Summary of some approaches to legislative change in the by-laws area

E92 . C3535 c.1

SUBJECT AREA - SECTION 88 - EFFECT ON INDIAN JURISDICTION

| 1   | · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · ·          |                   | T  |
|---|--|---|--|
| SOME APPROACHES TO CHANGE   | VALUE TO BANDS                                 | IMPACTS - BAND AND GOV'T                                | EXISTING LIMITATIONS                                       |
| • Extensive expansion of Sec. 81 law                                    | Many First Nations feel                        | Band - Since valid First                                | In some circumstances pro-                                 |
| making powers. Provincial powers  | strongly that provincial                       |   | vincial laws of general                                    |
| would be removed when a valid First                                     | laws should not and do                         | place, the level of effort,                             |  |
| Nation law is in place. This approach                                   |  | need for expertise, admin-                              | Indians of their own force                          |
| is implied in several substantive                                       |  | istrative and adjudicative                              | with or without Section 88.                                |
| areas (eg. education). It is doubt-                                     | pect to Sec. 88 would                          | structures, policies, etc.                              | The Supreme Court has advised                              |
| ful that any listing of powers in the                                   |  |   | that if Parliament does not                                |
| Act could be guaranteed to be   |  | many of the substantive by-                             | want provincial law to apply                               |
| complete. Rather than a listing a                                       | bands to have a stronger                       |   | it must say so clearly.                                    |
| broad enabling statement could be                                       | jurisdictional circum-                         | could be a major implica-                               |  |
| made in combination with an expanded                                    | ference around their                           | tion for some bands.                                    | Section 88 has the effect of                               |
| 81 or without any listing.  | land.  |   | enabling some provincial laws                              |
| a Amond Cap. 00 has amond by the t                                      |  | Gov't - In addition to the                              | to apply on Indian land which                              |
| • Amend Sec. 88 to provide that pro-                                    | There are different                            | impacts noted in each of                                | would not apply if Sec.88 did                              |
| vincial laws of general application                                     | ideas about what con-                          | the substantive by-law                                  | not exist.   |
| apply on reserves only where they have been declared to be applicable.  | stitutes Indian land.Many feel it must in- | subject areas, Federal/                                 |  |
| First Nations could have the right                                      | clude much more than                           | Provincial considerationsmay impact on any approach | A legal perspective is thatprovinces have no jurisdic- |
| to make this declaration. This  | the standard Government                        | to change in Sec. 88.                                   | tion over Indians or Indian                                |
| could make it clear to courts that                                      | definition of a reserve.                       | co enange in sec. oo.                                   | land.  |
| application of provincial general                                       | deriniteron of a reserve.                      |   | Lanu.  |
| laws on Indian land is by exception                                     | First Nations could                            |   |  |
| only.   | decide if they want any                        |   |  |
|   | aspect of provincial law                       |   |  |
| • State in the Act that provincial                                      | to apply.                                      |   |  |
| general laws do not apply to any  |  |   |  |
| First Nation with a valid constitu-                                     |  |   |  |
| tion under the Act if the laws are                                      |  |   |  |
| inconsistent with that constitution,                                    |  |   |  |
| any treaty, jurisdictional agreement,                                   |  |   |  |
| by-law, etc. This approach would  |  |   |  |
| recognize the proposed opting in con-                                   |  |   |  |
| cept for First Nations taking on  |  |   | •  |
| significant additional powers under                                     |  |   |  |
| the Act.  | •  |   |  |
| Mana analysis/function and said   |  |   |  |
| • More analysis/further examination is                                  |  |   |  |
| needed to devise more effective ways of changing or removing Sec.88 and |  |   |  |
| potentially to acknowledge customary                                    |  |   |  |
| law without implying that customary                                     |  |   |  |
| will be codified  |  |   |  |

will be codified.

I GOVERNMENT POWERS

- Section 81 Preamble •
- Health •
- Education ٠
- Social Services ٠
- Environmental Protection •

Land

.

Economic Development •

Community Infrastructure Public Safety and Order ٠

- •
- Administration of Justice ٠
- Membership ٠

Elections ٠

SUBJECT AREA - SECTION 81 PREAMBLE

|   |   |   | T  |
|---|---|---|--|
| SOME APPROACHES TO CHANGE   | VALUE TO BANDS  | IMPACTS - BAND AND GOV'T                            | EXISTING LIMITATIONS   |
| vising Section 81 powers it is desir-able to enact a preamble which wouldestablish the general powers and juris-                                    | This represents a modestrevision to Section 81in that it provides aclearer description ofBand Council by-lawpowers and jurisdiction.              | Minimal impact on bothBands and the Department. | In construing the legalnature of Indian Band Councilby-law making authority underSection 81; the courts haveheld that Band Councils havepower to regulate administra-tive statutes. The Courtshave rejected the suggestionthat Band Councils have ex-ecutive powers and have con-cluded that Band Councilpowers only extend to mattersspecifically set out inSection 81. |
|   |   |   |  |
| tive practice of making Band Councilby-laws subject to GIC regulationsshould be greatly reduced i.e. onlyareas requiring uniform national stan- | This option represents amajor opportunity to in-crease the legislativeauthority of Bands overmatters that directlyaffect Indian communi-ties. |   | Existing Section 73 Regula-tions reduce the authorityand accountability of Chiefand Council.   |

.

SUBJECT AREA - HEALTH NOTE: National Health and Welfare (NHW) has the mandate for design and delivery of Indian Health Services. Change would involve discussion with NHW.

