PUBLICATIONS

The results of the annual Census of Industry are published by the Dominion Bureau of Statistics in a series of industry reports which are released each year as the compilations are completed. Reports for industries in the Foods, Beverages and Tobacco Major Group are listed below, along with current and annual publications of related interest. Similar reports are issued for other industries. A complete catalogue of publications of the Bureau is available on request from the Information Services Division, Dominion Bureau of Statistics, Ottawa, or from the Queen's Printer, Ottawa.

EXPLANATORY NOTES

This report is one in a series of about 130 publications which present the results of the 1959 Census of Manufactures. Most reports in this series refer to specific industries, but there are summary reports for Canada and the provinces and for major industry groups. An annual Census of Manufactures has been carried out by the Dominion Bureau of Statistics since 1916.

Industry statistics given in these reports refer to number of establishments, employees, salaries and wages, cost of materials, supplies, fuel and electricity, gross value of shipments, inventories and value added by manufacturing. Details of materials used and products shipped are also given. Descriptions of the principal industry statistics, with special reference to 1959 are as follows:

Period Covered

Firms are asked to submit figures for the calendar year, if at all possible, and most reports are on this basis. Financial year reports for periods differing from the calendar year are accepted in instances where the firms find it impossible to supply calendar year data from accounting records. However the data on employees, salaries and wages are requested on a calendar year basis in all cases.

Establishment

Data for the annual census is collected on an establishment basis. A firm with more than one plant is required to file a report for each plant. In most cases an establishment is a complete factory. Sometimes, however, a plant is divided into two or more establishments when it carries out operations classifiable to different industries and when separate accounting records are available. Usually the statistics for an establishment relate only to the manufacturing activities. Other activities such as construction at the plant by its own employees, wholesale or retail activities carried on at the plant location, etc., are not included. Plants engaged solely in repair work (except in the case of furniture, shipbuilding, boat building, aircraft and railway rolling stock industries) are not included but plants occupied in assembling parts into complete units are included.

Employees

Administrative and office employees include all executives and supervisory officials such as presidents, vice-presidents, secretaries, treasurers, etc., together with managers, professional and technical employees, superintendents and factory supervisors above the working foremen level and clerical employees. Working owners and partners are also included in this category.

Production and related workers include all other factory workmen whether paid on a monthly, weekly, hourly or piece-work basis. Working foremen doing work similar to that of the employees they supervise are included, as are maintenance, warehousing and delivery staffs. Employees on new construction work, in retail or wholesale operations, on outside piece work etc., are not included.

Production workers are reported by months, an average for the year being obtained by summing the monthly figures and dividing by twelve. This procedure is followed even though the plant did not operate in all months. Figures on employment refer to calendar years whether or not some establishments reported other data on a financial year basis.

Salaries and Wages

Salaries and wages refer to gross earnings of the employees described above, including salaries, wages, commissions, bonuses, the value of room and board where provided, deductions for income tax and social services such as sickness and unemployment insurance, pensions, etc., as well as any other allowances forming part of the employees' wages. Payments for overtime are included.

Salaries refer to amounts paid to administrative and office employees. Withdrawals by working owners or partners for normal living expenses for self and family are included but not their withdrawals for income tax. Wages refer to the amounts paid to production and related workers as defined above. Data on earnings refer to the calendar year whether or not some establishments reported other data on a financial year basis.

Cost of Fuel and Electricity

Figures for fuel refer to amounts actually used, (including fuel used in cars and trucks), not to purchases unless the quantities are the same. Values refer to the laid-down cost at the works, including freight, duty, etc.

Materials and Supplies Used

Figures represent quantities and laid-down cost values, at the works, of materials and supplies actually used during the year whether purchased from others or received as transfers from other plants of the reporting company. Amounts paid to other manufacturers for work done on materials owned by the reporting company are included. Returnable containers or any other items charged to capital account are not included. Fuels are not included. Goods bought from others or received as transfers from other plants of reporting companies for resale without further processing are not included. Maintenance and repair supplies not chargeable to capital account are included.

Factory Shipments

Factory shipments refer to shipments of goods made from own materials either in the reporting plant or by other manufacturers on the basis of a charge to the reporting plant for work done. All products and by-products shipped from the establishment are included whether for domestic use, export, or for government departments. Transfer shipments to sales outlets, distributing warehouses or to other manufacturing units of the reporting firm are included. Goods bought or received as transfers and resold without further processing are not included. Values are computed on f.o.b. plant or plant warehouse basis, and do not include sales tax or excise duties. Values of containers not returnable are included. Amounts received in payment for work done on materials owned by others are included.

