Employees may be experiencing a high degree of uncertainty, worry, anxiety and stress about the health and safety of their loved ones, and how COVID-19 (coronavirus) may disrupt their work and personal lives. It is important for all of us to acknowledge these impacts and to engage in an open dialogue about them, including on ways to maintain and support our mental health. It is particularly important to recognize and support those who are more directly involved in the management of the situation, and those who have been instructed to self-isolate or who are suffering from symptoms of COVID-19.
* 9-1-1 for medical emergencies only. If you are in distress about potential exposure to COVID-19, call 8-1-1 (where available) or your local or provincial public health authority.
- SEEK HELP
 - Managers/Supervisors
Employees may wish to speak to their managers/supervisors, who will be able to advise them on what services are available to them, as well as various working options.
 - Confidential short-term or crisis counselling