|   | ·   |  |  |
|---|---|--|--|
| SOME APPROACHES TO CHANGE   | VALUE TO BANDS  | IMPACTS - BAND AND GOV'T   | EXISTING LIMITATIONS   |
| • A "housekeeping" clean-up of Secs.81,73 would remove duplication in the | Health is seen by manyIndian people as beingan area of critical con-cern - only Indian con-trol of legislation,funding and policy willresult in the improvedhealth of Indian com-munities.It should be noted thatseveral First Nationshave already taken overcontrol of health caredelivery by agreementswith National Health andWelfare (NH&W) whosepolicy is to devolvehealth care programdelivery to Indian com-munities. This does notinclude control overprogram design and bandsare still accountable toNHW. The second item inApproaches to Change in-cludes First Nationcontrol over programdesign. | Band - requires staff expertise, administration, regulation, directives, decision making and appeal structures to cover an array of health functions, depending on the degree of control. Adequate funding to support all health activities/ powers would be required. Indemnity insurance would be required. Need for legal powers to contract, negotiate service agreements. Bands/band councils would need the power to sub-delegate to other bodies - health committees, health boards,etc. Gov't - Issues/concerns could include: funding; adequate delegation; responsible handling of health standards; development of co-management schemes; need for Indian/ | Sec. 73 and the Indian HealthRegulations limit the powerprovided to band councils inSec.81(a) and results in con-fusion as to the distinctpowers of council.Federal Government hasauthority to punish conductthat is dangerous to health(Criminal Code, OccupationalHealth in some areas). In theCanada Health Act nationalstandards for hospital insur-ance and medical care pro-grams are a condition forfunding to the Provinces.Provinces/Territories havewide authority over publichealth. All have enacted leg-islation to govern the stan-dards and administration ofhealth. Provinces regulatethe medical professions andmake laws in relation tohospitals.Federal government has takenposition that there is no |
|   | A First Nation institu-tion could have author-  | Federal/Provincial negotia-tions and agreements; dis-  | legislative requirement for the provision of health ser-   |
|   | ity to establish and/or   | cussions and agreements on   | vices to Indians. Existing   |
|   | monitor standards.  | mandate with NH&W.   | health programs are not en-  |
|   |   |  | acted pursuant to any author-  |
|   |   |  | ity but are seen as discre-  |
|   | L   | L  | tionary spending items.  |

SUBJECT AREA - EDUCATION

| • The AFN is completing an extensive  | VALUE TO BANDS  | IMPACTS - BAND AND GOV'T   | EXISTING LIMITATIONS  |
|---|---|--|---|
| The AFN is completing an extensive  |   |  | BAROTINO BINITATIONO  |
| <ul> <li>$6 M study on First Nation Jurisdiction over Education. The results of that study should be brought to bear on any approaches to change in legislation, that would be considered in the law-making/by-law area during Phase III of the LRTR.</li> <li>The Act could be changed to acknowledge the existing movement toward devolution but provincial standards and jurisdiction would remain. Increased recognition of a percentage of curriculum focused on Indian language and culture could be established and direct Indian control over negotiations with Provinces acknowledged.</li> <li>Authority: to establish, set standards, funding, etc. from preelementary and through to postsecondary education; establish and operate educational facilities, establish school boards, create</li> </ul> | and operation is vital.Only comprehensivechange is likely to beacceptable.During Phase II LRTRdiscussions bands spokeof control over curric-ulum, the need to havecontrol over Provincial | <pre>would be a very major con-cern. Need for staff ex-pertise, administrativestructure, policies, regu-lations, directives, decis-ion-making and appeal/adju-cative bodies. Need legalpowers to contract, toacquire and dispose offiscal assets, negotiateagreements, etc. Bands andband councils would need tobe able to sub-delegate toschool boards, educationauthorities, etc.</pre>Gov't - Concerns/issueswould include the require-ment for funding; the stan-dards protection to ensureIndian students can trans-fer to other educationalinstitutions without preju-dice to their education;Indian/Federal/Provincialnegotiations; and the most | Sec. 114 of the Act tracesthe delegation of power inrelation to education. Start-ing from the Governor-in-Council, power is delegatedto the Minister who then inturn makes agreements withthe provinces, etc. It islegal counsel's opinion,that it would be possible forthe Minister to pass a regu-lation under Sec. 115(a) toextend the Indians' powersand influence under the areaof education. Nevertheless,there is presently nocapacity under the Act forBands to pass laws concerningthe education of Indians.It is likely that some of thedelegation to bands in theeducation area is without anylegislative base.A much greater degree ofdelegated control is required |
| <ul> <li>Indian educational authorities.</li> <li>Eliminate Sections 114-123 in exist-</li> </ul>   |   | effective approach in termsof Indian EducationAuthorities.   |   |
| <pre>ing Act, and give full and completecontrol to First Nations. Regional/National governance if required,would be by Indian education author-ity. An Indian Education Act couldbe enacted.</pre>   | •   |  | -   |

NOTE: This area is not formally part of the LRTR.

SUBJECT AREA - SOCIAL SERVICES/PROGRAMS

| 1  |  |                          |                                  |                               |
|----|--|--------------------------|----------------------------------|-------------------------------|
|    | SOME APPROACHES TO CHANGE              | VALUE TO BANDS           | IMPACTS - BAND AND GOV'T         | EXISTING LIMITATIONS          |
| 1  |  |                          |                                  |                               |
| •  | Acknowledge in Sec. 81 power for band  |                          |                                  | Jurisdiction over child wel-  |
|    | councils to pass by-laws with respect  | area of critical concern | pertise, administrative          | fare and social services lies |
|    | to the administration of social        | to First Nations -       | structures, policies, regu-      | with the provinces. The       |
|    | services along the lines of what has   |                          | lations, directives, decis-      | Indian Act does not in real   |
|    | been provided in AFA's.                | and policy is regarded   | ion-making and appeal/adju-      | terms provide for this area   |
|    |  | as essential.            | dicative bodies. Need for        | and Section 88 which provides |
| •  | Bands could be given full first level  |                          | physical facilities for          | that provincial laws of       |
|    | authority over child care and the      |                          | child care. Need for legal       | general application apply to  |
|    | placement of children in homes of      | to exercise more author- | powers to contract for           | reserves comes into play.     |
|    | Indians on and off reserve. Institu-   |                          | services, negotiate with         | Family law is not dealt with  |
|    | tional care, standards, and inspection |                          | A 7 7 7 7                        | in the Indian Act.            |
|    | would remain with the Provinces.       | would underpin their     | able to sub-delegate to          |                               |
|    |  | efforts.                 | social service bodies or         | Specifics of social/welfare   |
| •  | Bands could be given complete control  |                          | institutions. Resolution         | regimes differ from province  |
|    | over child care and control over wel-  |                          |                                  | to province and therefore the |
|    | fare rates, criteria for eligibility,  |                          | a major issue.                   | exact impact on bands differs |
|    | fairness, requirement for community    | such as a requirement to |                                  | as well.                      |
|    |  | carry out work in the    | Gov't - Range of concerns |                               |
|    | less/abused, counselling and support   | community in order to    | would include: funding           | While the federal government  |
|    | programs, etc. Control over family law |                          | sources/use of existing          | has taken the view that       |
|    | could be included. May entail          | been unable to enforce   | funding provided to prov-        | social services are not       |
|    | different funding arrangements.        | this in the face of      | inces; handling of stan-         | covered in the scope of       |
|    |  | provincial legislation.  | ards for care/child pro-         | Sec.81, legal counsel is of   |
| •  | The AFN has a Child Care Enquiry un-   |                          | tection, welfare support,        | the opinion that child care   |
|    | way which will bring forward recom-    |                          | care in shelters, etc.;          | could fall under 81(1)(a).    |
|    | mendations. The whole sweep of social  |                          | potentially Indian/Federal/      | There is no specific power in |
|    | services is broad and complex. More    |                          | Provincial negotiations;         | Sec. 81 now.                  |
|    | study is necessary to frame ap-        |                          | need for Indian Institu-         |                               |
|    | proaches to change and their implica-  |                          | tions; need for mandate          | Social services is a broad    |
|    | tions.                                 |                          | clarification; etc.              | area with child care being    |
|    |  |                          |                                  | only one aspect. No powers    |
|    |  |                          |                                  | are provided for bands to     |
|    |  | · •                      |                                  | control welfare or any aspect |
| 1_ |  | L                        |                                  | of social services.           |

NOTE: Aspects of Social Services are under study by DIAND. This area is not formally part of the LRTR. Family law is not, in any way, provided for in the Indian Act.