In a few industries such as shipbuilding, aircraft, etc., where work on principal products extend over a relatively long period, the value of production is recorded rather than the value of shipments. For those industries production is computed from the value of deliveries of complete units during the year plus the value of work done during the year on unfinished units less the value of work done in previous years on finished units delivered in the year under review.

Inventories

Values represent the book values of manufacturing inventories owned and held at the reporting plant. Figures include inventories held in warehouses or selling outlets which have been included with plant operations for purposes of reporting shipments.

Value Added by Manufacturing

Figures are computed from value of shipments plus or minus changes in inventories of finished goods and goods in process less cost of materials, fuel and electricity. This figure is sometimes referred to as net production.<sup>1</sup>

Standard Industrial Classification

The Standard Industrial Classification Manual, prepared by the Dominion Bureau of Statistics, provides for 135 three-digit industries in the manufacturing sector, arranged in 17 major groups. Reporting establishments are classified or allotted to specific industries on the basis of the value of principal products made or shipped.

Short Forms

Between 1949 and 1957, in an effort to ease the reporting burden for smaller firms, a short form was used asking for the total value of shipments only or, in a few cases where losses of detail were significant, for quantities and values of principal products. For purposes of publication, missing data were estimated on the basis of appropriate ratios. In general the cut-off point for these short forms was set at $50,000 value of shipments. About 40% of the total number of establishments reported on the short form and accounted for less than 3 per cent of the total value of shipments.

In 1958, in order to establish a new base year, the small firms were asked to report all items of principal statistics together with some detail on materials and products.

<sup>1</sup> To arrive at the National Accounts concept of "gross domestic product at factor cost", it would be necessary to subtract also the cost of office supplies used, advertising, insurance and other goods and services obtained from other businesses. Data on these inputs are not collected on the annual Census of Manufactures. Value added figures for "The primary industries and construction" are published in D.B.S. publication 61-202, Survey of Production.

For the 1959 Census, the short form was used again, but further steps were taken to ease the respondents' burden. First, the general limit for short forms was raised to $100,000 value of shipments. In addition, a new intermediate form was developed. This form is a shortened version of the long form in that most of the general questions were pared down and the detailed lists of materials and products were limited to the more important items. The general limits for firms in this category were set at between $100,000-$500,000 value of shipments, but in the case of both the short and intermediate forms there were lower cut-offs for a number of industries in which the smaller firms accounted for a larger share of total shipments. On the other hand, limits were raised where this could be done without a significant loss of coverage. On most of the short forms for 1959, in addition to total value of shipments, data on principal products were requested. In a few industries, where loss of employment and earnings data were considered too large because of higher cut-offs, a question on total payroll was placed on the short form.

The intermediate and long forms provide complete data for the compilation of all elements of principal industry statistics and the details of materials and products. The one-page short form, although containing data on principal products and total value of shipments, does not request information on other elements of principal statistics such as value of inventories, materials, fuel and electricity and, in most cases, employment and salaries and wages, nor does it contain detailed data on volume and value of materials used. For purposes of compiling aggregates of principal statistics by industry and by geographic location, the missing data for each establishment were estimated for 1959 by using, in general, ratios based on the change in the value of shipments between 1958 and 1959. The proportion of the estimated data was generally less than 5 per cent of the total in each category of principal statistics.

The general request for the principal items of products on the short form for 1959 permitted a fairly complete compilation of the detailed quantities and values of commodity shipments. In the case of the detailed quantities and values of materials, fuel and electricity, however, and the monthly distribution of production workers, only the totals of data actually reported on the intermediate and long forms are contained in published reports and no attempt was made as in past years to estimate the generally small proportion of individual totals represented by detailed items omitted from the short forms.

The new approach has relieved an additional 12,000 establishments from filling out the regular long form. Establishments now receiving the short form number in excess of 20,000 and account for more than 54 per cent of the total number of establishments and a little more than 3 per cent of the total value of shipments.

USE OF MODIFIED FORMS IN THE MISCELLANEOUS FOOD PREPARATIONS INDUSTRY, 1959

On page 4, under "Short Forms" may be found the historical background and functions of all types of modified forms used in the Bureau to alleviate the burden on smaller establishments of reporting detailed data on their operations annually. This was a description designed to cover the general principles involved in the use of modified forms for all industries. We shall here attempt to describe the manner in which these forms are employed in "The Miscellaneous Food Preparations Industry" and to assess the impact which their introduction has occasioned in the 1959 survey.

