STATISTICAL REPORT ON INTERNATIONAL ASSISTANCE 2019/20

ABOUT THIS REPORT

In accordance with the Official Development Assistance Accountability Act (ODAAA, or the act), the minister of international development is required to issue the following key reports on behalf of the Government of Canada within 1 year after the end of each fiscal year:

- Report to Parliament on the Government of Canada's International Assistance, which is tabled in Parliament
- Statistical Report on International Assistance

The Statistical Report on International Assistance is produced on an annual basis to further enhance the efficiency and accountability of Canada's international assistance. This report covers the reporting period from April 1, 2019 to March 31, 2020 (fiscal year 2019/20). It is complementary to the Report to Parliament on the Government of Canada's International Assistance 2019/20. As one of the two annual reports legislated by the act, this report provides a single source for international assistance expenditure statistics, including official development assistance (ODA) and other official assistance, for Canada as a whole.

UNDERSTANDING THIS REPORT

This report is presented on an expenditures basis and uses international standards that facilitate historical comparison of Canada's ODA as well as comparison with reports from other international assistance donors. Expenditures are counted when the payment is recorded in the accounting systems, with the understanding that organizations receiving Canadian funding would use it over the length of the project. Repayments of loans previously extended to developing countries are shown for information purposes (see Appendix 1). Certain costs (e.g. refugee resettlement costs) are calculated based on agreed-upon international standards. Such standards are regularly revised in forums such as the Development Assistance Committee of the Organization for Economic Co-operation and Development (OECD-DAC).