SUBJECT AREA - ENVIRONMENTAL PROTECTION (i) reservation, Protection and Management & Wildlife, Fish and Game On Reserve (ii) Protection and Management of the Environment including: Environment Assessments, Water Pollution, Air Pollution, Forests, Minerals, Flora and Fauna.

|   | ······································ | T  |                             |
|---|--|--|------------------------------------|
| SOME APPROACHES TO CHANGE               | VALUE TO BANDS                         | IMPACTS - BAND AND GOV'T                 | EXISTING LIMITATIONS               |
| CATEGORY 1 Preservation, protection     | There is a major value                 | Band                                     | - The scope of existing Sec.       |
| and management of wild-                 | to First Nations in both               | The organization, manage-                | 81 powers are far too              |
| life, fish and game, on-                | clarifying existing                    | ment and further develop-                | limited in scope i.e. wild-        |
| reserve.                                | legislative powers and                 | ment of both categories of               | life management and noxious        |
| The power to enact by-laws for the      | expanding law making                   | environmental protection                 | weeds in comparison to the         |
| preservation, protection and management | powers to encompass the                | powers requires a signifi-               | far broader legislative            |
| of wildlife, fish and game on-reserve   | full spectrum of envi-                 | cant degree of expertise at              | categories of environmental        |
| should be clearly bestowed with First   | ronmental protection                   | the Band level as illustra-              | protection.                        |
| Nations. The commercial harvesting of   | matters and better                     | ted below:                               | - Native fishing rights re-        |
| fish, wildlife, etc. will require some  | capitalize on economic                 | CATEGORY ONE Bands will                  | main undefined despite             |
| acceptable form of co-management. The   | development opportuni-                 | require staff, policies and              | numerous actions to resolve        |
| power to enact laws to enter into       | ties.                                  | procedures to:                           | them.                              |
| agreements with the federal and provin- |  | - establish quotas                       | - The legal jurisdiction of        |
| cial governments should be given to     |  | - ensure enforcement                     | S.81(1)(o) (fur bearing            |
| First Nations along with the power to   |  | - protect habitat                        | animals, fish and other            |
| delegate statutory authority to an      |  | <ul> <li>negotiate commercial</li> </ul> | game) is unclear and has           |
| Indian controlled body established to   |  | fishing agreements and                   | been the source of much            |
| negotiate with these other governments. |  | co-management schemes.                   | controversy with Federal           |
|   |  | CATEGORY TWO Bands will                  | Fisheries Regulations and          |
| CATEGORY II Environmental               |  | require the expertise to:                | the provinces. The courts          |
| Protection                              |  | - conduct environmental                  | have generally found that          |
| The Indian Act could be expanded to     |  | assessments                              | 81(1)(o) by-laws oust              |
| provide First Nations with the power to | 1 Internet                             | - regulate water pollu-                  | Federal Fishing Regulations        |
| enact environmental protection laws on- | E.C. Mos                               | tion, air pollution, etc.                |                                    |
| reserve including: environmental        | , Hall.                                | - regulate the management                | •                                  |
| assessment; water pollution; air pollu- | unsultation process                    | of forest and mineral                    | regulate the sale of fish . |
| tion; forests; flora and fauna; the     |  | resources                                | There is a direct connec-          |
| establishment of parks, etc. First      | Marin Marin                            | - negotiate environmental                |                                    |
| Nations should be given the power to    | when a                                 | protection agreements                    | and economic development,          |
| enter into agreements with the federal  | Even at more                           | with the provinces.                      | particularly for coastal           |
| und provincial governmento directly, or |  |  | bands.                             |
| to delegate such authority to Indian    |  | DIAND                                    | - Indian reserves are not          |
| controlled provincial institutions or   |  | The Department has a                     | isolated enclaves and              |
| tribal councils.                        | ·                                      | massive leadership and co-               | effective environmental            |
|   |  | ordinating role to play in               | protection will require co-        |
|   |  | clarifying and establishing              |                                    |
|   |  | First Nation legislative                 | of government whether              |
|   |  | powers in the environmental              |                                    |
|   |  | protection area.                         | federal or provincial              |

SUBJECT AREA - LAND - This is the subject of a separate study in the LRTR. The purpose of this summary is to give only a sense of the scope of law-making issues.

|  |   |   | l  |
|--|---|---|--|
| SOME APPROACHES TO CHANGE  | VALUE TO BANDS  | IMPACTS - BAND AND GOV'T  | EXISTING LIMITATIONS   |
| <ul> <li>"Housekeeping" clean-up of Secs.7381 leaving the G in C building in-spection powers for health purposesonly, and could entail giving bandsmuch clearer authority for zoning,and land use planning.</li> <li>Substantial increase in band/bandcouncil powers in all areas of landmanagement and control including fulltransfer of the Minister's authorityunder Secs.53 and 60, operation ofthe registry,full control over allot-ments, etc. but subject to variousforms of Government control/superin-tendency.</li> <li>Full transfer of all land powers toFirst Nations. No further involvementof the Minister. Could include theability to acquire land and expropri-ate.</li> <li>The Lands project in the LRTR in-cludes such suggestions as: a newLands Act, transfer of land in fee -simple to bands, a Matrimonial Pro-perty Act, amendments to the exist-ing Act, specific Band Legislation.Full exploration of specific legis-lative change in the LATRproject.</li> </ul> | <pre>From the comments madeduring Phase II LRTRdiscussions it is clearthat greater if not fullcontrol over their landis crucial to FirstNations. Depending onthe degree of changesome advantages include:- unimpeded decision-making on land devel-opment and use;- control over thebasic economic re-source, ability toraise funding;- ability to take ad-vantage of businessopportunities withoutthe delays inherentin governmentcontrol;- ability to acquireland off-reserve andto expropriate;- a much greater sayover the taking oflands for publicpurposes.</pre> | Band - Need for expertisein land development, useand planning; propertymanagement; leasing; expro-priation; land valuation;surveying, land registry,etc. Need for legal advice.Provision of mechanisms toadjudicate matters of in-dividual rights, issueswith nearby municipalities,provinces, developers, etc.Need for: detailedpolicies, regulations;ability to sub-delegate toboards/committees; indemnityprotection; means to exer-cise trust function; pro-tection against alienationof lands; legal status tocontract; adequate funding.Gov't - Major issue -means of managing, reducingor eliminating fiduciaryresponsibility and legalliability. Need for newapproaches for consistency,coordination withprovinces, creation ofIndian institutions. Fund-ing demands and Indian/Federal/Provincialnegotiations. | confusion between communaland individual rights; lackof proper delegation frombands to band councils; lackof clarity on scope of landmanagement Minister maydelegate; no need for band orband council assent to Sec.35 |
|  |   |   |  |

