MESSAGE FROM THE CHAIR

On behalf of the Veterans Review and Appeal Board, I am pleased to present the 2016-17 annual report to Parliament on the administration of the Access to Information Act.

This legislation gives Canadian citizens the right to access information in records held by the Government of Canada. It exists to protect the rights of individuals and to promote accountability and dialogue between citizens and their government. In 2016-17, the Board continued to receive and process requests under the Access to Information Act for individuals exercising their rights under this legislation.

This year, our Access to Information and Privacy (ATIP) Unit received fewer access and privacy requests compared to the previous year. Our goal in processing these requests is to provide accurate, complete and timely responses to Canadians in accordance with the law.

In 2016-17, the ATIP Unit continued to provide leadership on privacy matters at the Board by assessing the impacts of new ideas and initiatives. For example, the unit completed four Preliminary Privacy Impact Assessments to ensure projects met basic privacy requirements. The Board continued to post summaries of its completed Access to Information requests on the Open Government Portal, to support transparency, accountability and citizen engagement.

We continued to build and promote a privacy culture at the Board through operational improvements, training and communications. This included reminding employees how to safely dispose of protected information, and putting a spotlight on the appropriate use and protection of Veterans' personal information during our third annual Privacy Month in May. I continue to be pleased with the excellent work of our pre-hearing unit to prevent privacy breaches by identifying service documents misfiled by other organizations: for the second year in a row, no material privacy breaches occurred at the Board.

In 2016-17, the Board continued to provide applicants with an independent avenue of redress for their disability pension, disability award and War Veterans Allowance decisions. In fulfilling this mandate, we are committed to protecting individual rights by upholding the legislation and developing our capacity in matters of access to information and privacy.

THE VETERANS REVIEW AND APPEAL BOARD

OUR OBJECTIVE

The Veterans Review and Appeal Board (VRAB, the Board) is an independent, administrative tribunal created in 1995. The Board provides an appeal program for service-related disability decisions made by Veterans Affairs Canada (VAC, the Department). This program gives applicants two levels of redress for disability benefits decisions and the final level of appeal for War Veterans Allowance claims.

The Board's objective is to ensure that Canada's traditional Veterans, Canadian Armed Forces members and Veterans, Royal Canadian Mounted Police applicants, qualified civilians and their families receive the disability pensions, disability awards and other benefits to which they are entitled under the law.

HOW WE WORK

The Board operates at arm's-length from the Department to ensure a fair appeal process for applicants. Our work is governed by the Veterans Review and Appeal Board Act and delivered by up to 25 permanent Members appointed by the Governor in Council and approximately 75 staff in 2016-17. Our daily work involves conducting hearings in locations across Canada and issuing written decisions for applicants based on evidence and according to the legislation governing disability benefits.

OUR HEARING PROGRAM

The Board provides applicants with two levels of redress: a review hearing and a subsequent appeal hearing if they remain dissatisfied. Our hearings are non-adversarial, which means no one argues against the Veteran. Applicants have access to free case preparation and representation at their hearing by the Bureau of Pensions Advocates (a unique organization of lawyers within VAC) or by Service Officers from Veterans' organizations. As independent adjudicators, Board Members are not bound by previous decisions and have authority to change them to benefit applicants if there is credible evidence.

The review hearing is the first and only opportunity in the disability adjudication process for applicants to appear before the decision makers and tell their story (provide testimony). We hold review hearings in locations across Canada and by video conference, where applicants give oral testimony, bring forward witnesses and new information, and present arguments in support of their case. If applicants are not satisfied with their review decision they can request an appeal hearing. While the legislation does not permit oral testimony at the appeal level, the hearing is a further opportunity for applicants, through their representative, to submit new information and arguments. Appeal hearings are usually held at the Board's Head Office in Charlottetown, Prince Edward Island.

OUR COMMITMENT

The Board is committed to upholding the principles of the Access to Information Act while providing applicants with a fair and timely appeal process for disability benefits decisions.

INTRODUCTION

The Access to Information Act gives Canadian citizens and individuals present in Canada a broad right of access to information contained in government records under control of the institution, subject to certain specific and limited exceptions. It maintains that government information should be available to the public and should complement and not replace existing procedures for access to government information.

Section 72 of the Access to Information Act requires that the head of every government institution prepare an Annual Report on the administration of the Act for submission to Parliament during each fiscal year.

MANDATE

The Veterans Review and Appeal Board has full and exclusive jurisdiction to hear, determine and deal with all applications for review and appeal that may be made to the Board under the Pension Act, the Canadian Forces Members and Veterans Re-establishment and Compensation Act - Part 3, the War Veterans Allowance Act and other Acts of Parliament. All matters related to appeals under this legislation are authorized under the Veterans Review and Appeal Board Act.