In this Industry short questionnaires were forwarded to all establishments which had value of factory shipments generally not in excess of $100,000, intermediate to those between $100,000 and $500,000 and long forms to those which had value of shipments generally in excess of $500,000. This resulted in some loss of detailed quantities and costs of fuel and electricity and materials used and in the monthly distribution of production workers.

Nevertheless, because of the small percentage of total shipments which these establishments reporting on modified forms represent, the final results were not affected to a significant degree. This may be illustrated in tabular form as follows:

Establishments reporting on	Number of establishments	Percentage of total number of establishments	Value of factory shipments	Percentage of total value of factory shipments
Long forms .....	118	39.4	332,605,985	94.1
Intermediate forms .....	71	23.8	16,608,222	4.7
Short forms .....	110	36.8	4,042,871	1.2
Totals .....	299	100.0	353,257,078	100.0

From the above table<sup>1</sup> it is clearly apparent that while over 60 per cent of all establishments qualified for the use of modified forms, their total value of shipments was only 5.9 per cent of the Industry total. Hence the lack of detail in their reports could not seriously affect the results as published.

THE MISCELLANEOUS FOOD PREPARATIONS INDUSTRY, 1959

Beginning in 1952, the Bureau changed its policy with regard to the collection of statistics on the production of manufactured goods. Firms in several industries, where year-end inventory changes were known to be insignificant, were requested to report value of shipments f.o.b. plant instead of gross value of production. This change-over resulted in better consumption data and provided industry with better statistics for economic analysis.

Since 1951 the Miscellaneous Food Preparations Industry has included statistics on the Starch and Glucose Industry and the Malt and Malt Products Industry, in addition to the various products previously covered under this heading. All tables in this bulletin which show statistics for previous years have been revised to include these industries.

In 1955 manufacturers whose main products are roasted peanuts or ready-to-eat-popcorn were withdrawn from the Miscellaneous Food Preparations Industry and added to the Confectionery Industry in accordance with Standard Industrial Classification recommendations. These are now compiled with the Confectionery Industry (See Table 1). In this 1959 report, principal statistics for 1954 and preceding years include the above mentioned commodities while a new series was begun in 1955 excluding these confectionery items. Comparable statistics on this basis are provided for 1954 as well. All other tables in this report giving detail for 1954 have been revised to exclude the data for these firms.

Inventory values of raw materials and supplies, goods in process, and finished goods of own manufacture were collected for the first time in 1954. The 1959 figures are recorded in Table 2.

Value added by manufacture (net value) is shown in Table 1, column 6. From 1930 to 1951, the value added by manufacture is computed by subtracting the cost of materials used and cost of fuel and electricity from value of production. In 1952 and 1953 value of shipments was used since value of production could not be ascertained. In 1954 and 1955 value of production was computed by using the value of shipments plus or minus the increase or decrease in finished goods inventory. For 1956 and later years, the change in "Goods in process" inventory was also taken into account.

There are now 299 establishments reporting in this industry, 6 of which are classified in the Starch and Glucose Industry, 12 in the Malt and Malt Products Industry, and 2 in the Rice Mills Industry. These plants reported the employment of 10,258 persons who were paid $38,074,162 in salaries and wages, and shipped goods with a selling value at the factory of $353,257,078 while the cost of materials used was $220,596,950.

The principal commodities are coffee, tea and malt. Coffee (including instant) and tea together account for 34.5 per cent of the dollar value of shipments. Other important foods produced in this industry are margarine, cornstarch, yeast, rice, peanut butter, potato chips, jelly powders, malt and prepared mixes. Shipments of these and other items are shown in detail in Tables 6 and 7.

The quantities and values of factory shipments of food products manufactured in this industry are found in Table 6, while Table 7 gives the total all-industry shipments of some specialized commodities. These items are limited to those which are produced in this industry in greater volumes than in any other industry (standard commodity classification basis). Other food products such as jams, marmalades, confectionery etc. are primarily produced in other S.C.C. industries and are so designated in the published reports on these industries.

Total shipments in volumes and values of food products produced in all industries may be found in the "General Review of Foods and Beverages, 1959" and also in "The Manufacturing Industries of Canada, 1959", when these publications become available.

<sup>1</sup> The number of production workers, by months, was collected only for establishments generally reporting value of shipments of $500,000 and over.

<sup>2</sup> The number of production workers, by quarters, was collected only for establishments generally reporting value of shipments between $100,000 and $500,000.

<sup>3</sup> For establishments generally reporting value of shipments of less than $100,000, no data on number of workers were collected. Average was estimated by using change in value of shipments to arrive at value of payroll which was then used in conjunction with estimated average earnings to arrive at number of workers.