~

SUBJECT AREA - ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT

| SOME APPROACHES TO CHANGE             | VALUE TO BANDS           | IMPACTS - BAND AND GOV'T    | EXISTING LIMITATIONS          |
|---------------------------------------|--------------------------|-----------------------------|-------------------------------|
| The economic powers of Bands could be | There is a major value   | Band                        | - In spite of the critical    |
| increased in a number of ways:        | to Bands which will re-  | - the assumption of expand- | importance of economic de-    |
| (i) by defining the legal powers and  | sult from the expansion  | ed by-law powers by         | velopment to Indian com-      |
| capacity of bands within the Act      | of by-law making author- | Bands/Band Council will     | munities there is no          |
| i.e. the power to contract, acquire   | ity in the economic de-  | require an effective by-    | statutory provision in the    |
| and dispose of property, expend and   |                          | law approval process, the   |                               |
| invest monies, borrow from any        | removal of obstacles to  | establishment of admin-     | the legal powers and          |
| source, etc. (Ensure that Bands       | economic development     | istrative procedures        | capacity of Bands/Band        |
| have same capacity as an Indian       | that are included in the | which ensure a fair         | Councils.                     |
| person.)                              | existing Indian Act.     | application of these        | - During our Field Visits the |
| r = = = = • • • •              |                          | powers, the creation of     | point was constantly made     |
| (ii) by expanding the management and  |                          | a first level appeal        | that you can't separate the   |
| administration authority of Bands     |                          | process at the community    | creation of economic devel-   |
| over lands, resources and monies      |                          | level, etc.;                | opment by-law powers from     |
| and expanding their economic devel-   |                          | - there will be a substan-  | the need to amend the         |
| opment by-law powers to include:      |                          | tial increase in the need   |                               |
| . the establishment of long range     |                          | for professional advice     | sections of the Indian Act    |
| economic development plans            |                          | and assistance in the       | dealing with lands, re-       |
| . the management of Indian lands      |                          | preparation of economic     | sources and monies. There     |
| for economic development purposes     |                          | development plans, by-      | is scarcely any aspect of     |
| . the regulation and exploitation     |                          | laws, lease agreements,     | the economic life of Bands    |
| of renewable and non-renewable        |                          | borrowing proposals;        | in which the Minister is      |
| resources                             |                          | - the definition of legal   | not assigned a dominant and   |
| . agricultural development            |                          | powers beings a corre-      | potentially intrusive role.   |
| . employment training and develop-    |                          | sponding increase to the    | intrusive role.               |
| ment programs                         |                          | legal obligations and       |                               |
| . the establishment and regulation    |                          | liabilities of Band         |                               |
| of business enterprises               |                          | Council.                    |                               |
| . the establishment and regulation    |                          |                             |                               |
| of consumer protection programs       |                          | DIAND                       |                               |
| . the regulation of labour re-        |                          | - the impact on the         |                               |
| lations practices, on-reserve.        |                          | Minister's trust or         |                               |
|                                       | ×                        | fiduciary responsibil-      |                               |
|                                       |                          | ities which would result    |                               |
|                                       |                          | from an expansion of Band   |                               |
|                                       |                          | economic development by-    |                               |
|                                       |                          | law powers needs to be      |                               |
|                                       |                          | determined.                 |                               |

SUBJECT AREA - COMMUNITY INFRASTRUCTURE AND SERVICES

.

| 1  |                          |   | ······   |
|--|--------------------------|---|--|
| SOME APPROACHES TO CHANGE  | VALUE TO BANDS           | IMPACTS - BAND AND GOV'T                            | EXISTING LIMITATIONS                                       |
| Expand the Community Infrastructure and  | Far greater powers to    | Band  | The existing provisions of                                 |
| Services by-law making power of Band   | control the establish-   | - the planning, administra-                         | the Indian Act relating to                                 |
| Councils to encompass:   | ment, regulation and     | tive and regulatory re-                             | the establishment, regula-                                 |
| - the planning, regulating, construc-  | maintenance of the com-  | quirements will increase                            | tion and maintenance of the                                |
| tion and maintenance of community  | munity infrastructure    | the need for qualified                              | Community Infrastructure and                               |
| works within the boundaries of the   | and services to meet the | Band staff and external                             | Services on-reserve are ex-                                |
| reserve e.g. water and sewer systems   | needs of residents and   | professional resources;                             | tremely restrictive eg.34(1).                              |
| - the regulation of the construction,  | improve the economic     | - continued constraints on                          | Bands shall ensure that                                    |
| repair and use of buildings owned or   | development potential of | Capital monies could                                | roads, bridges, ditches and                                |
| <ul> <li>leased by individuals</li> <li>the provision of community services</li> </ul> | the reserve.             | create pressure to pursuealternative sources of |  |
| such as garbage collection, snow   |                          |   | accordance with instructions                               |
| clearing, fire protection, etc.  |                          | borrowing   | from the Superintendent, aswell as too narrowly scoped |
| - the authority to establish fee-for-  |                          | - establishment of an in-                           | i.e. does not encompass                                    |
| service rate schedules including the   |                          | dependent body to review                            | ensuring the adequacy of                                   |
| creation of an independent body to   |                          | fee-for-service rates and                           |  |
| rule on rate disputes  |                          | resolve disputes.                                   | lishment of fee for service                                |
| - the establishment of hydro electric  |                          |   | rate schedules, the provision                              |
| and telecommunication installations,   |                          | DIAND   | of community services, etc.                                |
| on-reserve   |                          | - increased demand for                              |  |
| - the authority to enter into contrac-   |                          | Capital funds and greater                           |  |
| tual agreements with any person,   |                          | Band power to manage                                |  |
| government or organization.  |                          | Capital expenditures;                               |  |
|  |                          | - reduced ministerial                               |  |
| NOTES:   |                          | control over the plan-                              |  |
| (1) Bands will require greater legisla-  |                          | ning, construction and                              |  |
| tive power to plan and manage the  |                          | maintenance of the                                  |  |
| expenditure of capital monies and  |                          | Community infrastructure,                           |  |
| the power to borrow money from   |                          | on-reserves.  |  |
| other sources.   |                          |   |  |
| (2) Existing Sections 19(c) and 34(1)  |                          |   |  |
| could be repealed.   |                          |   |  |
|  | •                        |   |  |
|  |                          |   |  |
|  |                          |   |  |
|  |                          |   |  |
|  |                          |   |  |
|  | ·····                    |   | · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · ·                      |

.