TRANSPARENCY AND ACCOUNTABILITY

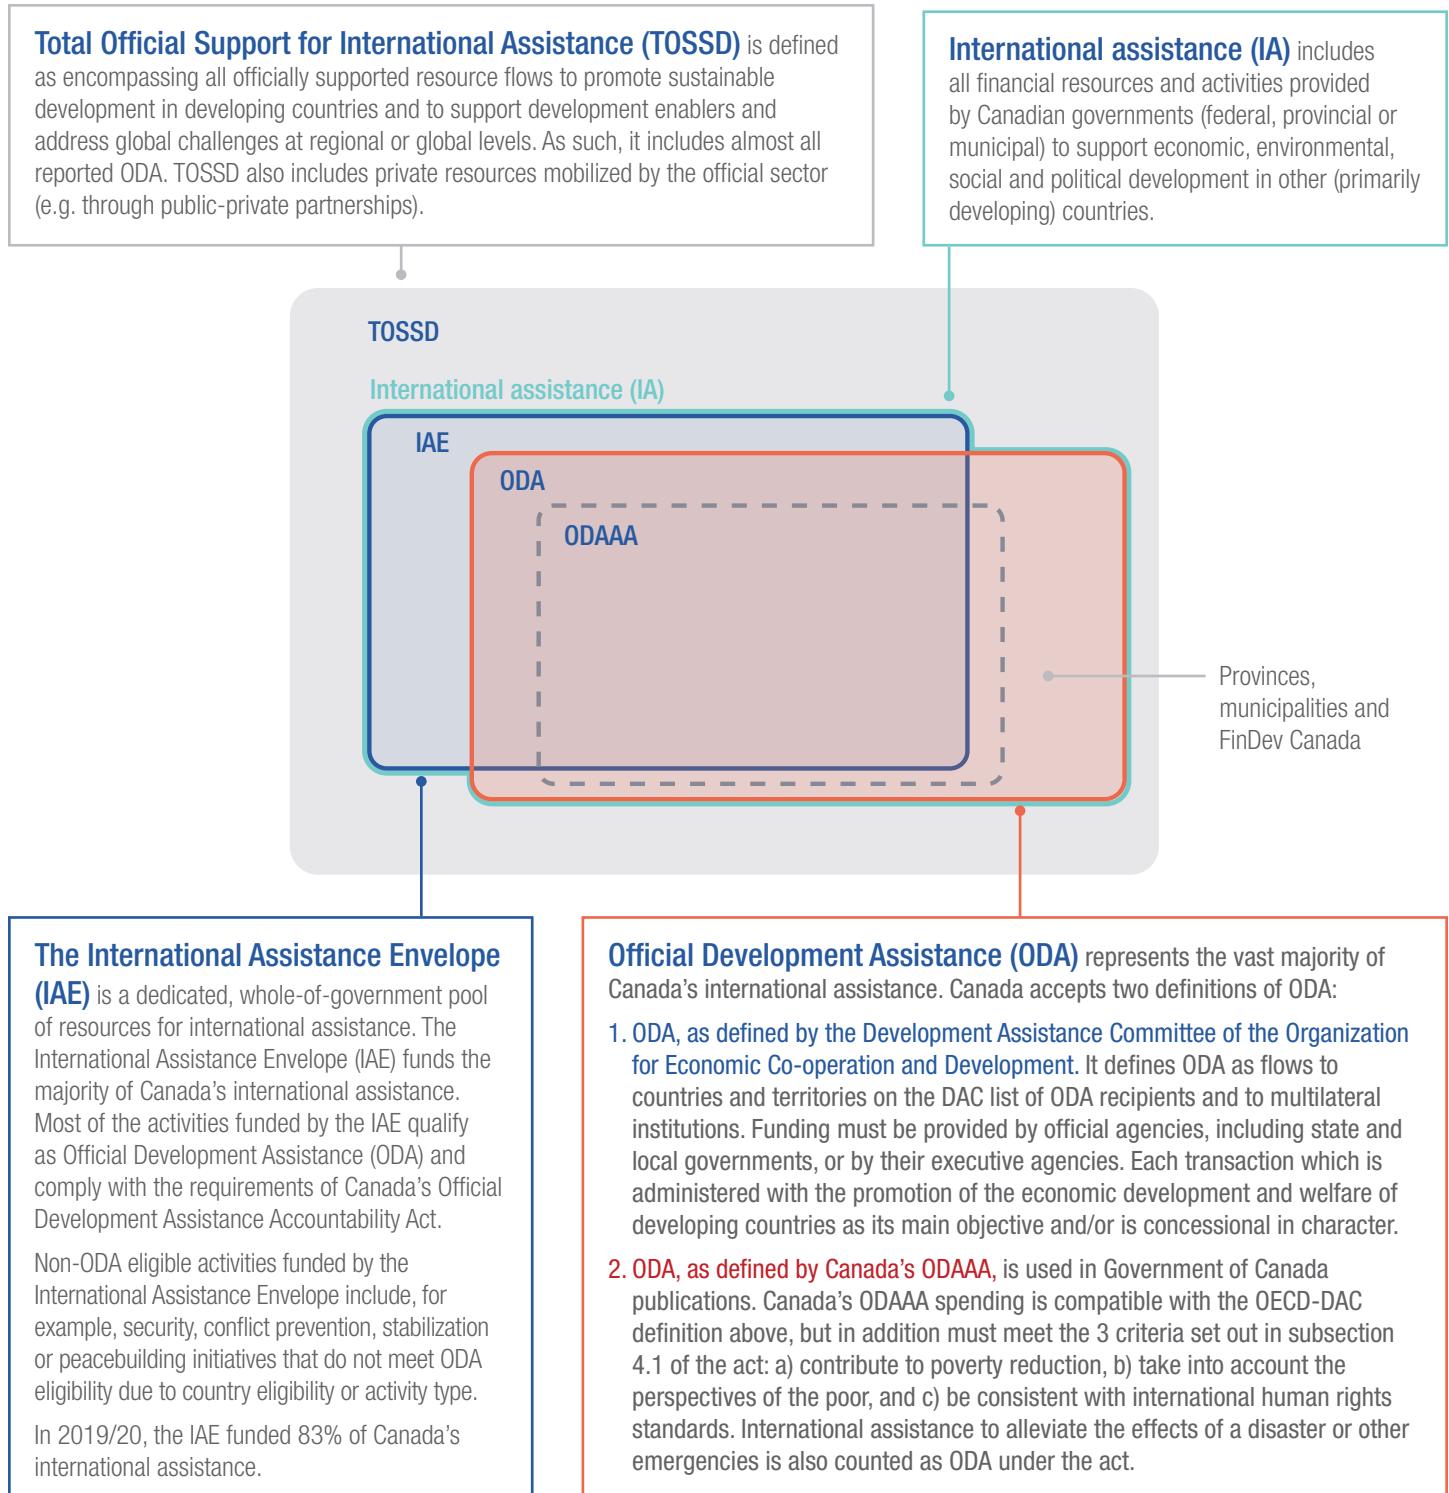

The Government of Canada is committed to ensuring that information on its international assistance funding is open and transparent.

Reports prepared in accordance with the ODAAA are available at the Official Development Assistance Accountability Act website. To further enhance the efficiency and accountability of Canada's international assistance, Global Affairs Canada also provides links to Canadian international development statistical data on the Open Government Portal.

In addition, Global Affairs Canada provides detailed information on its international assistance projects on its Project Browser. This information is also published daily in accordance with the standard of the International Aid Transparency Initiative (IATI), of which Canada is a member.

Finance Canada and the International Development Research Centre also publish data in accordance with the IATI standard.

* The "ODA: OECD-DAC" figures presented in this table are shown on a fiscal year basis, in Canadian dollars, in order to compare and contrast reporting under the ODAAA versus the ODA reported to the OECD-DAC. When Canada reports to the OECD-DAC, figures are reported on a calendar-year basis in U.S. dollars. Their depiction in this table is for illustrative purposes only. The ODAAA reports on department's gross disbursements, whereas the OECD-DAC reports on a grant equivalent basis. Reflows on repayable contributions and loans are disclosed in Table A as information items.

 Includes costs of refugees in Canada (1st year) and other projects.

 Figures in this table are represented in millions, and as such contributions by Public Service Commission of Canada display as 0. Their 2019/20 contributions totalled $540.

CANADA USES A WHOLE-OF-GOVERNMENT APPROACH TO DELIVER EFFECTIVE RESULTS THROUGH INTERNATIONAL ASSISTANCE

Global Affairs Canada (GAC) leads Canada's international assistance efforts to reduce poverty and inequality by leveraging Canadian expertise and financial resources, providing bilateral development assistance and institutional support to multilateral organizations, humanitarian assistance responses, and security and stability assistance in fragile and conflict-affected states.

The Royal Canadian Mounted Police deploys Canadian police in fragile and conflict-affected countries to provide technical assistance and capacity building.

Environment and Climate Change Canada supports various organizations to assist developing countries in improving environmental conditions and aiding climate change adaptation and contributes to various channels of the United Nations Framework Convention on Climate Change.

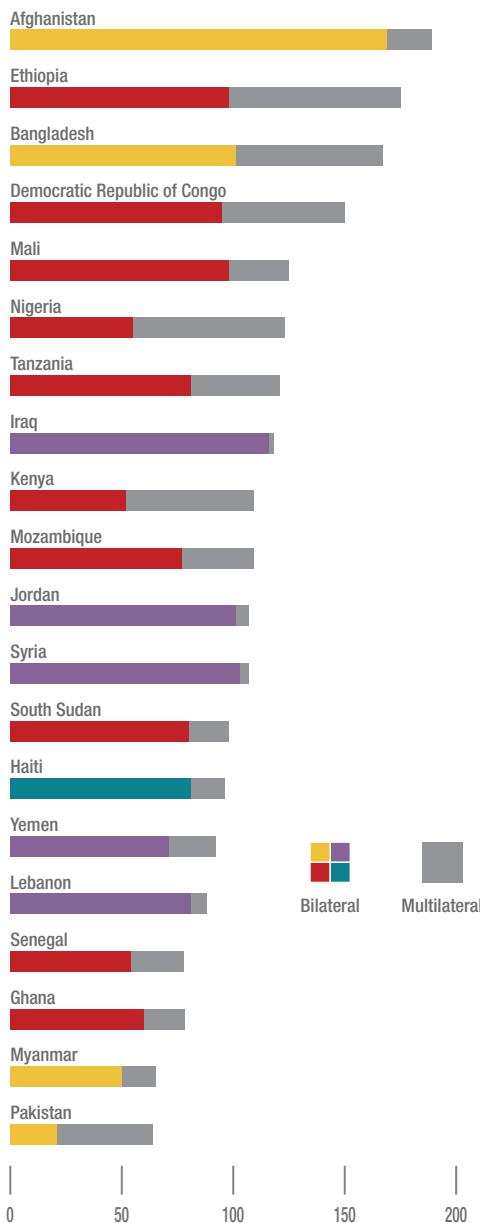

Canadian provinces and territories support a wide variety of development projects.

* In-line with current OECD-DAC guidelines, only costs related to refugees' first-year stays are counted as international assistance. In 2019/20, IRCC significantly increased support to refugees through the Interim Housing Assistance Program.

RESPONDING QUICKLY AND EFFECTIVELY TO INTERNATIONAL HUMANITARIAN CRISES

The figures above represent total humanitarian assistance by region, including bilateral and imputed multilateral assistance.

TOP 15 RECIPIENTS

OF BILATERAL HUMANITARIAN ASSISTANCE

SYRIA, IRAQ, LEBANON AND JORDAN

As the conflict in Syria continues to result in a humanitarian crisis across the region, economic strife and the continued displacement of 3 million people in Iraq and impact of Syrian refugees in Jordan continue to reinforce the need for a significant humanitarian response. Canada's support to trusted humanitarian partners is helping to meet basic education, food, health, water, shelter and protection needs. Canada's gender-responsive humanitarian action includes support for women and girls' safe spaces, sexual and reproductive health services, psychological services, protection outreach and livelihood opportunities.

