INTRODUCTION

This report gives final figures for persons included in the labour force during the week prior to enumeration, classified by sex, showing industry divisions, as reported at the June 1, 1971 Census. In Table 3A, figures are shown for Canada and the provinces by urban size groups, rural non-farm, and rural farm (place of residence). Final figures are given for census divisions in Table 3B (place of residence) and Table 4 (place of work).

The data for census divisions are presented from two points of view. In Table 3B, the industries of the labour force resident in the census division are given. In Table 4, data derived by using the respondent's report of his or her place of work are presented to show the industrial distribution of the labour force working in the census divisions whether or not they were living within the area. These figures will differ from those based on residence for the following reasons:

- (a) some persons resident in the census division may work outside the division;
- (b) some persons resident outside the census division may work inside the division;
- (c) persons not stating their census division of work are excluded from the place of work data;
- (d) the place of work reported by the unemployed portion of the labour force relates to their job of longest duration since January 1, 1970 and may not correspond with their usual place of residence on June 1, 1971.

In the 1971 Census, labour force refers to non-inmates 15 years and over, who, in the week prior to enumeration, worked for pay or profit, helped without pay in a family business or farm, looked for work, were on temporary lay-off, or had jobs from which they were temporarily absent because of illness, vacation, strike, etc. Persons doing housework in their own home or volunteer work only, are excluded from the labour force. Also excluded are female farm workers who indicated that they helped without pay in a family farm or business for less than 20 hours. It should be noted that there are indications that the labour force counts for Quebec may be somewhat underestimated due to response problems. Further information regarding the labour force counts is available in the Population and Housing Research Memorandum (PH-EC-4) "Background Information on the 1971 Census Labour Force Data". This paper can be obtained on request from the Census User Inquiry Service.

The information in this report was collected on a 33 1/3% sample basis. Information on the sample and the weighting system can be found in the introductory report to this volume (see Catalogue No. 94-738).

The 1971 Census figures in this report have been subjected to a confidentiality procedure to prevent the possibility of associating small figures with any identifiable individual. The particular technique used is known as "random rounding". Under this method, all last or "unit" digits in a table (including all totals) are randomly rounded (either up or down) to "0" or "5". This technique provides the strongest possible protection against direct, residual, or negative disclosures without adding any significant error to the census data. However, since totals are independently rounded they do not necessarily equal the sum of individual rounded figures in distributions. Also, minor differences can be expected for corresponding totals and cell values in various census reports.

Ce bulletin présente les chiffres définitifs du recensement du 1er juin 1971 en ce qui concerne les personnes faisant partie de la population active pendant la semaine précédant le dénombrement, selon le sexe et par division d'activité économique. Au tableau 3A, les chiffres sont donnés pour le Canada et les provinces, pour les régions urbaines par groupe de taille et les régions rurales non agricoles et rurales agricoles (lieu de résidence). Les chiffres définitifs sont indiqués pour les divisions de recensement au tableau 3B (lieu de résidence) et au tableau 4 (lieu de travail).

Les données pour les divisions de recensement sont présentées de deux points de vue. Le tableau 3B porte sur l'activité économique de la population active de la division de recensement. Au tableau 4, les données sont établies d'après le lieu de travail du recensé, ce qui indique la répartition par activité économique de la population active de la division de recensement, que les intéressés demeurent ou non dans le secteur. Ces chiffres différeront de ceux fondés sur la résidence pour les raisons suivantes:

- a) certains résidents de la division de recensement peuvent travailler en dehors de la division;
- b) certaines personnes résidant en dehors de la division de recensement peuvent travailler dans la division;
- c) les personnes qui n'ont pas indiqué la division de recensement où elles travaillaient sont exclues des données sur le lieu de travail;
- d) le lieu de travail indiqué par les chômeurs a trait à leur emploi de plus longue durée depuis le 1er janvier 1970 et peut ne pas correspondre à leur lieu de résidence habituelle le 1er juin 1971.