This Board also adjudicates duty related pension applications under the authority of the Royal Canadian Mounted Police Pension Continuation Act and the Royal Canadian Mounted Police Superannuation Act.

FULFILLING ITS RESPONSIBILITIES UNDER THE ACCESS TO INFORMATION ACT

The Access to Information and Privacy (ATIP) office is under the Director, Strategic and Corporate Services, who acts on behalf of the Chairperson of the Board to oversee the administration of the Access to Information Act.

The ATIP office consists of a Coordinator, a Deputy Coordinator, a Senior ATIP Officer and an ATIP Coordination Officer.

The Board has full responsibility for the administration of the Access to Information Act.

Duties of the ATIP Coordinator's Office include:

- ❖ Process requests for information submitted under the Access to Information Act in accordance with the legislation, regulations and Treasury Board of Canada Secretariat (TBS) policies, guidelines and directives;
- ❖ Provide VRAB managers and staff with advice and guidance regarding the interpretation and application of the Access to Information Act and related TBS policies, guidelines and directives;
- ❖ Develop policies, procedures and guidelines for the administration of the Act and related TBS policies, guidelines and directives;
- ❖ Coordinate the resolution of any complaints against VRAB made to the Information Commissioner under the Access to Information Act;
- ❖ Promote awareness to ensure employees understand their roles and responsibilities and the Board fulfills its obligations under the Act;
- ❖ Respond to Parliamentary written questions on access;
- ❖ Support VRAB's commitment to openness and transparency through proactive disclosures and informal releases of information;
- ❖ Upload summaries of completed access to information (ATI) requests to the Open Government portal;
- ❖ Review contracts with third parties using TBS guidance documents;
- ❖ Prepare and post VRAB's chapter of Info Source (Information about Programs and Information Holdings) on the VRAB web site in accordance with the TBS directive on decentralization; and
- ❖ Prepare an annual report to TBS and Parliament on the Access to Information Act.

STATISTICAL REPORT - INTERPRETATION

The Statistical Report (Annex 1) provides a summary of the formal Access to Information Act requests processed for the reporting period of April 1, 2016 and March 31, 2017.

PART 1 – REQUESTS UNDER THE ACCESS TO INFORMATION ACT

During the reporting period, VRAB received and closed three requests under the Access to Information Act. This represents a decrease of 11 requests completed (-79%) compared to last year's total of 14 requests. The decrease may be attributed to the increase in transparency due to Open Government priorities, including the Board's move to proactively publish all decisions on the Canadian Legal Information Institute (CanLII) website.

Table 1 - Overview of ATI requests for last five years

Of the three requests received, one was from an organization and two were from the public.

During the reporting period, VRAB completed 11 informal requests for information. This number is consistent with last year's total of 12 and may be attributed to the posting of ATI summaries to the Open Government portal.

PART 2 – REQUESTS CLOSED DURING THE REPORTING PERIOD

2.1 – DISPOSITION AND COMPLETION TIME

This table illustrates the disposition of the three requests that were completed in 2016-17 with information disclosed in accordance with the provisions of the legislation.

Table 2 - Disposition of Requests Closed

Of these three requests, one was completed in 12 days, one in 19 days and one in 32 days.

2.2 – EXEMPTIONS

An exemption is a provision under the Access to Information Act that authorizes the head of the institution or delegate to refuse to disclose records in response to an access request. Exemptions should always be limited and specific.

The following table identifies the number of requests to which specific types of exemptions were applied:

Exemptions cited	2014-15	2015-16	2016-17
Subsection 19(1) personal information	6	3	1
Paragraph 21(1)(a) operations of government—advice	0	1	0
Section 22 testing procedures, tests & audits	1	0	1
Section 23 solicitor-client privilege	0	1	0

2.3 – EXCLUSIONS

Pursuant to sections 68 and 69 of the Access to Information Act, the Act does not apply to published material, material available for purchase by the public, material placed in the Library and Archives of Canada or confidences of the Queen's Privy Council. During the reporting period VRAB did not invoke section 68 or 69.

2.4 – FORMAT OF INFORMATION RELEASED

For requests where information is disclosed, the requester has the right to ask for the information in the format of choice. In the two requests that were disclosed in part, the information was provided on CDs. In the one request that was all disclosed, the information was provided in digital recordings.