SUBJECT AREA - PUBLIC SAFETY AND ORDER

| 1- |  | r   | r  | ,                             |
|----|--|---|--|-------------------------------|
|    | SOME APPROACHES TO CHANGE                  | VALUE TO BANDS                                    | IMPACTS - BAND AND GOV'T                               | EXISTING LIMITATIONS          |
|    | Clarify Secs.73 and 81 to provide for      |   | Band - Development and full                            |                               |
|    | the powers that could be generally         | would result in clearer                           | implementation of traffic                              | confuse council powers in     |
|    | accepted as being the right of band        | by-law powers over some                           | codes could be costly and                              | Sec.81. Result has been dis-  |
|    | council - prohibition and abating of       | basic community func-                             | complicated. Control over                              | allowed by-laws for things    |
|    | •  |   | bingo and liquor sales                                 | such as fire protection, etc. |
|    | trespassing (cancel Sec.30); powers        | likely come only with                             | would entail increased                                 | There is no power for bands   |
|    | over fire protection, control of open      |   | administrative structures -                            | to define trespassing for     |
|    | fires, curfews, etc. Amend Sec.81 to       | which would remove what                           | licence issuing, inspec-                               | example.                      |
|    | allow bands to adopt provincial laws/      | is seen as provincial                             | tion, adjudication, regula-                            | -                             |
|    | regulations.                               | interference and would                            | tions/criteria. Need for                               | First Nations may only pro-   |
|    |  | give First Nations                                | staff and legal expertise,                             | hibit use of alcohol and      |
|    | Traffic - revoke para.(c) in Sec.73        | control over important                            | duly empowered decision-                               | intoxication, etc. may not    |
|    | and the Traffic Regulations and give       | revenue sources without                           | making bodies, legal powers                            | deal with regulating use or   |
|    | Sec.73 power to bands but provincial       | the risk of fines or                              | and ability to delegate.                               | with sales. No power to       |
|    | law still applies. Amusements - re- | criminal charges as is                            |  | legally license and regulate  |
|    | voke para.(e) in Sec.73 and the            | now the case.                                     | Gov't - Significant impact                      | bingos, lotteries, casinos,   |
|    | Amusement Regulations giving bands         |   | if comprehensive changes                               | etc.                          |
|    | Sec.73 power but not control over          | During Phase II discus-                           | were effected. DIAND                                   |                               |
|    | Bingos. Intoxicants - amend Sec.85.1       | sions Indian people                               | development of full reserve                            |                               |
|    | to give bands power to regulate the        | spoke strongly of the                             | traffic code may not be                                | limit council authority in    |
|    | the use of liquor but not liquor           | need to: remove pro-                              | feasible at time of down-                              | this area and incorporate     |
|    | sales.                                     | vincial traffic laws                              | sizing/devolution. Indian/                             | provincial traffic laws.      |
|    | Traffic - remove the application of        | from applying to theirland; to enable them to | Federal/Provincial discus-                             |                               |
|    | provincial highway Acts and either         | control liquor sales and                          | sions likely required rebingos as well as Criminal |                               |
|    | DIAND with First Nations or First          | all aspects of games of                           | Code amendments. Similarly                             |                               |
|    | Nations themselves enact traffic           | chance.   | discussions could be needed                            |                               |
|    | codes. Amusements - give bands             | chance.   | if First Nations are to                                |                               |
|    | power to license and regulate bingos.      |   | have full control over                                 |                               |
|    | State this explicitly in Sec.81 and        |   | liquor sales.  |                               |
|    | amend Criminal Code or make juris-         |   |  |                               |
|    | dictional agreements with provinces.       |   |  | -                             |
|    | Intoxicants - amend Sec.85.1 to em-        |   |  |                               |
|    | power band councils to license and         | •   |  |                               |
| 1  | regulate liquor sales.                     | -   |  |                               |
|    |  |   |  |                               |
|    |  |   |  |                               |
|    |  | 1   |  |                               |

SUBJECT AREA - ADMINISTRATION OF JUSTICE

| SOME APPROACHES TO CHANGE  | VALUE TO BANDS  | IMPACTS - BAND AND GOV'T  | EXISTING LIMITATIONS  |
|--|---|---|---|
| prove funding authorities for ade-quate funding policing services. Sup-port or increase support for: band/tribal council Police Commissions; newarrangements between bands and pro-vinces so bands administer someelements such as minor offences/young offenders; development of com-munity dispute resolution mechanisms.Strengthen training activities forbands, DIAND staff and promote train-ing initiatives for the Canadianjudiciary. Provide description ofprosecution procedures to bands and | sions that there is bothneed and value in thesechanges. The negativeimpact, perception andreality of the "unjust"Canadian justice system,high incarceration ratesand the imposition of awhite man's law that inno way reflects Indianvalues, traditions orcustom have been talkedand written about atlength. The inadequacyof existing policing | Band - developing means toadminister policing, legaland judicial systems andthe support structures thatwill be required such asstaff and legal expertise,police commissions, com-missions of enquiry onpolice actions, court con-stitutions, justice com-mittees, etc. Possibly aneed to negotiate sharedresponsibilities withFederal/Provincial policeforces/legal and judicialsystems; develop communitydispute resolution mecha-nisms, and community accep- | After examination of 81(c)provision, legal counsel ad-vises that band councilscould enact by-laws to ap-point administrative officersto enforce band civil by-lawsbut it is doubtful that bandpolice forces establishedunder para.(c) would haveauthority to enforce provin-cial or federal legislationunless appointed under RCMPAct or Provincial Police Act.The Canadian Bar Associationin its recent report saysthat the present legislativejurisdiction of band councils |
| <ul> <li>Legislative change to expand andclarify jurisdiction of Sec.107 JOP's</li> </ul>   | arrangements and the in-ability to enforce bandby-laws making enactmentof such by-laws all butuseless has been welldocumented.The desire to makegreater use of Indiancustomary law was men-tioned frequently duringPhase II discussions.Some First Nations douse customary law in   | prosecution and sentencing;and need to strengthen/adapt/reinstitute customarylaw.Gov't - need for extensivefunding; involvement inIndian/Provincial/Federalnegotiations; provision ofa statutory scheme for Sec.107 JOP's - court constitu-  |   |
| • Throughout changes in this area thereis a need to better understand andrecognize the use of Indian customarylaw without implying that customarylaw should be codified.   |   | administrative support, etc.Magnitude of effort tocreate new legal, judicialformat in the Canadiancontext is impossible todefine as yet.  | ment] needs examination; noprovision for JOP training.  |