DEMOCRATIC REPUBLIC OF CONGO (DRC)

Home to the world's second-largest food crisis with almost 16 million people severely food insecure, as well as home to the largest internally displaced person population in Africa with 5.5 million displaced people, the complex humanitarian situation in the DRC is exacerbated by local conflict, health epidemics and political uncertainty. Canada provided life-saving assistance including food, water, treatment for acute malnutrition, health-care services and support for livelihoods to populations in need, including vulnerable women and children affected by conflict.

YEMEN

Yemen remains the world's largest humanitarian crisis. Nearly 70% or more than 22 million of the country's 28.5 million population are food insecure, and almost 10 million people are on the brink of famine. Attacks on civilians and civilian infrastructure remain frequent, in clear violation of international humanitarian law—and ongoing violence has displaced over 3.6 million people since 2015. Canada provided life-saving humanitarian assistance, including food, health care, shelter, clean water and sanitation and protection, and addressed the specific needs of women and children affected by the crisis.

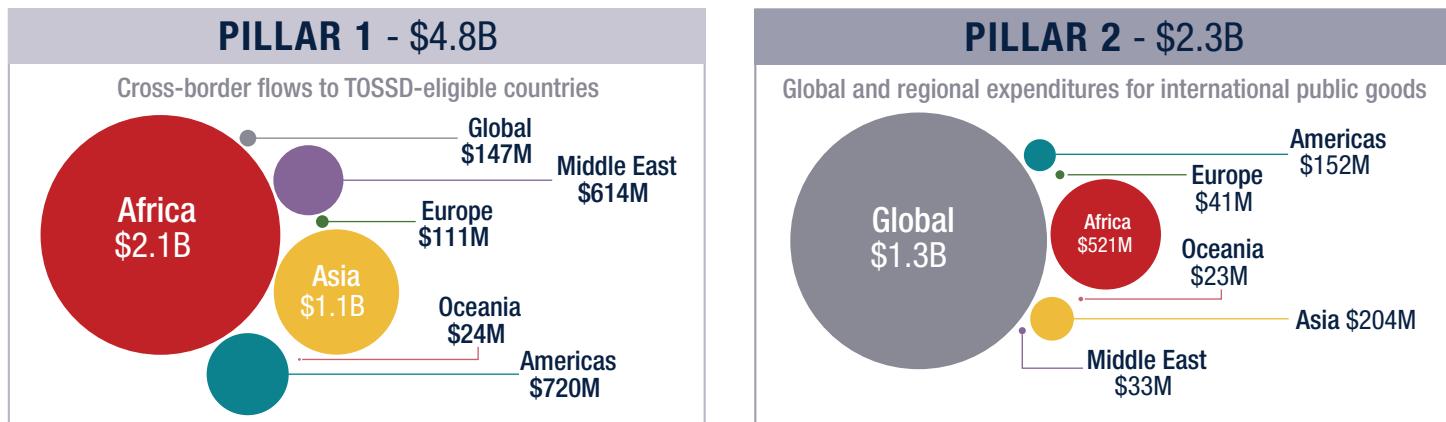

COVID-19

In response to the COVID-19 pandemic, Canada has committed more than $2 billion to directly aid international efforts to fight the pandemic, of which more than $2 million was provided in 2019/20.

TOTAL OFFICIAL SUPPORT FOR SUSTAINABLE DEVELOPMENT: A NEW STATISTICAL MEASURE FOR THE SUSTAINABLE DEVELOPMENT GOALS ERA

TOSSD IS TRACKED ON A CALENDAR YEAR BASIS. FIGURES ON THIS PAGE REPRESENT EXPENDITURES IN THE 2019 CALENDAR YEAR.

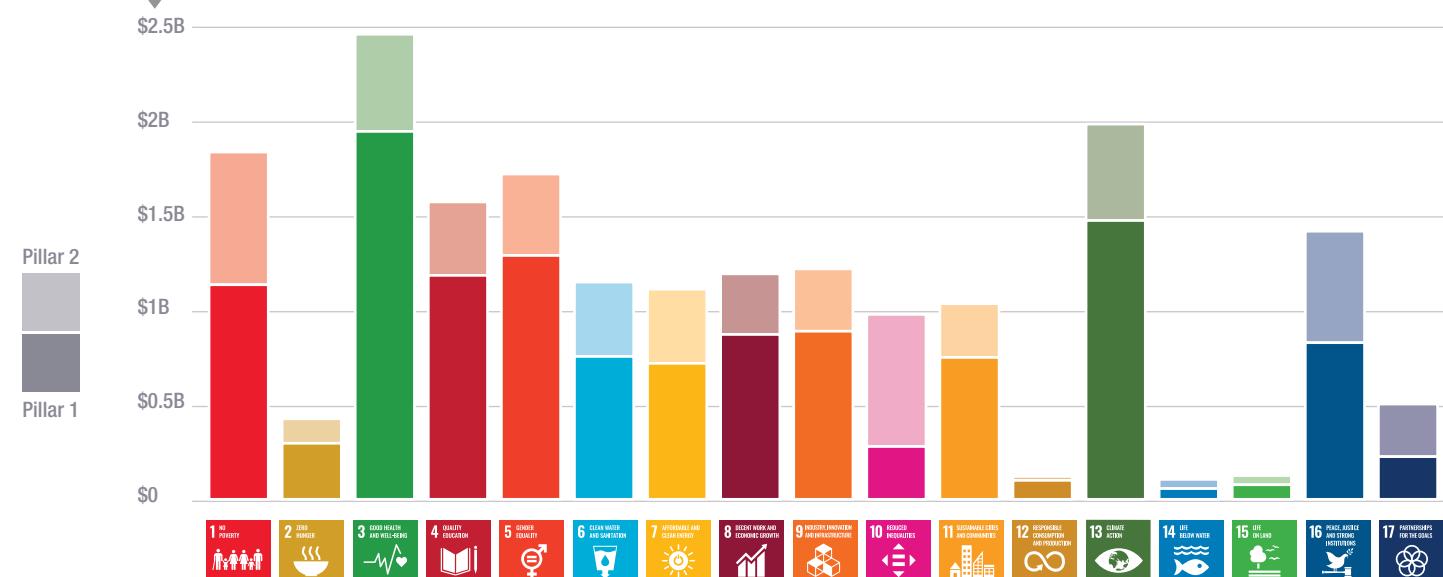

Total Official Support for International Assistance (TOSSD) encompasses all officially supported resource flows to promote sustainable development in developing countries and to support development enablers and address global challenges.