Au recensement de 1971, la population active comprend les non-pensionnaires d'institution de 15 ans et plus qui, au cours de la semaine précédant le dénombrement, ont travaillé contre rémunération ou en vue d'un bénéfice ou sans rémunération dans une entreprise ou une ferme familiale, ont cherché du travail, étaient en congédiement temporaire ou avaient un emploi dont ils étaient temporairement absents à cause d'une maladie, de vacances, d'une grève, etc. Les personnes faisant seulement des travaux ménagers chez elles ou du travail bénévole sont exclues de la population active. Sont également exclues les travailleuses agricoles qui ont indiqué avoir travaillé moins de 20 heures sans rémunération dans une ferme ou une entreprise familiale. Il est à noter que, suivant certaines indications, la population active du Québec est peut-être quelque peu sous-estimée, en raison de certaines difficultés d'interprétation. On trouvera de plus amples renseignements concernant les chiffres de la population active dans une Note de recherche sur la population et le logement (PH-EC-4) intitulée "Étude des données du recensement de 1971 sur la population active". Cette note de recherche peut être obtenue sur demande au Service-utilisateurs du recensement.

Les renseignements de la présente publication ont été recueillis sur un échantillon de 33 1/3 %. On trouvera des renseignements sur l'échantillon et le système de pondération dans l'introduction de ce volume (voir la publication no 94-738 au catalogue).

Par souci de confidentialité, les chiffres du recensement de 1971 publiés ici ont été soumis à une formule qui interdit la possibilité d'associer des chiffres de faible importance à une personne reconnaissable. Cette technique particulière s'appelle l'"arrondissement aléatoire". Grâce à cette méthode, tous les derniers chiffres, c'est-à-dire les chiffres des unités (y compris tous les totaux) des tableaux sont arrondis de façon aléatoire (vers le haut ou vers le bas) à "0" ou à "5". Cette technique assure la protection maximale contre la divulgation directe, négative ou par recoupements, sans ajouter d'erreur significative aux données. Toutefois, puisque les totaux sont arrondis séparément, ils ne sont pas nécessairement égaux à la somme des chiffres individuels arrondis dans les distributions. De plus, il faut s'attendre que les totaux et les autres chiffres correspondants dans divers bulletins du recensement présentent quelques légères différences.

For persons with more than one job during the week prior to enumeration, the place of work was to be reported for the job at which they worked the most hours.

Place of residence: The place where a person usually lived. Persons with no usual place of residence on June 1, 1971 were enumerated where found.

Industry: The industry classes are based on the general nature of the business carried out in the establishment where the respondent was employed as indicated by the reporting of the name of the employer (or by the business name if self-employed) and the kind of business, industry or service engaged in by this establishment. If not employed in the week prior to enumeration, the information was to relate to the respondent's job of longest duration since January 1, 1970. Persons with two or more jobs were to report the information for the job at which they worked the most hours.

Industry is not to be confused with occupation, which refers to the kind of work the person was doing, as determined by the reporting of the kind of work, the description of the most important duties and the job title.

Industrial classification: Statistics Canada's Standard Industrial Classification Manual¹ was used as the basis for classifying information obtained by the industry inquiry. In the population census, a special class 005 was used for "Farms". Class 715 (Canadian Offices of Canadian-incorporated Companies Classified as Non-Canadian) was combined with class 707 (Investment and Holding Companies). Class 999 (Canadian-incorporated Companies Classified as Non-Canadian) was not used. The introduction to the Standard Industrial Classification Manual explains the nature and basis of the classification and gives other information on the classification system.

It should be noted that in this classification system, Government-owned and operated establishments primarily engaged in activities assigned to other industries, such as transportation, communication including post office, liquor sales, health and educational services, were classified to those industries rather than to Public Administration. The "Public Administration and Defence" Division covers establishments primarily engaged in activities that are basically governmental in character, such as the enactment of legislation, the administration of justice, the collection of revenue and defence.

The categorization into the three-digit Standard Industrial Classification classes in the census was performed through the use of a pre-coded list of establishments, where possible, to ensure uniformity with the classification of establishments by other Statistics Canada surveys.

Comparability with earlier censuses: Due mainly to differences in definition and revision of the industrial classification, certain of the figures published in this report are not directly comparable to the industry statistics of earlier censuses. The Census Field, Statistics Canada, should be consulted when making comparisons.

