Minister's message

On behalf of Environment and Climate Change Canada, I am pleased to present our report on fees for 2020–21.

The Service Fees Act provides a modern legislative framework that enables cost-effective delivery of services and, through better reporting to Parliament, improves transparency and oversight.

Last year's report provided details on each fee, such as the type and rate of adjustment, the service standard and the performance result. This information provided additional context on each fee, in the spirit of open and transparent fee management.

This year's report once again includes factors or events that affected the information in the report, anticipated changes relating to fees, instances when the Department applied section 17 of the Service Fees Act, and how many of its fees are subject to the Low-Materiality Fees Regulations.

I welcome the increased transparency and oversight that the Service Fees Act's reporting regime embodies. I will continue to lead my department's transition to the reporting regime provided under the Service Fees Act.

The Honourable Steven Guilbeault, P.C., M.P.
Minister of Environment and Climate Change

About this report

This report, which is tabled under section 20 of the Service Fees Act<sup>i</sup>, including the Low-Materiality Fees Regulations<sup>ii</sup> and subsection 4.2.8 of the Directive on Charging and Special Financial Authorities<sup>iii</sup>, contains information about the fees that Environment and Climate Change Canada had the authority to set in 2020–21.<sup>1</sup>

Government of Canada departments may set fees for services, licences, permits, products, the use of facilities, for other authorizations of rights or privileges, or to recover, in whole or in part, costs incurred in relation to a regulatory scheme.

For reporting purposes, fees must be categorized under the following three fee-setting mechanisms:

1. Act, regulation or fees notice
  - An act of Parliament delegates the fee-setting authority to a department, minister or Governor in Council.
2. Contract
  - Ministers have the authority to enter into contracts, which are usually negotiated between the minister and an individual or organization, and which cover fees and other terms and conditions. In some cases, that authority may also be provided by an act of Parliament.
3. Market rate or auction
  - The authority to set these fees is pursuant to an act of Parliament or regulation, and the minister, department or Governor in Council has no control over the fee amount.

This report contains information about all fees that are under Environment and Climate Change Canada's authority.

The information covers fees subject to the Service Fees Act.

For fees set by contract, fees set by market-rate, auction or both, the report provides totals only. For fees set by act, regulation or fees notice, it provides totals for fee groupings, as well as detailed information for each fee.

Although the fees that Environment and Climate Change Canada charges under the Access to Information Act were subject to the Service Fees Act, they are not included in this report. Information on Environment and Climate Change Canada's access to information fees for 2020–21 can be found in our access to information report, which is

Remissions

This report does not include remissions issued under the authority of the Service Fees Act, since this requirement took effect on April 1, 2021. Remissions issued under the Service Fees Act will be reported for the first time, as applicable, in the 2021–22 Fees Report, which will be published in 2022–23.

The Service Fees Act requires departments to remit a fee, in part or in full, to a fee payer when a service standard is deemed not met. Under the Service Fees Act and the Directive on Charging and Special Financial Authorities, departments had to develop policies and procedures for determining:

- whether a service standard has been met
- how much of a fee will be remitted to a fee payer if a service standard is deemed not met

Environment and Climate Change Canada’s remission policy and procedures was made available to the public on April 1, 2021, and can be found on the following web page: Departmental Remissions Policy for Service Fees<sup>v</sup>.

No other remissions related to fees were issued by Environment and Climate Change Canada since it did not have or seek other authorities to remit.

Overall totals, by fee-setting mechanism

The following table presents the total revenue, cost and remissions for all fees that Environment and Climate Change Canada had the authority to set in 2020–21, by fee-setting mechanism.

Totals, by fee grouping, for fees set by act, regulation or fees notice

The following section presents, for each fee grouping, the total revenue, cost and remissions for all fees that Environment and Climate Change Canada had the authority to set in 2020–21 that are set by any of the following:

- act
- regulation
- fees notice

A fee grouping is a set of fees relating to a single business line, directorate or program that a department had the authority to set for those activities.