IN 2019, CANADA MOBILIZED AN ADDITIONAL $16M WORTH OF PRIVATE INVESTMENT IN SUPPORT OF THE SDGS
More information about private sector mobilization is available on Page 10

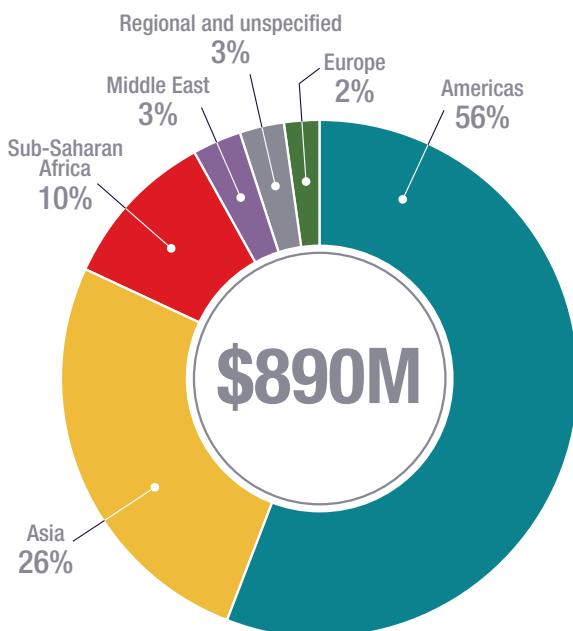

The Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs) are a collection of 17 interlinked global goals designed to be a “blueprint to achieve a better and more sustainable future for all.” Canada is already answering this call to action by bringing together the voices and efforts of all levels of government, alongside Indigenous peoples, municipalities, civil society and the private sector. Canada demonstrates leadership, at home and abroad, in shaping a sustainable and resilient future that promotes prosperity, partnership, peace, people and the planet, while ensuring that no one is left behind.

CANADA'S SUPPORT TO THE SUSTAINABLE DEVELOPMENT GOALS

SPOTLIGHT ON DEVELOPMENT DATA: PRIVATE SECTOR MOBILIZATION

FIGURES ON THIS PAGE REPRESENT DATA COLLECTED FROM 2012 to 2019

Since 2012, Canada has mobilized $890M worth of additional private investment in support of the SDGs through blended finance, totalling $670M.

WHY DO WE NEED TO MOBILIZE THE PRIVATE SECTOR?

In the context of the Agenda 2030 and the SDGs, there is a universal recognition that a significant scaling up of resources “from billions to trillions” is required to achieve the SDGs. Such resources include traditional ODA and other development-related resources, domestic country resources, south-south cooperation, philanthropic and non-governmental organizations, and the private sector.

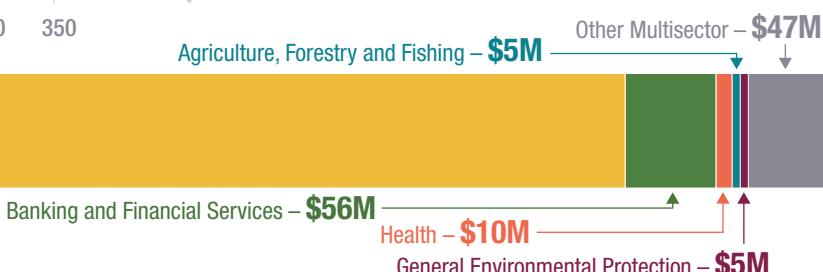

The private sector is an integral partner for the advancement of sectors such as infrastructure, energy and climate change. Vast amounts of untapped capital such as pension funds and commercial banks can be mobilized in support of sustainable development, generating the necessary resources to meet the SDG financial gap. Canada’s investments in blended and innovative financing total $670 million. These investments have played a part in mobilizing $3.8 billion in additional funding from the private sector, of which $890 million is attributed to Canada. In addition to traditional ODA, by investing to mobilize the private sector Canada can amplify its already significant investments toward international development assistance, which reached $6.6 billion in 2019/20.

Canada’s investment today in blended finance can mobilize private capital for years to come as new projects are operationalized and additional private investment is incentivized.

(1) The Statistical Report is prepared on an expenditures basis, and repayments of loans and repayable contributions are not subtracted from totals. These transactions are presented for information only and more details are available in Appendix 1.

(2) Costs covered by Immigration, Refugees and Citizenship Canada (IRCC). Canada's methodology was revised in 2018-2019, following the approval of clarifications by the OECD-DAC. The increase in 2019-2020 is the result of additional support through the Interim Housing Assistance Program for incoming refugees.

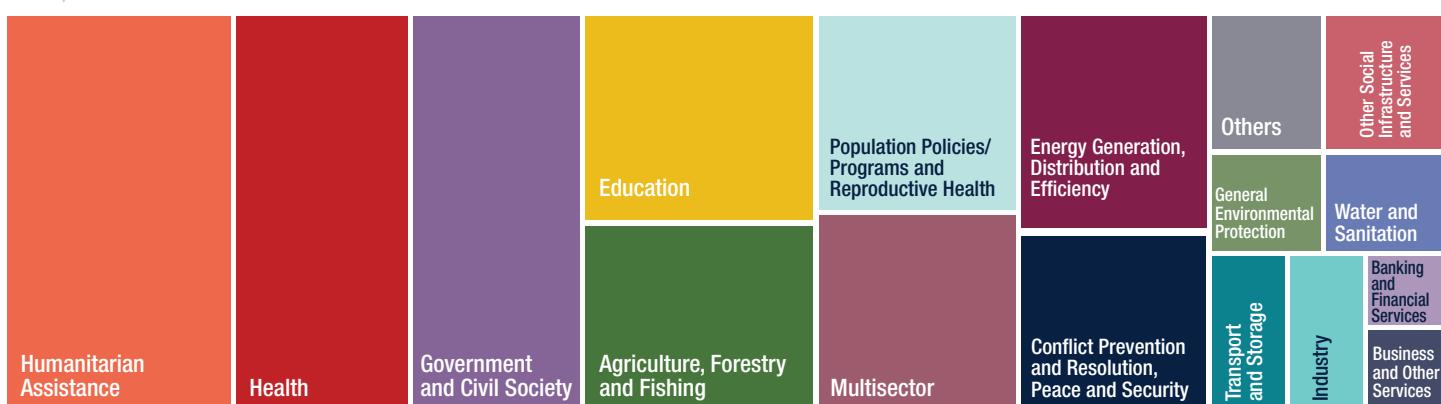

(3) These items refer to services provided to Global Affairs Canada without charge: accommodation provided by Public Services and Procurement Canada; contributions covering employers' share of employees' insurance premiums and expenditures paid by the Treasury Board of Canada Secretariat; legal services provided by the Department of Justice Canada, and worker's compensation benefits provided by Employment and Social Development Canada.

(1) Other federal departments include humanitarian assistance provided by Finance Canada, the International Development Research Centre, the Department of National Defence, Environment and Climate Change Canada, the Canadian Space Agency and the Public Health Agency of Canada.

(2) Projects coded to Africa are included under Sub-Saharan Africa because the majority of the benefits will incur to countries in that region.

(3) The OECD-DAC recently created a new sector classification and some projects are coded against the new structure.

CANADA'S INTERNATIONAL ASSISTANCE BY COUNTRY¹

Canada's international assistance comprises bilateral assistance (Table D2), where Canada earmarks or controls the funds by specifying the recipient and/or other aspects of the initiative, and imputed multilateral assistance (Table D3).