SUBJECT AREA - MEMBERSHIP

| SOME APPROACHES TO CHANGE  | VALUE TO BANDS   | IMPACTS - BAND AND GOV'T  | EXISTING LIMITATIONS  |
|--|--|---|---|
| Amend Section 10(2) to allow Bands toassume control subject to the consentof a majority of the electors who voteon the referendum. | Elimination of a majorobstacle which is pre-venting some Bands fromassuming control oftheir Membership Rules.                                      | Bands would still be re-quired to provide writtennotice of the intention toassume control of Member-ship Rules, protectacquired rights and estab-lish a mechanism for re-viewing decisions onmembership.  | Bands may assume control overtheir Membership Rulespursuant to the consent of amajority of the electors ofthe band. Bands who followcustomary practices find itextremely difficult or im-possible to achieve this re-quirement which is notapplied to any other juris-diction. |
| Amend the Act to allow for the transferof individuals subject to the consentof the individual and the recipientBand.               | Individuals would befree to become membersof any Band subject toacceptance by therecipient Band and with-out the approval of thehome Band. | Band Lists would be moreaccurate in that an in-dividual would not beregistered on two Lists.Funding would be providedto Bands on the basis ofrevised Band List regard-less of whether the homeBand has taken these in-dividuals off their List. | Bands are experiencing greatdifficulty in having individ-uals transferred from theRegistry List of one bandwhen the individuals wish tobecome members of anotherBand.  |
|  | -  |   | •   |

|  | I   | r  | r <sup></sup> ,   |
|--|---|--|---|
| SOME APPROACHES TO CHANGE  | VALUE TO BANDS  | IMPACTS - BAND AND GOV'T   | EXISTING LIMITATIONS  |
| Provide a by-law power to Bands to de-velop their own election rules andthereby to control their election pro-cess. The by-law could requireapproval by the electorate) (50 + 1attending a meeting, voting in areferendum after due notice). Bands could revert to Sec.74 - 79 ofthe Indian Act by the same assents asfor adopting their own election rules. Custom bands could elect to use the by-law to make their election rules butthere likely would be no reversion tocustom aferwards and no furtherrevision to custom at all. Band election by-laws and rules couldbe subject to Ministerial approval rethe assent of the electorate of electedofficials, means to handle electionappeals, means to amend the rules andcomply with Charter of Rights andFreedoms. By-law power could be placed inElection Section of the Act to clearlyshow dual track approach but would bereferenced to Sec.81/Powers of theCouncil. | First Nation representa-tives, during Phase IIdiscussions, werevirtually unanimous inthe need for this by-lawpower .It would enable bands todecide on who comprisesthe electorate (only onor both off and on re-serve members) length of | Band - developing electionrules will require time andeffort, on-going operationof the election processwill entail the need forexpertise and some costs.Provision of an appeal pro-cess that is independentfrom undue influence may bedifficult to achieve solelyat the individual bandlevel, though some bandsfeel a council of elderscould be used.Gov't - Funding may be anissue. Some bands willwant DIAND to continue toprovide for such matters asan appeal process evenafter they have a first setof elections rules so that | There is at the moment noacceptable legal means ofallowing bands to developtheir own election rules.There is no provision forthis in the Act.Further, the Act (Sec. 74 -79) is outmoded and often un-workable. The ordinarilyresident provision is seen asa problem by several bandsand the number of electionappeals is problematic.The Indian Band ElectionRegulations (IBER) also areoutdated, lack clarity andare not complete in coverageof normal election procedures |
|  | I   |  |   |

II EXECUTIVE POWERS

- Band Council Procedures •
- Powers of Bands/Band Councils ٠
- Good Government •
- By-law Approval Procedures Certification of By-Laws .
- .
- Financial Management Band Administration .
- .

SUBJECT AREA - BAND COUNCIL PROCEDURES

| • The Act could be amended to enable Bands would be able to Band - Procedural by-laws Pursuant to Sec.80 the G   |  |  | 1  |   |
|--|--|--|--|---|
| each band council to establish their develop meeting regula-own meeting regulations. Sec.80 could tions with local varia-be eliminated and the provisions to meet the needs effort to develop. (IBPCR).                                  | SOME APPROACHES TO CHANGE  | VALUE TO BANDS   | IMPACTS - BAND AND GOV'T   | EXISTING LIMITATIONS  |
| the Act. For example: Every BandCouncil may pass by-laws for govern-ing the proceedings of the Council,the conduct of its members, the call-dures.contribute to moreefficient use of meetingtime and more productive | <ul> <li>The Act could be amended to enable each band council to establish their own meeting regulations. Sec.80 could be eliminated and the provisions included in an enabling preamble to a new Powers of the Council section of the Act. For example: Every Band Council may pass by-laws for governing the proceedings of the Council, the conduct of its members, the calling of meetings and meeting procedures.</li> <li>Another approach would be to include in a revised Powers of the Council section of the Act a specific by-law power for enactment of meeting</li> </ul> | Bands would be able todevelop meeting regula-tions with local varia-tions to meet the needsof the individualcouncil/band. Couldcontribute to moreefficient use of meetingtime and more productivemeetings.Would eliminate pater-nalism inherent inpresent Sec.80 andassociated regulations.Bands have raisedquestions about the roleof the Chief as opposedto the role of Council-lor - when the Chiefvotes, aspects ofdecision-making. Theywould be able to clarifythese issues to suittheir own circumstancesin tailor-made proce- | Band - Procedural by-lawsneed not be lengthy butwould require some time andeffort to develop.Keeping the procedural by-law useful may entailamending it from time totime. Electorate approvalof the by-law could be donethrough readings at opencouncil meetings. Gov't - no significantimpacts. Dept. may wish toprovide guidelines toassist bands in developingsuch by-laws. | Pursuant to Sec.80 the G-in-Chas enacted the Indian BandCouncil Procedure Regulations(IBPCR).The Regulations have beencriticized as being paternal-istic and unclear in a numberof areas - who should callthe first meeting of acouncil, role of the Chiefas chairperson, etc.There are no general bandmeeting regulations. |

