The Trade Commissioner Service (TCS) helps Canadian companies navigate the complexities of international markets with on-the-ground assistance available in over 160 cities worldwide. Each year, fifteen thousand Canadian companies contact the TCS. Why not yours?

To get our best, we need your best...

When approaching your bank for a loan, you wouldn't submit a request without a business plan. You need to do the same with your Trade Commissioner.

If we know more about you, we can provide you with better service.

80% of TCS clients say...

Trade Commissioners helped them gain the confidence to explore or expand their operations in to new global markets.