(1) Projects coded to Africa are included under Sub-Saharan Africa because the majority of the benefits will incur to countries in that region.

(2) A complete list of all other government departments providing international assistance can be found in Table A of this report.

(3) Unallocable aid are disbursements that cannot be identified for any particular recipient or sector (e.g. costs of refugees in Canada and imputed student costs).

CANADA'S BILATERAL INTERNATIONAL ASSISTANCE BY COUNTRY¹

Bilateral assistance includes projects undertaken directly with a country or funding channelled through a multilateral organization to a country or to programs and funds managed by the organization. They also encompass transactions with non-governmental organizations active in development.

(1) Other: Includes Strategic Policy Branch, International Business Development and Innovation Branch, Services Rendered Abroad, and corporate operations and management costs of non-programming branches.
(2) Provinces, Territories and Municipalities include the Province of Quebec, the Federation of Canadian Municipalities, and the Province of Alberta.
(3) A complete list of all other government departments providing international assistance can be found in Table A of this report.
(4) Projects coded to Africa are included under Sub-Saharan Africa because the majority of the benefits will incur to countries in that region.
(5) Unallocable aid are disbursements that cannot be identified for any particular recipient or sector (e.g., costs of refugees in Canada and imputed student costs).

CANADA'S MULTILATERAL INTERNATIONAL ASSISTANCE BY COUNTRY¹

Canada's multilateral assistance is imputed to countries and sectors based on data reported to the OECD-DAC by multilateral organizations. More details can be found in Table D3 and in the glossary.

CANADIAN INTERNATIONAL ASSISTANCE BY RECIPIENT

D3: Multilateral International Assistance

Multilateral aid in a given year cannot be precisely imputable to donors' contributions in that year, regardless of methodology used.

See definition of "multilateral aid" in the Glossary for the complete explanation.

(1) Other departments providing multilateral assistance are Environment and Climate Change Canada, the Province of Quebec, Immigration, Refugees and Citizenship Canada, Canada Post, and Innovation, Science and Economic Development Canada.

(2) Projects coded to Africa are included under Sub-Saharan Africa as the majority of the benefits will incur to countries in that sub-region.

(3) Assistance provided to Iran represents the estimated portion of Canada's institutional support to multilateral organizations such as the United Nations High Commissioner for Refugees, the Global Fund to Fight AIDS, Tuberculosis and Malaria, and the Global Environment Facility.

(4) China received a significant amount of multilateral aid from organizations Canada supports, such as the Global Environment Facility.

(5) The majority of assistance provided to India represents the estimated portion of Canada's institutional support to multilateral organizations such as the International Development Association.

(6) Multilateral aid in a given year cannot be precisely imputable to donors' contributions in that year, regardless of methodology used. See definition of "multilateral aid" in the Glossary for the complete explanation.

This table refers to repayments of loans, granted by the former Canadian International Development Agency and Export Development Canada, to developing countries and repayable contributions, issued by Global Affairs Canada and the Department of Finance Canada, for development-related purposes.

Note that reflows on repayable contributions and loans are shown as negative amounts in some OECD reports, as these were counted as ODA when they were granted.

Under Section 23 of the Export Development Act, Export Development Canada reports as ODA concessional sovereign loans. These concessional credits, meeting approved development criteria, are not considered part of the International Assistance Envelope.

Glossary

A

Administrative Costs (see also operations and management)	In 1979, OECD-DAC members agreed that ODA figures should include the administrative costs of extending assistance. This inclusion of administrative cost data was intended to improve the comparability of total ODA figures among donor countries.
Anti-Crime Capacity Building Program (ACCBP)	Improves the capacity of beneficiary states to prevent and respond to threats posed by transnational organized criminal activity throughout the hemisphere, thereby contributing to the full range of Canada's interests in the Americas. The ACCBP Human Smuggling Envelope is administered by the ACCBP to respond specifically to the global threat posed to Canada by human smuggling ventures abroad.
Assessed Contributions	Assessed contributions are payments made by the federal government as a result of Canada's membership in an international organization. In order to maintain our status as a member in good standing, Canada is required to provide its share of the total operations costs.

B

Bilateral Assistance (as opposed to multilateral assistance)	Bilateral assistance is the disbursement of funds where the donor earmarks or controls the funds by specifying the recipient and/or other aspects of the initiative. Bilateral assistance can be undertaken: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - by a donor country directly with a developing country; - with national and international non-governmental organizations (NGOs) active in development and other internal development-related transactions such as interest subsidies, spending on promotion of development awareness, debt reorganization and administrative costs; or - with a multilateral organization when the donor effectively controls the disposal of the funds by specifying the recipient or other aspects of the disbursement. Table A shows the breakdown of Canada's bilateral and multilateral assistance by source and by channel. Table D2 shows the breakdown of Canada's bilateral assistance by recipient.

Canada Fund for Local Initiatives (CFLI)	The CFLI is a contributions program administered at Canadian missions abroad, which is used to advance Canadian interests and priorities in a targeted and flexible manner. It occupies a unique niche: distinct, yet complementary to other Global Affairs Canada programming (i.e., development, security, democracy, humanitarian responses). The CFLI funds small scale locally-developed projects of up to $50,000, worth $25,000 on average.
Channel	In the context of this report and international development statistics, the term "channel" is used to distinguish between bilateral and multilateral assistance (see definitions for bilateral assistance and multilateral assistance).
Civil Society (as opposed to Government Institutions or Private Sector Institutions of the market)	In this report, civil society includes: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Canadian not-for-profit organizations that have a legal personality in Canada, including NGOs, international NGOs, volunteer cooperation agencies, cooperatives, unions and federations, faith-based organizations, professional associations, educational and policy research institutes; - regional, national, and local institutions, not-for-profit organizations and agencies from developing countries and territories that have a legal personality; or - international not-for-profit organizations that have a legal personality in the country in which their headquarters are located. To be considered international, an organization must have an international membership and management, and its governing body must be elected regularly on an international basis. See Table C1
Cost of Refugees	Refers to costs for refugees during their first year in a donor country. It includes the estimated expenditures to bring refugees to a donor country and the costs associated with food, shelter and training. The methodology used is consistent with the OECD-DAC directives. Note that only the costs covered by the federal government are considered ODA under the Official Development Assistance Accountability Act. See "About this report" at the beginning of this document. See definition of "ODA-eligible imputed costs."