SUBJECT AREA - POWERS OF BAND/BAND COUNCIL

| SOME APPROACHES TO CHANGE  | VALUE TO BANDS   | IMPACTS - BAND AND GOV'T  | EXISTING LIMITATIONS   |
|--|--|---|--|
| <ul> <li>clear definition of legislativeand legal powers of Bands/BandCouncils, as recommended by thePowers of Council project in thePhase II LRT Review.</li> <li>option of consolidating Band/Band Council powers in oneSection of the Indian Act maywarrant consideration. (If not,a separate Summary of Powerscould be prepared and distributed)to all bands.)Bands could be given the option ofestablishing their own Constitutionwhich would divide the legislativepowers between the Band and BandCouncil in accordance with the wishesof the community. This option wouldbe subject to electorate andministerial approval and likely GICRegulation.</li> </ul> | <ul> <li>major value to Bandsand Band Councils inthat it would pro-vide a clear de-scription of theirrespective legisla-tive and legalpowers.</li> <li>major value in thatit would allow Bandsto exercise a great-er role in thedetermination of thelegislative andlegal powers of BandCouncils.</li> </ul> | <ul> <li>procedural requirements.</li> <li>Approval of BandConstitution and its pro-posed division of legis-lative and legal powersby the electorate andMinister.</li> </ul> | <ul> <li>No clear definition of the distribution of powers between Bands and Band Councils in the existing Act.</li> <li>Powers of Bands/Band Councils are widely dispersed throughout the Indian Act.</li> <li>Confusion cited by many First Nations on the respective powers of Bands and Band Councils during Field Visits.</li> <li>The legal powers and capacity of Band Councils and Bands not defined in existing Act.</li> </ul> |

SUBJECT AREA - GOOD GOVERNMENT

| <ul> <li>Amend the Act to require that an annual report be made by all Band Council members. DIAND might issue guidelines and/or conduct followup to band construction of Council/band responsion activity to ensure band members are fully informed of Council Activities. And the accountability of the electorate. Each band then can decide on the mechanisms appropriate to their community. By-law could be issues of conflict of interest and the accountability of the electorate approval.</li> <li>Amend the Criminal Code to include chiefs and constilers would then have the same protection against breach of trust as they were making and the forded other electors in Canada. This was suggested in the Westbank Report but was not mentioned by Indian participants during Phase II</li> <li>If bands are taking on significant additional powers there might be a requirement for this type of by-law to be included in a band constitut</li> <li>If bands are taking on significant additional powers there might be a requirement for this type of by-law to be included in a band constitut band.</li> <li>Mands.</li> </ul>  | 1  |   |   | · · ·   |   |
|---|--|---|---|---|---|
| <ul> <li>annual report be made by all BandCouncil members. DIAND might issueguidelines and/or conduct follow-upactivity to ensure band members arefully informed of Council activities.</li> <li>Provide a by-law power to bandcouncils for disclosure, conflict ofinterest and the accountability ofthe electorate. Each band then candecide on the mechanisms appropriateto their community. By-law could besubject to electorate approval.</li> <li>Amend the Criminal Code to includechafes and contriles of furus as officials.Band members would then have the sameprotection against breach of trust asis afforded other electors in Canada.This was suggested in the WestbankReport but was not mentioned byIndian participants during Phase IILRTR discussions.</li> <li>If bands are taking on significantadditional powers there might berequirement for this type of by-lawto be included in a band constru-</li> <li>If bands are taking on significantadditional powers there might berequirement for this type of by-lawto be included in a band constru-</li> <li>If bands are taking on significantadditional powers there might berequirement for this type of by-lawto be included in a band construt-</li> <li>If bands are taking on significantadditional powers there might berequirement for this type of by-lawto be included in a band construt-</li> <li>If bands are taking on significantadditional powers there might berequirement for this type of by-lawto be included in a band construt-</li> <li>If bands are taking on significantadditional powers there might berequirement for this type of by-lawto be included in a band construt-</li> <li>If bands are taking on significantadditional powers there might ba</li> <li>If bands are taking on significantadditional powers there might ba</li> <li>If bands are taking on significantadditional powers there might ba</li> <li>If bands are taking on significantadditional powers there might ba</li> <li>If bands are taking on significantadditional powers there might ba</li> <li>If</li></ul> |  | SOME APPROACHES TO CHANGE   | VALUE TO BANDS  | IMPACTS - BAND AND GOV'T  | EXISTING LIMITATIONS  |
| tion.ternalism or excess dicta-tion of band gov't actions.• Additional approaches could be ex-plored during Phase II.Funding and monitoringcould be involved. Legisla-  | <ul> <li>anna Course</li> <li>guide act:</li> <li>ful:</li> <li>Provession of the dec:</li> <li>to the dec:</li> <li>Add:</li> </ul> | <pre>ual report be made by all Bandncil members. DIAND might issuedelines and/or conduct follow-upivity to ensure band members arely informed of Council activities.vide a by-law power to bandncils for disclosure, conflict oferest and the accountability ofelectorate. Each band then canide on the mechanisms appropriatetheir community. By-law could beject to electorate approval.nd the Criminal Code to includeefs and councillors as officials.d members would then have the sametection against breach of trust asafforded other electors in Canada.s was suggested in the Westbankort but was not mentioned byian participants during Phase IIR discussions.bands are taking on significantitional powers there might be auirement for this type of by-lawbe included in a band constitu-n.</pre> | <pre>bility, delineation ofCouncil/band responsi-bilities, and conflictof interest provisionswere discussed as re-quirements by severalFirst Nations duringPhase II.Local government wouldbe strengthened andissues of conflict ofinterest and court casesmight be avoided. Thoserunning for office wouldbe fully aware of thenature of the commitmentthey were making andbands would know what toexpect of their govern-ment.Outside business,corporations, etc. mighthave increased confid-ence in contracting ormaking agreements with</pre> | officials would be morevisible and more open tocriticism. Accusations ofabuse of power could bemade more easily. May needto establish bodies to ad-judicate on grievances.Elected officials may wantindemnity insurance. May bea concern that such mattersmake band government toorigid, too complex, andthat it is an imposition ofnon-Indian ways of conduct-ing business on Indian com-munities. May be costs inproducing reports, etc.Concerns have been express-ed that Band Council wouldbe trapped in dual account-ability - to the bandmembers and to the Govern-ment, particularly wheremembers' wishes are not inline with program require-ments.Cov't - Need to avoid pa-ternalism or excess dicta-tion of band gov't actions.Funding and monitoring | office in Sec.78(2)(b). Thisis seen by some as too muchgovernment control as opposedto band control.There are now a wide range ofdisclosure provisions fornon-Indian legislativebodies.Sechelt and Cree Naskapi Actsboth provide for some goodgovernment approaches. Anelected official, in the CreeNaskapi Act, can be removedfrom office for reasons ofabsence on petition by 15electors and decision at aspecial band meeting, for |

