the same interval decreased $45,021,644 (to British East Africa the decrease was $607,450, to British South Africa $32,333,644, and to British West Africa $12,080,550).

Table II sets forth Canada's total trade with British East, South and West Africa, as also principal commodities imported from and exported to these British countries for the year 1914 (year prior to the war), 1922, (year following post-bellum boom), 1931 and 1932. From 1914 to 1932 Canada's total trade with British East Africa increased from $73,078 to $1,808,726 (imports from $15,975 to $1,436,338 and domestic exports from $57,103 to $372,388); the total trade with British South Africa increased from $4,309,093 to $12,724,665 during the same period (imports from $477,823 to $4,323,169, and domestic exports from $3,831,270 to $8,401,496); and from 1914 to 1932 Canada's total trade with British West Africa increased from $68,129 to $723,740 (imports from $29,118 to $323,678, and domestic exports from $39,011 to $400,062).

It will be noted also by reference to Table II that Canada's principal imports in 1932 from British East Africa were: Sugar ($1,225,420); raw coffee ($177,757); spices ($145,940); and sisal and manila fibre ($8,843); while Canada's principal domestic exports were: Automobiles ($186,093); rubber manufactures ($118,385); automobile parts ($33,940); electrical apparatus ($5,672); canned fish ($5,650); farm implements ($3,992); pipes and tubing ($3,120); and wheat flour ($2,975).

In 1932 Canada's chief imports from British South Africa were: Sugar ($2,367,855); corn ($1,632,368); raw wool ($73,027); canned pineapples ($15,636); diamond dust or bort ($14,904); diamonds, unset ($14,362); raisins ($9,547); and raw hides and skins ($4,163); while her chief domestic exports to British South Africa were: wheat ($2,607,613); paper, largely newsprint and wrapping ($1,177,481); automobiles ($1,032,407); rubber manufactures, chiefly tires and footwear ($947,166); farm implements ($413,552); electrical apparatus ($390,895); socks and stockings ($266,173); rails of iron and steel ($231,345); automobile parts ($149,524); canned fish ($147,585); pipes and tubing ($121,162); planks and boards ($117,393); confectionery ($71,754); binder twine ($66,545); cottons ($47,878); artificial silk ($44,877); machinery ($43,164); wheat flour ($36,048); insulators, porcelain ($35,848); fruits ($33,326); coal ($17,706); and milk, condensed ($11,560).

Canada's imports from British West Africa in 1932 consisted largely of: Manganese oxide ($175,269); raw cocoa ($141,831); and spices ($6,063); while the Dominion's chief exports to British West Africa in 1932 were: automobiles ($170,116); wheat flour ($128,573); automobile parts ($54,349); rubber manufactures ($17,868); coal ($7,266); canned fish ($7,250); planks and boards ($5,621); and paper ($2,390).

The statistics in Table III give a more complete analysis of Canada's trade with British East Africa, 1923 to 1932, detailing (1) Imports from, and (2) Exports to; Table IV, similar information respecting Canada's trade with British South Africa, segregating (1) Imports from, and (2) Exports to; and Table V, the Dominion's trade with British West Africa, distinguishing (1) Imports from, and (2) Exports to.

During the year 1931, the latest year for which statistics are compiled, Canada's imports from and exports to British East, South and West Africa, according to degree of manufacture, were:

PART II.—TRADE OF BRITISH EAST AND WEST AFRICA, RHODESIA (NORTH AND SOUTH) AND UNION OF SOUTH AFRICA

In Part II of this brochure the imports and exports for each principal unit of the British East and West African Colonies, Rhodesia (North and South) and the Union of South Africa are presented in rather complete detail for the latest year for which statistics are available, as also the total imports and exports for the past ten years, indicating in each case the amount of the imports and exports for (a) All countries; (b) Empire and foreign countries; and (c) principal countries. The statistics in this part of the brochure present the extent of the imports and exports of these various units of the Empire, as also the classes of commodities imported and exported.

It will be observed by reference to the following table showing the Trade of British East and West Africa, Rhodesia (North and South) and Union of South Africa, year 1930 compared with 1921, that the total trade of these British countries with other portions of the Empire, from 1921 to 1930, decreased from $738,270,090 to $719,399,029; imports from Empire countries increasing from $338,279,302 to $345,545,750; and exports to decreasing from $399,990,788 to $373,853,279. During the same period imports from Canada increased from $9,600,557 to $13,591,285, and exports to, from $16,079 to $5,573,901; imports from the United Kingdom decreased from $274,911,498 to $269,346,860, and exports to decreased from $336,451,530 to $319,763,950; whereas imports from the United States increased from $60,799,356 to $70,978,735, while exports to the United States increased from $15,632,181 to $26,479,759. The imports, however, from all countries from 1921 to 1930 increased from $460,066,703 to $556,576,909, and exports from $469,048,404 to $530,081,105. Further, it will be noted that in 1921 Canada furnished these British countries with 2.1 per cent of their total imports, and in 1930 with 2.4 per cent; that the United Kingdom in 1921 furnished these British countries with 59.7 per cent of their total imports, and in 1930 with 48.4 per cent; while in 1921 the imports from the United States made up 13.2 per cent of their total imports, and in 1930 12.8 per cent. With reference to the export trade: In 1921 Canada took .003 per cent of their total exports, and in 1930, 1.1 per cent; the United Kingdom in 1921 took 71.7 per cent compared with 69.3 per cent in 1930; while the United States in 1921 took 3.3 per cent of the total exports, and in 1930, 5.0 per cent.