2.5 – COMPLEXITY

During the reporting period, the ATIP office processed a total of 14 pages and disclosed 14 pages. This represents a decrease of 1,903 pages processed (-99%) compared to last year's total of 1,917 pages processed. This continuing decrease in numbers can be attributed to:

- ❖ Type of information requested.
- ❖ All decisions of the Board being proactively published on the CanLII website.

Fiscal year	Number of pages processed	Number of pages disclosed	Number of requests
2014-15	7,025	7,025	6
2015-16	1,917	1,902	13
2016-17	14	14	3

The other complexity associated with the treatment of requests consisted of processing audio recordings in one request.

2.6 – DEEMED REFUSALS

During the reporting period, VRAB had one request that did not meet the statutory deadline of 30 days. The request was late by two days due to an internal consultation.

2.7 – REQUESTS FOR TRANSLATION

In 2016-17, VRAB did not receive any requests for translation.

PART 3 – EXTENSIONS

The Access to Information Act allows institutions to extend the original 30 day limit under certain circumstances as provided under section 9 of the Act. VRAB did not invoke any extensions in 2016-17.

PART 4 – FEES

The Interim Directive on the Administration of the Access to Information Act took effect May 5, 2016. It directs institutions to waive all fees prescribed by the Act and the Access to Information Regulations, with the exception of the application fee. In exercising discretion, the Board choose to waive a total of $15 in application fees.

PART 5 – CONSULTATIONS RECEIVED FROM OTHER INSTITUTIONS AND ORGANIZATIONS

VRAB received three consultations during the reporting period from other Government of Canada institutions with a total of 60 pages reviewed. All three consultations were completed within 15 days with recommendations to disclose entirely. There were no consultations received from other organizations.

PART 6 – COMPLETION TIME OF CONSULTATIONS ON CABINET CONFIDENCES

In 2016-17, VRAB had no consultations on Cabinet Confidences, therefore, there were no requests with legal services or the Privy Council Office for review and recommendation on the application of section 69 of the Access to Information Act.

PART 7 – COMPLAINTS AND INVESTIGATIONS

During the reporting period, VRAB did not receive any complaints nor take part in any investigations with the Information Commissioner's office.

PART 8 – COURT ACTION

VRAB had no complaints in which the requester, the Information Commissioner, or a third party applied to the Federal Court for a review.

PART 9 – RESOURCES RELATED TO THE ACCESS TO INFORMATION ACT

During the reporting period VRAB spent a total of $47,256 administering the Access to Information Act. Staff salaries accounted for $45,421, and Goods and Services amounted to $1,835. VRAB dedicated 0.65 person years to ATI activities.

TRAINING

In 2016-17, the VRAB ATIP office held one ATIP training session for five new employees. Since its inaugural year in 2013-14, ATIP training has become a key orientation component for all new employees, whether they are indeterminate, term or casual. The training session deals with the appropriate use and protection of personal information, steps to take if a privacy breach occurs, and employee obligations under the Access to Information Act and the Privacy Act.

Additionally, nine employees participated in security briefing sessions that included an overview of both access to information and privacy legislation.

POLICIES, GUIDELINES AND PROCEDURES

May 2016 marked the third annual Privacy Month at the Board. Throughout the month posters were prominently displayed throughout the Board, weekly e-mail tips were shared with all staff and memoranda on the following topics reminded all employees of best practices when handling information:

- ❖ Privacy and Protection of Client Information
- ❖ ABCs of Protected Information
- ❖ Clear Desk Practice
- ❖ Need to Know Principle
- ❖ Safe Disposal of Protected and Classified Information

These memos, posters, and e-mail tips foster a privacy culture at the Board and ensure continual awareness of employees' roles and responsibilities when handling, protecting and disposing of information. In addition, Privacy Breach Awareness week was added to Privacy Month with a focus on prevention tips and a cheat sheet on what to do in case of a breach.

The Board continues to upload summaries of completed ATI requests to the Open Government portal in support of the Government of Canada's commitment to transparency and openness.

ATIP procedures were updated following the implementation of TBS' Interim Directive on the Administration of the Access to Information Act which took effect May 5, 2016. It directs institutions to waive all fees prescribed by the Act and the Access to Information Regulations, with the exception of the application fee, and to release information in the format requested by the requester.

COMPLAINTS AND/OR INVESTIGATIONS

VRAB did not receive any complaints during the reporting period nor take part in any investigations with the Information Commissioner's office.

MONITORING OF PROCESS TIME

The VRAB ATIP office monitors all requests for information in Access Pro Case Management. This software allows for the inputting and tracking of requests. The Senior ATIP Officer monitors all requests received in the ATIP office and provides the Deputy Coordinator with a weekly status/progress report.