SUBJECT AREA - BY-LAW APPROVAL PROCEDURES

Bands would be enabled to design their own legislative approval procedures provided that ey meet an agreed upon set of national stendards. Requires an expansion to the definition of Section 81 to encompass both Band and Band Council powers.

|  |                          | I  |                               |
|--|--------------------------|--|-------------------------------|
| SOME APPROACHES TO CHANGE                                      | VALUE TO BANDS           | IMPACTS - BAND AND GOV'T                     | EXISTING LIMITATIONS          |
| • Remove ministerial disallowance al-                          | Questionable value to    | - Major implications for                     | Under Sec.82(2) any band by-  |
| together and rely on the court                                 | Bands in the absence of  | Minister's trust and                         | law comes into force within   |
| system.  | a community defined by-  | statutory responsibil-                       | forty days provided that it   |
|  | law approval procedure.  | ities.                                       | has not been disallowed by    |
|  |                          |  | the Minister.                 |
|  |                          | - Protection of individual                   |                               |
|  |                          | rights in the passage and                    | Minister's power of disallow- |
|  |                          | administration of conse-                     | ance is the source of enor-   |
|  |                          | quential by-law powers a                     | mous frustration for Bands in |
|  |                          | significant concern to                       | that there is a widespread    |
|  |                          | the Minister.                                | feeling that:                 |
| • Increase Band Council by-law making                          | Totally unsatisfactory   |  | - the Minister's power is     |
| authority under Sec.81 without ad-                             | in responding to exist-  |  | being exercised in an         |
| justing the Minister's power of dis-                           | ing limitations and Band |  | arbitrary manner;             |
| allowance.   | frustrations with dis-   |  | - by-laws are being dis-      |
|  | allowance powers of      |  | allowed in ignorance of       |
|  | Minister.                |  | community objectives and      |
|  |                          |  | needs;                        |
| <ul> <li>Bands could be given authority to</li> </ul>          |                          | The most significant im-                     | - the disallowance power      |
| design their own by-law approval                               | the authority and        | plications for Band would                    | undermines the authority      |
| powers provided that they are con-                             | accountability of the    | include:                                     | and accountability of Band    |
| sistent with national standards. They                          |                          |  | Councils;                     |
| could include:   | by-law approval process. | approval procedures,                         | - even the simplest by-laws   |
| - publication procedures                                       |                          | division of roles be-                        | are subject to enormous       |
| - system of first, second and third                            |                          | tween Band and Band                          | complications;                |
| reading of by-laws   |                          | Council, creation of                         | - the reasons for disallow-   |
| - Band referendum requirements on                              |                          | First Level Appeal                           | ance are never clearly        |
| consequential by-laws  |                          | Committee;                                   | communicated to Bands.        |
| - establishment of an independent                              |                          | - increased requirement                      |                               |
| first level appeal procedure at                                |                          | for legal assistance                         |                               |
| community level  |                          | and its cost;                                |                               |
| - clearly defined procedures for                               |                          | - increased requirement                      | •                             |
| challenging by-laws through the courts or an Indian controlled |                          | for trained staff and                        |                               |
| adjudicative body or Indian                                    | •                        | formalized procedures                        |                               |
| Ombudsman.   |                          | to ensure fair applica-                      |                               |
|  |                          | tion of powers;                              |                               |
|  |                          | -*need for a provincialor tribal council |                               |
|  |                          | judicial body to adju-                       |                               |
|  |                          | dicate by-law disputes.                      |                               |
|  | l                        | *(will require abarage to the                |                               |

*(will require changes to the Statutory Instruments Act)

SUBJECT AREA - CERTIFICATION OF BY-LAWS

.

| SOME APPROACHES TO CHANGE   | VALUE TO BANDS                  | IMPACTS - BAND AND GOV'T  | EXISTING LIMITATIONS  |
|---|---------------------------------|---|---|
| Amend Section 86 of the Indian Act toprovide for the following:   | enforcement of by-law           | Requirement for BandCouncils to follow estab-lished procedures in sign-         | Courts are often unwilling totake judicial notice of Bandby-laws which has a direct |
| <ol> <li>Every by-law shall be signed by theChief of the Council, CouncilMembers and the Secretary of theCouncil.</li> </ol> | infractions through the courts. | ing by-laws and maintaininga formal index book on allby-laws passed by Council. | impact on their enforcement.  |
| <ol> <li>Every by-law so signed shall bereceived in all courts without proofof adoption or signature.</li> </ol>                  |                                 |   | ·   |
| <ol> <li>The Secretary shall maintain anindex book on the number and dateof all by-laws passed by theCouncil.</li> </ol>     |                                 |   |   |
| <ol> <li>A copy of all by-laws passed shallbe sent to the Minister.</li> </ol>   |                                 |   |   |
|   |                                 |   |   |
|   |                                 |   |   |
|   |                                 |   |   |
|   |                                 |   |   |
|   |                                 |   |   |

SUBJECT AREA - FINANCIAL ADMINISTRATION

SUBJECT AREA - BAND ADMINISTRATION

| SOME APPROACHES TO CHANGE  | VALUE TO BANDS  |   |  |
|--|---|---|--|
| SOME AFFROACHES TO CHANGE  | VALUE TO BANDS  | IMPACTS - BAND AND GOV'T  | EXISTING LIMITATIONS   |
| being able to pass a by-law establish- foring the internal management administra- is etion and personnel practices and pro- oppocedures on-reserve. The scope of this form | Band Administrationestablished (asosed to the lessmalized Band Councilolution mechanism). | Bands would be required todefine and document theirinternal management andadministrative procedures.The Government would viewthis as a positive develop-ment leading to a moreformalized definition ofBand Administrationpractices, on-reserve. | There is no specific headingin the Indian Act which en-ables First Nations to pass aAdministration By-law govern-ing their internal managementprocedures on reserve. |

3

N.