

READY TO HELP
READY TO LEAD
READY TO FIGHT

Canada
National Defence
Défense nationale

Canada

BRINGING THE BEST OF CANADA TO THE WORLD

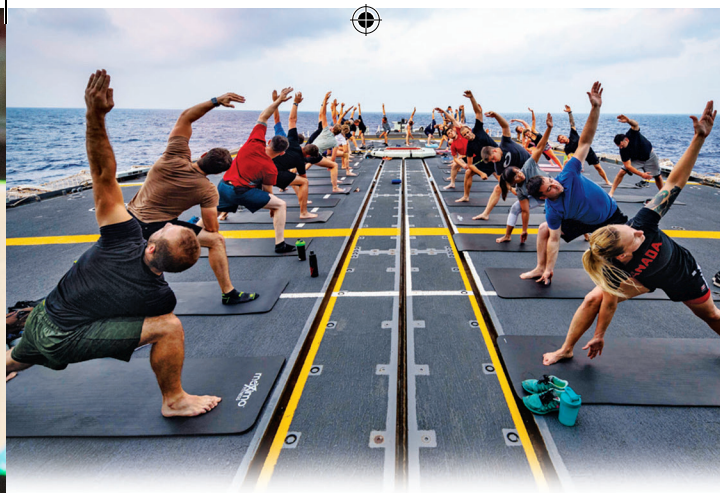

Safeguarding Canada while contributing to global peace and security: NATO operations in the Mediterranean, surveillance of North Korea, and training allied navies.

Leading search and rescue operations of ships and people in danger.

Humanitarian Assistance Disaster Relief including floods, hurricanes, and earthquakes.

Supporting environmental protection of our natural resources, including fisheries patrols along Canada's coastlines.

Disrupting/Seizing illegal drugs entering North America.

TRAIN FOR YOUR TRUE CALLING

Join the Navy team and travel the world. The Royal Canadian Navy (RCN) is a first-class employer that offers job security and rewarding careers that make a difference both at home and abroad. No previous experience required – All training provided.

NAVAL COMMUNICATORS: Be a vital part of tactical operations, providing real-time communication for everyone on the ship:

- Operate/monitor cryptographic, computer networks, and satellite systems

Civilian equivalent: Communications Network Specialist

NAVAL COMBAT INFORMATION OPERATORS: Be the eyes and ears of the ship. Work with the most advanced war-fighting equipment. Experts in Information Warfare:

- Operate/control radar and surveillance systems to detect possible threats

Civilian equivalent: Information Systems Specialist

NAVAL ELECTRONIC SENSOR OPERATORS: Be the Navy's expert in Above Water Warfare and air and surface weapons:

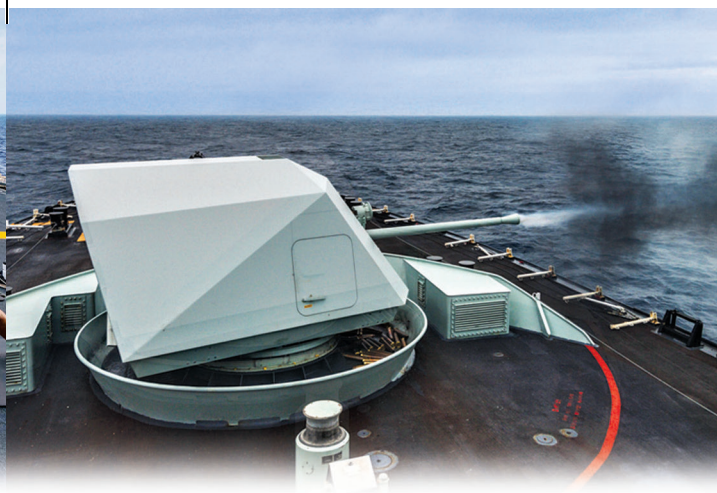

- Detect and analyze electronic signals providing warnings of possible threats
- Operate advanced weapons systems

Civilian equivalent: Threat Detection Specialist

SONAR OPERATORS: Be part of the operations team as an expert in Underwater Warfare. Operate sonar and acoustic listening equipment to locate and track submarines:

- Employ torpedoes and anti-torpedo decoys

Civilian equivalent: Underwater Threat Detection Specialist

* MARINE TECHNICIANS: Provide the power that drives the ship. Operate and maintain all mechanical, electrical, and structural systems including the propulsion system. Experts in the operation of state of the art firefighting and flood control systems.
Civilian equivalent: Marine Engineer and Heavy-Duty Equipment Technician

* WEAPONS ENGINEERING TECHNICIANS: Join a team of expert technicians to ensure that state of the art weapons, radar, and communications systems are combat ready using cutting edge technology.
Civilian equivalent: Electrical and Electronics Engineer

NAVAL WARFARE OFFICERS: Drive the ships and lead a team of dedicated professional sailors. Experts in naval warfare they defend against missiles, torpedoes, ships, fighter jets, and submarines. Learn naval combat tactics and specialties while training towards becoming the Captain of a ship.
Civilian equivalent: First Mate, Navigator, Master or Captain of merchant ships

MARINE SYSTEMS ENGINEERING OFFICERS: Lead teams of propulsion/power generation technical experts who maintain and repair ship's equipment. Enable warships to conduct combat manoeuvres and ensure the RCN is always ready to assist those in distress.
Civilian equivalent: Marine Propulsion Engineer

* Interested in Paid Education? Specific college programs across Canada qualify for subsidized education. Receive a competitive salary with full benefits while pursuing a recognized diploma.

* Already graduated? Applicants with previous experience and/or education may receive advanced standing in related RCN occupations.

NAVAL COMBAT SYSTEMS ENGINEERING OFFICERS: Lead teams of weapons technical experts who maintain combat and communications systems to enable the ship to defend itself, Canada, and its allies.
Civilian equivalent: Weapons Engineer

BOATSWAINS: The seamanship specialists of the Navy.

STEWARDS: Provide hospitality services within the Navy.

THE ADVENTURE AWAITS

The RCN provides job security, competitive pay and benefits, health coverage, and family stability. Long-term or short-term, a career with the RCN is waiting for you.

APPLY TODAY AT FORCES.CA

Requirements to join the Canadian Armed Forces

A – Age (17 - 57)

C – Canadian Citizenship

E – Education (minimum Grade 10 or Secondaire IV in Quebec)

@RoyalCanNavy

RoyalCanadianNavy

@RoyalCanadianNavy

@RoyalCanNavy

DGM-19719-GRF
D2-429/2020E
978-0-660-34837-7