	Counter-Terrorism Capacity Building Program	Improves the capacity of beneficiary states to prevent and respond to threats posed by terrorist activity through the provision of training, equipment, and technical and legal assistance.
	Country Programs (as opposed to regional programs)	Country programs are presented in Table D1 and Table D2, and cover a broad range of activities. These include programs carried out directly with government organizations, including direct budget support. Funds are also managed through an executing agent, or local or international NGOs or institutions, depending on program delivery and the specific conditions and agreements reached with the recipient country.
D
	Developmental Food Assistance	The term refers to the supply of edible human food under national or international programs, including transportation costs, cash payments made for food supplies, project food assistance and food assistance for market sales, excluding emergency food assistance. See definition of “emergency food assistance.”
	Disaster Prevention and Preparedness	An example of developmental food assistance is the World Food Programme’s School Feeding Program. School meals encourage hungry children to attend school and help them concentrate on their studies.
	Emergency Food Assistance	Refers to a specific set of humanitarian assistance activities that support disaster risk reduction (e.g. developing knowledge, natural risks cartography, legal norms for construction); early warning systems; and emergency contingency stocks and contingency planning, including preparations for forced displacement.
E
	Encashment of Notes, or Cash Basis (as opposed to issuance of notes)	This refers to a specific set of humanitarian assistance activities, including general free distribution or special supplementary feeding programs providing short-term relief to targeted population groups affected by emergency situations. The term excludes non-emergency food security assistance programs / food assistance. See “developmental food assistance.”
	Expenditures	A note encashment is a disbursement against a note that has been issued.
		The term “expenditures” refers to:
		<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - an amount spent (e.g. transfer payment in the form of a grant or contribution); - a capital subscription or advance to an international financial institution in the form of a note issuance; or - an estimated ODA-eligible cost (e.g. a cost for refugees in Canada).
	Export Development Canada (EDC)	Canada reports as ODA concessional credits that it grants through the Export Development Corporation under Section 23 of the Export Development Canada Act . These concessional credits, meeting approved development criteria, are not, however, considered part of the regular assistance program budget (International Assistance Envelope).
		Starting in 2012/13, EDC reports contributions to the HIPC debt initiative. These were previously reported by Finance Canada.
		Note: The 2014/15 Statistical Report is prepared on an expenditures basis and the loan repayments for previous ODA loans are no longer netted out of the totals. These loans are presented in Table A for information only. Appendices 1 and 2 provide a detailed breakdown of Global Affairs Canada and EDC loan repayments by country.
F
	Federation of Canadian Municipalities (FCM)	Any ODA expenditures are reported by the FCM on behalf of its members. Members of the FCM include Canada’s largest cities, small urban and rural communities, and 17 major provincial and territorial municipal associations.
	Finance Canada	This refers to ODA flows reported by the Department of Finance Canada, which is responsible for delivering a major portion of Canada’s ODA including Official Debt Relief, that is, debt reorganization that relieves the overall burden of debt in partner countries. Finance Canada also takes the lead in managing Canada’s relationship with the World Bank Group. The funding to the World Bank’s International Development Association and to the International Monetary Fund is reported to Parliament through the Main Estimates of the Department of Finance.
		Note: The Department of Finance Canada no longer reports contributions to the Heavily Indebted Poor Countries Initiative. These are now reported by Export Development Canada.
	FinDev Canada	A development finance institution that offers financial solutions and technical assistance to businesses in developing countries, with the potential to positively impact market development, empower women and mitigate climate change.
	Fiscal Year	This report is prepared on the fiscal-year basis adopted by the Government of Canada. The fiscal year begins April 1st and ends March 31st.
G
	General Budget Support	This refers to a particular category defined by the OECD-DAC as unearmarked contributions to the government budget, support for the implementation of macroeconomic reforms (structural adjustment programs, poverty reduction strategies) and general program assistance (when not allocable by sector).

Geographic Programs	Global Affairs Canada delivers the majority its bilateral assistance through country programs (see definition for “country programs”) or through regional programs (see definition of “regional programs”).
Global Affairs Canada	Under this department, Canada continues to advance its priorities abroad by undertaking diplomacy and programming in support of international peace and security, democracy, human rights, and the rule of law. The development side of Global Affairs Canada remains dedicated to deliver tangible results for those most in need in the developing world and the department continues to provide whole-of-government coordination in response to international crises and natural disasters.
Global Issues and Development	This Global Affairs Canada Branch, formerly known as Multilateral and Global Programs Branch, manages the development aspects of Canada’s relations with multilateral organizations, provides financial support for these organizations, and helps determine their policies and programs throughout the world.
Global Partnership Program	Global Issues and Development deliveres bilateral and multilateral assistance. See related definitions of “bilateral assistance” and “multilateral assistance.”
Global Peace and Security Program	It is the main mechanism through which Canada supports international efforts through concrete projects to prevent the proliferation of weapons and materials of mass destruction and their potential use by terrorists.
Health Canada	This refers to assistance expenditures incurred by the Department of Health Canada in support of the Pan-American Health Organization(PAHO). Through PAHO, Canada advances multilateral and bilateral relations in health, and provides technical cooperation and capacity building (see Table A).
Imputed Foreign Student Costs	This refers to the cost of educating foreign students from ODA-eligible countries in Canada. It excludes tuition fees paid by foreign students or their sponsors. See definition of “ODA-eligible imputed costs.”
International Assistance	Canada’s international assistance includes all financial resources provided by Canadian governments (federal, provincial, or municipal) to support economic, environmental, social, and political development in other (primarily developing) countries. See section “Understanding this report” for more information.
International Assistance Envelope (IAE)	The International Assistance Envelope is a dedicated, whole-of-government pool of resources for international assistance. It funds the majority of Canada’s international assistance. Most of the activities funded by the IAE qualify as Official Development Assistance and comply with the requirements of Canada’s Official Development Assistance Accountability Act . Non-ODA eligible activities funded by the International Assistance Envelope include, for example, security, conflict prevention, stabilization or peacebuilding initiatives that do not meet ODA eligibility due to country eligibility or activity type.
International Business Development and Innovation	This Global Affairs Canada Branch supports private sector engagement and the management and administration of a number of international scholarship opportunities for Canadians and foreign students.
International Development Association (IDA)	The IDA is the part of the World Bank that helps the world’s poorest countries. The IDA is funded largely by contributions from the governments of its developed member countries. The IDA lends money (known as credits) on concessional terms. This means that IDA credits have no interest charge, and repayments are stretched out over 35–40 years, including a 10-year grace period. The IDA also provides grants to countries at risk of debt distress. Canadian funding to IDA is managed by the Department of Finance Canada, and is represented in the form of note encashments.
International Development Research Centre (IDRC)	Refers to ODA spent by IDRC, a Canadian Crown corporation funded through the IAE that invests in knowledge, innovation and solutions to improve lives and livelihoods in the developing world.
International Financial Institution (IFI)	IFIs are financial institutions that have been established (or chartered) by more than one country and are therefore subject to international law. Their owners or shareholders are generally national governments, although other international institutions and other organizations occasionally figure as shareholders. The most prominent IFIs are creations of multiple nations, although some bilateral financial institutions (created by two countries) exist and are technically IFIs. Many of these are multilateral development banks. The best-known IFIs are the World Bank, the International Monetary Fund and regional development banks.