Service standard

The following service standard is not subject to remissions pursuant to the Service Fees Act: requests for a Hunting Permit Registration in the Cap Tourmente National Wildlife Area for the controlled fall hunt for greater snow goose are issued through a lottery system for which the following service standards apply:

- Hunters will be informed if they have been selected to take place in the controlled fall hunt for Greater Snow Goose by May 31st.
- If selected to take part in the hunt, hunters will receive their confirmation of their permit dates by email by no later than July 31st.
- The public has access to high-quality controlled hunting activities, including hunting site preparation, decoys, training sessions supervised by qualified staff, and safe facilities. To access the activities, Canadian residents must pay a non-refundable application fee. If they are chosen by lot, they are issued a non-refundable hunting permit.

Service standard

The following service standard is not subject to remissions pursuant to the Service Fees Act: a sufficient number of permits are available for distribution for the open hunting season, and Canadian citizens or other individuals acquiring a permit can obtain one within a reasonable time. A Canadian wildlife habitat conservation stamp must be affixed to the permit to make it valid. The fee for the stamp is separate (see Cost of Documents, Schedule 2, Item 9: Habitat Conservation Stamp fee). Migratory game bird hunting permits are available for sale as of August 1 at Canada Post offices, from select provincial and private vendors and directly from Environment and Climate Change Canada through an online ordering system, Hunters can also purchase their permits online and receive them by email, 24 hours a day, and 7 days a week.

Performance result

The service standard for this fee was met 99% of the time for the approximately 169,000 permit applications received. Physical Migratory Game Bird Hunting Permits were available for sale at many Canada Post outlets and some independent vendors and electronic Migratory Game Bird Hunting Permits were available through the Migratory Game Bird Hunting e-Permitting system from August 1, 2020 until June 30, 2021. The permits were available within minutes after transactions were completed.

The service standard is to reach a permit decision within 90 days after the applicant has been advised that their application is complete. This standard is subject to some conditions under which the 90-day period is suspended or does not apply, for example, if the applicant asks for a later date.

Under the application fee, each application is reviewed according to Schedule 6 of Canadian Environmental Protection Act, 1999 and the Disposal at Sea Regulations. This involves public notice, an application that provides detailed data, scientific review, and the payment of fees. Each permit is published on the Canadian Environmental Protection Act Registry<sup>clxi</sup> and issued to the permit holder.

Minister's message

On behalf of Environment and Climate Change Canada, I am pleased to present our report on fees for 2020–21.

The Service Fees Act provides a modern legislative framework that enables cost-effective delivery of services and, through better reporting to Parliament, improves transparency and oversight.

Last year's report provided details on each fee, such as the type and rate of adjustment, the service standard and the performance result. This information provided additional context on each fee, in the spirit of open and transparent fee management.

This year's report once again includes factors or events that affected the information in the report, anticipated changes relating to fees, instances when the Department applied section 17 of the Service Fees Act, and how many of its fees are subject to the Low-Materiality Fees Regulations.

I welcome the increased transparency and oversight that the Service Fees Act's reporting regime embodies. I will continue to lead my department's transition to the reporting regime provided under the Service Fees Act.

The Honourable Steven Guilbeault, P.C., M.P.
Minister of Environment and Climate Change

About this report

This report, which is tabled under section 20 of the Service Fees Act<sup>i</sup>, including the Low-Materiality Fees Regulations<sup>ii</sup> and subsection 4.2.8 of the Directive on Charging and Special Financial Authorities<sup>iii</sup>, contains information about the fees that Environment and Climate Change Canada had the authority to set in 2020–21.<sup>1</sup>

Government of Canada departments may set fees for services, licences, permits, products, the use of facilities, for other authorizations of rights or privileges, or to recover, in whole or in part, costs incurred in relation to a regulatory scheme.

For reporting purposes, fees must be categorized under the following three fee-setting mechanisms:

1. Act, regulation or fees notice
  - An act of Parliament delegates the fee-setting authority to a department, minister or Governor in Council.
2. Contract
  - Ministers have the authority to enter into contracts, which are usually negotiated between the minister and an individual or organization, and which cover fees and other terms and conditions. In some cases, that authority may also be provided by an act of Parliament.
3. Market rate or auction
  - The authority to set these fees is pursuant to an act of Parliament or regulation, and the minister, department or Governor in Council has no control over the fee amount.

