

Treed land in Canada

Proportion of area covered by trees

What is treed land?

Land is classified as treed if at least 10% of it is covered by trees.

Note that land that is temporarily treeless because of recent disturbance—such as forest fire or timber harvesting—does not show as treed land on this map.

For a definition of “forest land” please see page 22.

0 125 250 500 750 1,000 1,250 1,500 Kilometers