PUBLICATIONS

The results of the annual Census of Industry are published by the Dominion Bureau of Statistics in a series of industry reports which are released each year as the compilations are completed. Reports for industries classified to the Clothing Major Group are listed below, along with current and annual publications of related interest. Similar reports are issued for other industries. A complete catalogue of publications of the Bureau is available on request from the Information Services Division, Dominion Bureau of Statistics, Ottawa, or from the Queen's Printer, Ottawa.

EXPLANATORY NOTES

This report is one in a series of about 130 publications which present the results of the 1958 Census of Manufactures. Most reports in this series refer to specific industries, but there are summary reports for Canada and the provinces and for major industry groups. An annual Census of Manufactures has been carried out by the Dominion Bureau of Statistics since 1916.

Industry statistics given in these reports refer to number of establishments, employees, salaries and wages, cost of materials, supplies, fuel and electricity, gross value of shipments, inventories and value added by manufacturing. Details of materials used and products shipped are also given. Descriptions of the principal industry statistics, with special reference to 1958, are as follows:

Period Covered

Firms are asked to submit figures for the calendar year, if at all possible, and most reports are on this basis. Financial year reports for periods differing from the calendar year are accepted in instances where the firms find it impossible to supply calendar year data from accounting records. However the data on employees, salaries and wages are requested on a calendar year basis in all cases.

Establishment

Data for the annual census is collected on an establishment basis. A firm with more than one plant is required to file a report for each plant. In most cases an establishment is a complete factory. Sometimes, however, a plant is divided into two or more establishments when it carries out operations classifiable to different industries and when separate accounting records are available. Usually the statistics for an establishment relate only to the manufacturing activities. Other activities such as construction at the plant by its own employees, wholesale or retail activities carried on at the plant location, etc., are not included. Plants engaged solely in repair work (except in the case of furniture, shipbuilding, boat building, aircraft and railway rolling stock industries) are not included but plants occupied in assembling parts into complete units are included.

Employees

Administrative and office employees include all executives and supervisory officials such as presidents, vice-presidents, secretaries, treasurers, etc., together with managers, professional and technical employees, superintendents and factory supervisors above the working foremen level and clerical employees. Working owners and partners are also included in this category.

Production and related workers include all other factory workmen whether paid on a monthly, weekly, hourly or piece-work basis. Working foremen doing work similar to that of the employees they supervise are included, as are maintenance, warehousing and delivery staffs. Employees on new construction work, in retail or wholesale operations, on outside piece work etc., are not included.

Production workers are reported by months, an average for the year being obtained by summing the monthly figures and dividing by twelve. This procedure is followed even though the plant did not operate in all months. Figures on employment refer to calendar years whether or not some establishments reported other data on a financial year basis.

Salaries and Wages

Salaries and wages refer to gross earnings of the employees described above, including salaries, wages, commissions, bonuses, the value of room and board where provided, deductions for income tax and social services such as sickness and unemployment insurance, pensions, etc., as well as any other allowances forming part of the employees' wages. Payments for overtime are included.

Salaries refer to amounts paid to administrative and office employees. Withdrawals by working owners or partners for normal living expenses for self and family are included but not their withdrawals for income tax. Wages refer to the amounts paid to production and related workers as defined above. Data on earnings refer to the calendar year whether or not some establishments reported other data on a financial year basis.

Cost of Fuel and Electricity

Figures for fuel refer to amounts actually used, (including fuel used in cars and trucks), not to purchases unless the quantities are the same. Values refer to the laid-down cost at the works, including freight, duty, etc.

Materials and Supplies Used

Figures represent quantities and laid-down cost values, at the works, of materials and supplies actually used during the year whether purchased from others or received as transfers from other plants of the reporting company. Amounts paid to other manufacturers for work done on materials owned by the reporting company are included. Returnable containers or any other items charged to capital account are not included. Fuels are not included. Goods bought from others or received as transfers from other plants of reporting companies for resale without further processing are not included. Maintenance and repair supplies not chargeable to capital account are included.

Factory Shipments

Factory shipments refer to shipments of goods made from own materials either in the reporting plant or by other manufacturers on the basis of a charge to the reporting plant for work done. All products and by-products shipped from the establishment are included whether for domestic use, export, or for government departments. Transfer shipments to sales outlets, distributing warehouses or to other manufacturing units of the reporting firm are included. Goods bought or received as transfers and resold without further processing are not included. Values are computed on f.o.b. plant or plant warehouse basis, and do not include sales tax or excise duties. Values of containers not returnable are included. Amounts received in payment for work done on materials owned by others are included.

In a few industries such as shipbuilding, aircraft, etc., where work on principal products extend over a relatively long period, the value of production is recorded rather than the value of shipments. For those industries production is computed from the value of deliveries of complete units during the year plus the value of work done during the year on unfinished units less the value of work done in previous years on finished units delivered in the year under review.

Inventories

Values represent the book values of manufacturing inventories owned and held at the reporting plant. Figures include inventories held in warehouses or selling outlets which have been included with plant operations for purposes of reporting shipments.

