PUBLICATIONS OF THE DEPARTMENT OF TRADE AND COMMERCE
1892 - 1969

sources:

- The information for this list was obtained from the following
1. The card catalogue at the Industry, Trade and Commerce Library. (ITC in the listing.)
 2. An examination of the books and pamphlets in the Industry, Trade and Commerce section of the National Library.
 3. A study of Chapter 13 of "Canadian Government Publications--a Manual for Librarians" by Marion Villiers Higgins. (Higgins in the listing.)
 4. Advertisements for Trade and Commerce publications on the back of issues of the Weekly Bulletin (up to 1922) and the Commercial Intelligence Journal. Examination of various issues.
 5. Annual Reports of the Department of Trade and Commerce, some of which list publications put out during the year covered.
 6. Miscellaneous Publications of the Department of Trade and Commerce, Vols. 3 to 15--a collection of reports, official documents and pamphlets issued by the Department. Unfortunately, Vols. 1, 2, and 4 are missing. (M.P. in the listing.)
 7. The card catalogue at the Public Archives Library, the stacks there, and the Casey list of pamphlets in the Public Archives up to 1931. These are marked "Casey", with the number following.
 8. The list of publications of the Dominion Government contained in the Canada Year Book from 1913 to 1940, when no further detailed lists were included.
 9. The card catalogue, both English and French, at the Library of Parliament.

I have not attempted to make this list definitive from 1960; I have omitted the large number of brochures produced for specific trade fairs and most of the reports of incoming or outgoing trade missions in the 1950s and 1960s. Small folders used as give-aways at trade fairs are usually not listed, nor are publications of the Canadian Government Travel Bureau. In certain listings, copies in French are included.

In certain instances it has been difficult to determine the original publication date of a report or pamphlet that has been reprinted frequently--for example, "How to Run a Business" and "Trade and Commerce at Your Service". Some are therefore listed several times.
