BULLETIN XII. FIFTH CENSUS OF CANADA

RELIGIONS OF CANADA FOR THE YEAR 1911 AS ENUMERATED
UNDER DATE OF FIRST JUNE.

PUBLISHED BY AUTHORITY OF HONOURABLE GEORGE E. FOSTER, MINISTER OF TRADE AND COMMERCE.
ARCHIBALD BLUE, CHIEF OFFICER OF THE CENSUS AND STATISTICS OFFICE, OTTAWA.
JANUARY 27, 1913.

A correction for the city of Quebec and reports received from posts of the Hudson's Bay Company in the interior of the Northwest Territories since the publication of Volume I make the total population of Canada 7,206,643 instead of 7,204,838. The Province of Quebec should read 2,003,232 instead of 2,002,712, and the Northwest Territories 18,481 instead of 17,196. The religions of the people as given in this Bulletin are for the corrected population of 7,206,643. The specified religions are 79 in number in 1911 for a population of 7,173,513 as compared with 57 in 1901 for a population of 5,327,224. The number of persons without specified religion in 1911 was 32,490 as compared with 43,222 in 1901—counting in each case those who are specified as of "no religion."

The population of the Provinces by religions is given in Table I, together with a comparative statement for the whole of Canada in 1901 and 1911. Table II gives the relative proportion expressed in percentages of each denomination to the total population in the censuses of 1881 to 1911. Table III gives for Canada the proportion of the net increase in population which each denomination gained in the last decade. Table IV shows the net increase of population in the four original provinces, and Table V the net increase for the four western Provinces in the last decade as divided among the principal denominations. Prince Edward Island, Yukon and the Northwest Territories are not shown in the two last named tables, as they made no increase in population. Table VI gives the principal religions by Provinces for the census years 1911, 1901 and 1891. Table VII is a summary for Canada of all religions in 1911 compared with 1901, together with the increase and increase per cent for the decade.

NOTE <sup>1</sup>—Minus sign (-) denotes a decrease.

NOTE <sup>2</sup>—The terms Christian, Christian Church and Disciple in Tables I and VII are often used to designate the same religious body with minor distinctions, especially in the United States where the body had its origin. They are local terms, and may not have the same application in all parts of Canada. We have followed the classification given by the enumerators.