Value Added by Manufacturing

Figures are computed from value of shipments plus or minus changes in inventories of finished goods and goods in process less cost of materials, fuel and electricity. This figure is sometimes referred to as net production.¹

Standard Industrial Classification

The Standard Industrial Classification Manual, prepared by the Dominion Bureau of Statistics, provides for 135 three-digit industries in the manufacturing sector, arranged in 17 major groups. Reporting establishments are classified or allotted to specific industries on the basis of the value of principal products made or shipped.

Short Forms

Prior to 1949 all manufacturing firms, regardless of size, were required to complete a standard form annually covering all census details, but for later years an effort was made to ease the reporting burden for smaller firms which usually do not maintain regular records in the required detail. A modified or short form was introduced in 1949 asking for the total value of shipments only, or in industries with a large number of small firms, for total value of shipments and quantities and values of a few principal products. Using the ratio of value of shipments in the current year to value of shipments in the base year, 1948, estimates of other census data were made for each plant for inclusion in the regular compilations. In general, the cut-off point for short forms was set at $50,000 gross value of shipments annually, but there were lower cut-offs for a number of industries in which the small firms accounted for a larger share of total shipments. About 40 per cent of the total number of establishments reported on the modified or short form. They accounted for less than 3 per cent of the total value. In 1958, to establish a new base year, the small firms were again asked to report data on employees, salaries and wages, and other principal statistics together with some detail on material and products.

¹ To arrive at the National Accounts concept of "gross domestic product at factor cost", it would be necessary to subtract also the cost of office supplies used, advertising, insurance and other goods and services obtained from other businesses. Data on these inputs are not collected on the annual Census of Manufactures. Value added figures for "The primary industries and construction" are published in D.B.S. publication 61-202, Survey of Production.

THE CORSET INDUSTRY

In 1958, for the fourth year in a row, factory shipments by the Corset Industry rose to a new high. The total value f.o.b. plant, $31,211,587, was 6.2 per cent above the old record of $29,375,873 established the previous year. As in 1957, inventories of goods in process and of finished goods increased by about $600,000 over the period so that the increase in estimated value of production from 1957 to 1958 was about the same as that in shipments.

The number of employees dropped from 4,041 in 1957 to 4,001 in 1958, but salary and wage payments rose by 1.8 per cent to $8,872,035 from the $8,719,042 reported in 1957. The cost of materials used in manufacture during 1958, at $12,684,558, was 6.8 per cent higher than the comparable 1957 figure of $11,874,240.

Factory shipments of corsets and girdles in 1958, 331,065 dozen valued at $13,527,612, were 16.3 and 9.2 per cent higher, respectively, than the 1957 shipments of 284,697 dozen valued at $12,385,523. Shipments of brassieres totalled 943,781 dozen worth $14,822,485 in 1958 compared to the 840,122 dozen worth $14,116,895 which were shipped in 1957, so that there was an increase of 12.3 per cent in quantity and of 5.0 per cent in value. Brassieres accounted for 47.5 per cent of the value of shipments; and corsets and girdles for 43.3 per cent. Factory shipments of garter belts in 1958 amounted to 119,181 dozen with a total value of $1,001,103, 11.1 per cent greater in quantity and 5.8 per cent higher in value than the 107,311 dozen worth $946,258 reported the previous year.

The industry, which continued to be confined to the provinces of Quebec and Ontario, consisted of 44 plants, two more than in 1957. Quebec's dominant position was strengthened by the acquisition of both of the new establishments. This province, with 25 plants, accounted for shipments of $18,053,462, or 57.8 per cent of the total; and for 2,504 or 62.6 per cent of the total number of employees.

Six establishments, each having factory shipments with a value in excess of $1,000,000, accounted for 50.4 per cent of the industry's employment, for 51.1 per cent of its salaries and wages, and for 54.2 per cent of the total factory shipments.

The employment of production workers throughout the year was very stable, varying from a high of 3,405 in November to a low of 3,207 in January. The industry employs a large proportion of women. In 1958 the average monthly employment of female production workers was 2,903, or 88 per cent of the total labour force.

Beginning with 1954 information on the value of year-end inventory holdings at plant and plant warehouses has been collected as part of the annual Census of Industry. This data was formerly collected by separate survey. The summarized results for the corset industry for the year under review may be found in Table 2.

Imports of corsets, corselletes, girdles and brassieres in 1958, at $1,177,125, were substantially lower than the like figure of $1,343,502 reported in 1957. Exports of these same articles were valued at $103,713 in 1958, and at $247,373 in 1957.

Table 11 gives details of power installations for this industry for 1958, representing the results of a special survey made every five years.

¹ Commencing with 1952 the "Value of factory shipments" has been collected in place of the "Gross value of production".

² Because of insufficient inventory data in 1952 and 1953, these figures have been calculated from value of factory shipments and are therefore only approximations to true "Value added by manufacture".

¹ Book value of manufacturing inventories held at plant or at plant warehouse.

² The opening inventory for 1957 differs from the closing inventory published for 1956 because of the inclusion of new firms and the removal of figures for firms which did not operate during 1957.