This report contains information about all fees that are under Environment and Climate Change Canada's authority.

The information covers fees subject to the Service Fees Act.

For fees set by contract, fees set by market-rate, auction or both, the report provides totals only. For fees set by act, regulation or fees notice, it provides totals for fee groupings, as well as detailed information for each fee.

Although the fees that Environment and Climate Change Canada charges under the Access to Information Act were subject to the Service Fees Act, they are not included in this report. Information on Environment and Climate Change Canada's access to information fees for 2020–21 can be found in our access to information report, which is

Remissions

This report does not include remissions issued under the authority of the Service Fees Act, since this requirement took effect on April 1, 2021. Remissions issued under the Service Fees Act will be reported for the first time, as applicable, in the 2021–22 Fees Report, which will be published in 2022–23.

The Service Fees Act requires departments to remit a fee, in part or in full, to a fee payer when a service standard is deemed not met. Under the Service Fees Act and the Directive on Charging and Special Financial Authorities, departments had to develop policies and procedures for determining:

- whether a service standard has been met
- how much of a fee will be remitted to a fee payer if a service standard is deemed not met

Environment and Climate Change Canada’s remission policy and procedures was made available to the public on April 1, 2021, and can be found on the following web page: Departmental Remissions Policy for Service Fees<sup>v</sup>.

No other remissions related to fees were issued by Environment and Climate Change Canada since it did not have or seek other authorities to remit.

Overall totals, by fee-setting mechanism

The following table presents the total revenue, cost and remissions for all fees that Environment and Climate Change Canada had the authority to set in 2020–21, by fee-setting mechanism.

Service standard

The following service standard is not subject to remissions pursuant to the Service Fees Act: requests for a Hunting Permit Registration in the Cap Tourmente National Wildlife Area for the controlled fall hunt for greater snow goose are issued through a lottery system for which the following service standards apply:

- Hunters will be informed if they have been selected to take place in the controlled fall hunt for Greater Snow Goose by May 31st.
- If selected to take part in the hunt, hunters will receive their confirmation of their permit dates by email by no later than July 31st.
- The public has access to high-quality controlled hunting activities, including hunting site preparation, decoys, training sessions supervised by qualified staff, and safe facilities. To access the activities, Canadian residents must pay a non-refundable application fee. If they are chosen by lot, they are issued a non-refundable hunting permit.

Service standard

The following service standard is not subject to remissions pursuant to the Service Fees Act: a sufficient number of permits are available for distribution for the open hunting season, and Canadian citizens or other individuals acquiring a permit can obtain one within a reasonable time. A Canadian wildlife habitat conservation stamp must be affixed to the permit to make it valid. The fee for the stamp is separate (see Cost of Documents, Schedule 2, Item 9: Habitat Conservation Stamp fee). Migratory game bird hunting permits are available for sale as of August 1 at Canada Post offices, from select provincial and private vendors and directly from Environment and Climate Change Canada through an online ordering system, Hunters can also purchase their permits online and receive them by email, 24 hours a day, and 7 days a week.

Performance result

The service standard for this fee was met 99% of the time for the approximately 169,000 permit applications received. Physical Migratory Game Bird Hunting Permits were available for sale at many Canada Post outlets and some independent vendors and electronic Migratory Game Bird Hunting Permits were available through the Migratory Game Bird Hunting e-Permitting system from August 1, 2020 until June 30, 2021. The permits were available within minutes after transactions were completed.

The service standard is to reach a permit decision within 90 days after the applicant has been advised that their application is complete. This standard is subject to some conditions under which the 90-day period is suspended or does not apply, for example, if the applicant asks for a later date.

Under the application fee, each application is reviewed according to Schedule 6 of Canadian Environmental Protection Act, 1999 and the Disposal at Sea Regulations. This involves public notice, an application that provides detailed data, scientific review, and the payment of fees. Each permit is published on the Canadian Environmental Protection Act Registry<sup>clxi</sup> and issued to the permit holder.

Performance result

100% of the 84 permits received were delivered within timelines as per the Canadian Environmental Protection Act, 1999.
