

ROLES AND RESPONSIBILITIES UNDER THE CANNABIS ACT

The Cannabis Act sets out a system for the legal, strictly regulated production, distribution and sale of cannabis

INDUSTRY	RULES AND SAFEGUARDS	COMPLIANCE AND ENFORCEMENT	LAW ENFORCEMENT
CULTIVATION  PROCESSING  SALE FOR MEDICAL PURPOSES 	FEDERAL — HEALTH CANADA The federal government administers the Cannabis Act and Regulations, and authorizes and licences indoor and outdoor cultivation, processing and sale (for medical purposes). Regulatory requirements include: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Physical and personnel security • Good Production Practices, including: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> > Standard operating procedures > Quality assurance > Sanitary production and storage > Product testing (e.g. potency, microbial, chemical, pesticides) 	ADVERTISING AND PROMOTION RESTRICTIONS CANNABIS TRACKING AND LICENSING SYSTEM Conduct compliance and enforcement activities including, but not limited to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Compliance promotion • Compliance monitoring, including Inspections • Enforcement actions, including: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> > Issue warning letters > Issue administrative monetary penalties [up to $1 million] > Issue ministerial orders, e.g. recall > Suspension or revocation of licences or permits 	Federal, provincial and municipal law enforcement may carry out: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Enforcement of possession and cultivation limits • Enforcement against criminal activity • Investigation of diversion or infiltration of the legal market • Action against any illegal cross-border movement of cannabis • Enforcement of impaired driving • Training of law enforcement officers to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> > Enforce new legislation > Detect and investigate drug-impaired drivers
DISTRIBUTION  RETAIL 	PROVINCIAL/TERRITORIAL The provincial and territorial governments authorize and licence the retail sale of cannabis for non-medical purposes. In doing so, they: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Provide access to cannabis that has been obtained from federally licensed cultivators and processors authorized under the Cannabis Act • Establish measures to ensure cannabis is not sold or advertised to young persons • Maintain appropriate records in relation to the sale of cannabis • Take adequate measures to reduce the risk that cannabis will be diverted to the illegal market Provinces and territories set: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Minimum age in their jurisdiction • Rules for home cultivation, including lower plant limit • Restrictions on where cannabis may be consumed (e.g. in public, in vehicles) 	Provincial and territorial governments employ compliance and enforcement approaches that may include inspections related to relevant legislation regulations, as well as sharing any relevant or necessary information with Health Canada or law enforcement.	* Criminal activities include offences related to production, including cultivation, distribution and sale outside the legal system; export, import; and selling or giving of cannabis to youth, and use of a young person in the commission of an offence.