Definitions of geographic terms used in this report are discussed in the introductory report to this volume (Catalogue No. 94-738).

The estimates of the mean square error for the characteristics covered in this report were not available at the time of publication. They will be available in the introductory report to this volume (Catalogue No. 94-738). Those users requiring this information prior to the release of the introductory report should contact the Census User Inquiry Service.

DÉFINITIONS

Lieu de travail: Lieu où le recensé travaille ordinairement dans l'emploi indiqué. L'emploi indiqué est celui que le recensé occupait dans la semaine précédant le dénombrement ou, s'il n'avait pas d'emploi au cours de cette semaine, l'emploi de plus longue durée depuis le 1er janvier 1970. Pour les personnes ayant occupé plus d'un emploi au cours de la semaine précédant le dénombrement, le lieu de travail se rapporte à l'emploi auquel elles ont consacré le plus grand nombre d'heures.

Lieu de résidence: Endroit où le recensé vit normalement. Les personnes sans lieu de résidence habituelle au 1er juin 1971 ont été recensées à l'endroit où elles se trouvaient.

Activité économique: Les classes d'activité économique sont fondées sur la nature générale de l'établissement employant le recensé, déterminée par le nom de l'employeur (ou par le nom de l'entreprise s'il travaille à son compte) et par le genre de commerce, d'industrie ou de service dont s'occupe l'établissement. Si le recensé n'avait pas d'emploi au cours de la semaine précédant le dénombrement, les renseignements devaient porter sur son emploi de plus longue durée depuis le 1er janvier 1970. Les personnes ayant deux emplois ou plus devaient fournir des renseignements pour celui auquel elles avaient consacré le plus grand nombre d'heures de travail.

Il ne faut pas confondre activité économique et profession. La profession est le genre de travail que faisait le recensé, déterminé par l'indication du genre de travail, la description des fonctions principales et le titre de l'emploi.

Classification des activités économiques: La "Classification des activités économiques"¹ de Statistique Canada a servi de base au classement de renseignements obtenus en réponse à la question relative à l'activité économique. Pour le recensement de la population, on a utilisé une classe spéciale 005 pour les "fermes"; en outre, la classe 715 (Bureaux canadiens de sociétés constituées au Canada considérées comme non canadiennes) a été réunie avec la classe 707 (Sociétés d'investissement et sociétés à portefeuille). La classe 999 (Sociétés constituées au Canada considérées comme non canadiennes) n'a pas été utilisée. L'introduction de la "Classification des activités économiques" explique la nature et la base de la classification et donne d'autres renseignements pertinents.

À remarquer que dans cette classification, les établissements appartenant à des administrations publiques et exploités par elles, mais dont l'activité principale ressortit à d'autres activités économiques telles que les transports, les communications (y compris les postes), la vente d'alcools et les services de santé et d'enseignement ont été classés dans ces activités économiques plutôt qu'à l'administration publique. La division "Administration publique et défense" comprend les établissements dont les activités ont un caractère essentiellement gouvernemental, comme la législation, l'administration de la justice, la perception des impôts et la défense.

Pour assurer l'uniformité de classification des établissements avec les autres enquêtes de Statistique Canada, on s'est servi, dans les cas où c'était possible, d'une liste d'établissements précodée pour le classement à trois chiffres suivant la Classification des activités économiques.

Comparabilité avec les recensements antérieurs: À cause surtout des différences de définition et de la nouvelle Classification des activités économiques, certains chiffres du présent bulletin ne sont pas rigoureusement comparables avec ceux des recensements antérieurs. Il y aurait lieu de consulter le Secteur du recensement, Statistique Canada, avant de se livrer à des comparaisons.

Les définitions des termes géographiques utilisés dans ce bulletin sont données dans l'introduction de ce volume (n° 94-738 au catalogue).

Les estimations de l'erreur quadratique moyenne des caractéristiques données dans ce bulletin n'étaient pas connues au moment de la publication. Elles seront disponibles dans l'introduction de ce volume (n° 94-738 au catalogue). Les utilisateurs désireux de connaître ce renseignement avant la publication du bulletin d'introduction devront s'adresser au Service-utilisateurs du recensement.