International Humanitarian Assistance (IHA)	IHA is defined as assistance designed to save lives, alleviate suffering, and maintain and protect human dignity during emergencies and in their aftermath. Humanitarian assistance is delivered in a manner that is consistent with the principles of humanity, impartiality, neutrality, and independence.
International Humanitarian Assistance Bureau	Humanitarian assistance includes: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - disaster prevention and preparedness; - the provision of shelter, food, water, sanitation, and health services, and other items of assistance for the benefit of the affected people, and to facilitate the return to normal lives and livelihoods; - measures to promote and protect the safety, welfare, and dignity of civilians and those no longer taking part in hostilities; and - rehabilitation, reconstruction, and transition assistance while the emergency situation persists
International Scholarship Program	This Global Affairs Canada Bureau responds to funding requests from multilateral humanitarian organizations such as the United Nations World Food Programme, UNICEF and other experienced humanitarian partners, including the Red Cross Movement and NGOs, except in West Bank/Gaza where the country program also provides humanitarian assistance.
International Security and Crisis Response	Please refer to table B2 for a detailed summary of Canada's international humanitarian assistance.
Investment Cooperation Program	Attracts international students and researchers to Canada by offering scholarships to Canadian and foreign students and by promoting government funded awards.

Loan Repayments	In this report, loan repayments are the repayments to Canada of development-related loans by developing countries, whether the loans were issued by Global Affairs Canada or other departments. A detailed breakdown by country/organization is available in Appendices 1 and 2.
Long-term Institutional Support	Bilateral loans – Refers to repayments of loans granted by Global Affairs Canada to developing countries prior to 1986. Multilateral loans – Refers to repayments of loans granted by Global Affairs Canada to the Andean Development Corporation, the African Development Bank and Inter-American Development Bank. Long-term institutional support, also known as core funding, is the business delivery model that allows the Government of Canada to provide financial support to entities (organizations, institutions, or recipient countries) whose actions achieve development results that reflect the Government of Canada government goals and objectives.
	In the Statistical Report on International Assistance , in accordance with international standards, long-term institutional support to multilateral organizations is counted as multilateral assistance, while long-term institutional support to NGOs is counted as bilateral assistance. In addition, long-term institutional support to Multilateral Institutions includes ODA portion of assessed contributions. See definition of "assessed contributions."

M

Material Relief Assistance and Services	In Table B2, this refers to a specific set of humanitarian assistance activities: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - the provision of shelter, water, sanitation, and health services; supply of medicines; and other non-food relief items; and - assistance to refugees and internally displaced people in developing countries other than for food or protection
Mobilized Private Finance	Mobilized private finance refers to the participation of the private sector in sustainable development projects. Official actors such as Canada can attract private investment in developing countries by mitigating risk and improving the enabling environment. The financial engagement of the private sector in a particular project is "mobilized" because of Canada's involvement to make the project financially viable.

	Multilateral assistance is funding provided to a multilateral institution that:
	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - conducts all or part of its activities in favour of development; - is an international agency, institution or organization whose members are governments, or a fund managed autonomously by such an agency; and - pools contributions so that they become an integral part of the financial assets.
	In this report, the term “multilateral assistance” includes both ODA and non-ODA elements.
	In an effort to estimate/impute the portion of assistance going through those organizations to developing countries, the OECD has developed a series of coefficients based the on flow of resources (on a calendar-year basis) disbursed by the organizations in the developing countries. This set of coefficients is used, in part, to estimate the disbursements shown in Table D3.
Multilateral Assistance (as opposed to bilateral assistance), also known as long-term institutional support to multilateral organizations	It is important to note that any methodology for imputing multilateral flows will always be an approximation. Multilateral flows in a given year are not exactly imputable to donors' contributions in that year, no matter what methodology is used. Among the reasons for this are: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - General approximations and timing. The estimated country and sector amounts are counted when the government makes the payment to the organization and are based on the totality of the program, rather than when the payment is used by the ultimate recipient. Donors' contributions to multilateral institutions are reportable in the year they are paid. Many trust funds aim to catalyze additional funding from other investors and donors. Such funds typically need to reach a certain funding threshold before disbursements begin, sometime after Canada's contribution. - Limits of data on multilateral outflows. While a number of multilateral agencies report to the OECD on the use of their funding (by country, by sector, etc.), some do not. Therefore, the country and sector breakdowns of those organizations are estimated using others sources, such as annual reports. - Grants to lending institutions. Some institutions lend rather than grant funds. Their lending in any one year may be much greater than donors' contributions, since it also draws on reflows of principal, interest receipts and transfers of funds within the institution.
Multilateral Organizations	The OECD-DAC defines multilateral organizations as international institutions with governmental membership that conduct all, or a significant part, of their activities in favour of development and assistance recipient countries. They include multilateral development banks (e.g. the World Bank and regional development banks), United Nations agencies, international public-private partnerships, and regional groupings (e.g. certain European Union and Arab agencies).
N
National Defence, the Department of (DND)	This refers to ODA-eligible contributions on behalf of DND and the Canadian Armed Forces, such as the provision of humanitarian relief supplies. Military-type interventions (for example, bilateral peacekeeping missions) and other activities that are not development focused are not included in this report.
O
ODA-Eligible Imputed Costs	This describes a cost category that is eligible for ODA status under the OECD-DAC guidelines, but with no actual expenditure data readily available. Instead, an estimate is produced based on a statistical model and/or professional judgement. This includes the cost of refugees (first year), imputed foreign student costs, services provided without charge by other government departments and imputed interest on advance payments, for which definitions can be found in this glossary. The new Policy on Transfer Payments no longer requires departments to report the imputed interest costs on advance payments and therefore these costs no longer appear in the Statistical Report.
Office of Religious Freedom	The Religious Freedom Fund supports religious communities that are facing intolerance or persecution in their country outside Canada through projects in four areas: education on freedom of religion and pluralism, research and monitoring, interreligious dialogue, and legal and legislative support.
Official Bilateral Debt Relief	Official bilateral debt relief refers to debt-service relief negotiated through multilateral forums such as the Paris Club. The transfer of funds, administered by the Department of Finance Canada, is considered ODA-eligible.

Official Development Assistance (ODA)	Official Development Assistance (ODA) represents the vast majority of Canada's international assistance. Canada accepts two definitions of ODA: 1. ODA, as defined by the Development Assistance Committee of the Organisation for Economic Co-operation and Development. It defines ODA as flows to countries and territories on the DAC List of ODA recipients and to multilateral institutions. Funding must be provided by official agencies, including state and local governments, or by their executive agencies. Each transaction which is administered with the promotion of the economic development and welfare of developing countries as its main objective and/or is concessional in character. 2. ODA, as defined by Canada's ODAAA, is used in Government of Canada publications. Canada's ODAAA spending is compatible with the OECD-DAC definition above, but it is only applicable to federal entities and, in addition must meet the 3 criteria set out in subsection 4.1 of the act: a) contribute to poverty reduction, b) take into account the perspectives of the poor, and c) be consistent with international human rights standards. International assistance to alleviate the effects of a disaster or other emergencies is also counted as ODA under the act. Unless otherwise specified, "official development assistance," as used in this statistical report, refers to the definition in the ODAAA. ODA represents the vast majority of Canada's international assistance. For more information, look in the section "Understanding this report" at the beginning of this document.
Operations and Management (see also administrative costs)	In this report this term represents the operations and management costs directly incurred by the donor agency to cover the day-to-day costs of extending international assistance. See also "administrative costs".
Other Official Assistance (also known as non-ODA)	This refers to activities that do not meet the conditions for eligibility as Official Development Assistance because they are not primarily aimed at development (e.g. counter-terrorism capacity building, military observers). On the other hand, incremental costs incurred for the use of the donor's military equipment to deliver humanitarian assistance or perform development services are ODA-eligible (for example, emergency assistance by the Disaster Assistance Response Team). Activities outside the IAE that are not ODA eligible are considered out-of-scope of this report and hence not reported (e.g., military-related training, supply of military equipment and services to peacekeeping missions, and the forgiveness of debts incurred for military purposes).

P

Partnerships for Development Innovation	This Global Affairs Canada Branch provides opportunities for Canadians to engage in international development and contributes to initiatives designed and delivered predominantly by Canadian civil society organizations, private sector, colleges, universities, research entities, provincial and regional councils and foundations. The Branch facilitates knowledge exchange across the department, with civil society and international partners to advance innovative approaches to international development.
Payables at Year-End	The recording against the current fiscal year of liabilities incurred but which have not been paid by the end of the accounting period.
Program Assistance	This term refers to international assistance spending by Global Affairs Canada's assistance programs, excluding operations and management costs, and changes in the value of investments in IFIs.
Provincial Governments	This refers to international assistance programs of the provinces of Quebec, Manitoba, Alberta and Saskatchewan. For example, the Government of Quebec provides long-term institutional support to certain multilateral institutions such as the Organisation internationale de la Francophonie (OIF), and undertakes bilateral projects in a number of countries. The Official Development Assistance Accountability Act does not apply to these programs.
Public Health Agency of Canada	This refers to assistance expenditures incurred by the Public Health Agency of Canada in support of the Pan-American Health Organization (see Table A).

R

Regional Development Banks	These are International Financial Institutions (IFIs) that are owned and operated by member nations. They are designed to extend development loans and provide other assistance to member nations. The world's five regional development banks are the African Development Bank Group, Asian Development Bank, European Bank for Reconstruction and Development, Caribbean Development Bank, and Inter-American Development Bank.
Regional Programs	Refers to regional programs managed by Global Affairs Canada's Geographic Programs Bureau (see definition) that address the regional issues countries face together. In Table D1 and Table D2, these programs are reported separately from country programs. See definition of "country programs."
Repayable Contributions	A contribution provided to a recipient institution for investment purposes, with the expectation of long-term reflows at conditions specified in the financing agreement. The provider assumes the risk of total or partial failure of the investment.
Royal Canadian Mounted Police (RCMP)	This refers to ODA disbursements made by the RCMP for bilateral programs aimed at post-conflict peacebuilding and security system management and reform.

S

Sector Codes (Table B1)
Sector codes are used to describe the purpose of assistance. The list of sectors is compiled by the OECD-DAC. From time to time, modifications are made with the approval of donor countries. The OECD-DAC sector classification contains the following broad categories:

- social infrastructure and services – covering the sectors of education, health, population, water, government, and civil society;
- economic infrastructure and services – covering transport, communications, energy, banking and finance, and business services;
- production – covering agriculture, forestry, fishing, industry, mining, construction, trade, and tourism; and
- multi-sector – covering, for example, general environmental protection; other multi-sector assistance, including urban and rural development; and non-sector allocable assistance for contributions not susceptible to allocation by sector, such as general budget support, actions relating to debt, humanitarian assistance, and internal transactions in the donor country.

The sector of destination of a contribution provides the specific area of the recipient's economic or social structure the transfer is intended to foster. The sector classification does not refer to the type of goods or services provided.

Due to differences in timing and methodology, the figures reported in Table B1 will vary significantly from those reported in "Table 5: Official Bilateral Commitments by Sector of Destination" of the OECD-DAC's questionnaire on ODA.

There are three main reasons for these discrepancies:

- fiscal year vs. calendar year – The Statistical Report on Official Development Assistance is based on the Government of Canada's fiscal year; however, the DAC questionnaire is based on the calendar year.
- commitments vs. disbursements – The DAC's Table 5 is prepared on a commitment basis rather than when funds are actually disbursed.
- proportionate coding – Global Affairs Canada's systems permit coding many sectors against any given contribution; however, the OECD's reporting allows only for a single purpose code for each assistance project/program.

Services Provided Without Charge by Other Departments

This refers to costs incurred by other departments for accommodation, legal and cheque-issuing services rendered to Global Affairs Canada. See definition of "ODA-eligible imputed costs".

Services Rendered Abroad

Refer to the common services provided to Global Affairs Canada personnel, both Canada-based and locally-engaged at Canada's diplomatic and consular missions abroad. These funds help to facilitate the presence of development officers in the field and support international assistance project implementation.

Strategic Communications Bureau

Amounts related to this bureau of Global Affairs Canada represent assistance program expenditures to promote development. The program supports the efforts of Canadians through mass media and educational initiatives.

Strategic Policy and Summits

This Global Affairs Canada Branch, formerly known as Strategic Policy and Performance Branch, represents ODA-eligible international assistance expenditures made by Global Affairs Canada for representing Canada at international forums on development and ensuring that international commitments are reflected in Canadian development policies.

Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs)

In September 2015, Canada and 192 other UN member states adopted the 2030 Agenda for Sustainable Development. The 2030 Agenda is a 15-year global framework centred on an ambitious set of 17 Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs), 169 targets and over 230 indicators. The 2030 Agenda envisions a secure world free of poverty and hunger, with full and productive employment, access to quality education and universal health coverage, the achievement of gender equality and the empowerment of all women and girls, and an end to environmental degradation.

The 2030 Agenda is a global framework of action for people, planet, prosperity, peace and partnership. It integrates social, economic and environmental dimensions of sustainable development, as well as peace, governance and justice elements. It is universal in nature, meaning that developing and developed countries alike will implement the Agenda. Furthermore, the Agenda includes an overarching principle of ensuring that no one is left behind in the achievement of the SDGs.

Canada's international assistance projects can support multiple goals at the same time.

T

Total Official Support for Sustainable Development (TOSSD)

TOSSD is a new international statistical framework for monitoring official resources and private finance mobilized by official interventions in support of sustainable development. It encompasses all officially supported resource flows to promote sustainable development in developing countries, and to support development enablers and address global challenges at regional or global levels. As such, it includes almost all reported ODA. TOSSD also includes private resources mobilized by the official sector (e.g. through public-private partnerships).

U

Unallocable or Non-Allocable Assistance (as opposed to allocable assistance)

When assistance disbursements cannot be assigned by country or sector (e.g. costs of refugees in Canada), the disbursement is referred to as unallocable or non-allocable.
